2008

Rod Library Newsletter: Rod Notes, v1n2, August 2008

University of Northern Iowa. Rod Library.
Stephenie Meyer’s Twilight Series is a nationwide phenomenon that young adults and adults alike are flocking to. As a matter of fact, we’ve had to buy several copies of the books because ours continue to be mysteriously “lost.” So what is all this hype about a young girl who is in a love triangle with a vampire and a werewolf? You can find out by joining us in a really cool discussion about Stephenie Meyer’s Twilight Series on Thursday, October 16th, at 6pm at University Book and Supply.

need more information? Call the Youth Collection at 273-6166 or call Patty at the bookstore, 266-7581.

**************

Opposing Viewpoints Resource Center
A full-text resource covering today’s hottest social issues, from Terrorism to Endangered Species, Stem Cell Research to Gun Control. Opposing Viewpoints Resource Center provides information that’s needed to understand an issue: pro and con viewpoint articles, reference articles that provide context, full-text magazines, academic journals, and newspapers, primary source documents, government and organizational statistics, multimedia, including images and podcasts, links to hand-selected web sites, and more.

**************

Color Photocopies Available
Get the impact you want on papers and projects by adding color photocopies to them. The Rod Library now has available on its main floor (2nd floor) a copier that will make color photocopies for $.50 per copy. Photocopy sizes available are 8½”x11” to 11”x17”.

**************