New York, Dec 5th 1871

and say this personally to the President My Smith Home Port at 7th St

My dear Sir:

I want you to say to the President for me, that his Message is most admirable in all its statements and recommendations, & that this is the sentiment & judgment of the best men in New York many of whom I have met to-day. & I believe it will be most favorably and enthusiastically received in every part of the Country. He has evinced consummate skill in the treatment of the knotty questions that agitate the Public mind. I am sorry I have not time to now visit Washington,
