Stephenie Meyer’s Twilight Series is a nationwide phenomenon that young adults and adults alike are flocking to. As a matter of fact, we’ve had to buy several copies of the books because ours continue to be mysteriously “lost.” So what is all this hype about a young girl who is in a love triangle with a vampire and a werewolf? You can find out by joining us in a really cool discussion about Stephenie Meyer’s Twilight Series on Thursday, October 16th, at 6pm at University Book and Supply.

How can I reserve a study room?
Study rooms are located on the first, third, and fourth floors. These rooms are intended for groups of up to six students who wish to study together. Keys are checked out at the Circulation Desk on a first-come, first-served basis and may not be reserved in advance. Patrons are limited to one checkout of a study room per day for any individual or group.

Opposing Viewpoints Resource Center
A full-text resource covering today’s hottest social issues, from Terrorism to Endangered Species, Stem Cell Research to Gun Control. Opposing Viewpoints Resource Center provides information that’s needed to understand an issue: pro and con viewpoint articles, reference articles that provide context, full-text magazines, academic journals, and newspapers, primary source documents, government and organizational statistics, multimedia, including images and podcasts, links to hand-selected web sites, and more.

Color Photocopies Available
Get the impact you want on papers and projects by adding color photocopies to them. The Rod Library now has available on its main floor (2nd floor) a copier that will make color photocopies for $.50 per copy. Photocopy sizes available are 8½"x11" to 11"x17".
