BASEBALL BRIEFS

ROBERT CURTIS. Senior first baseman. Has won two letters in baseball and three in basketball. Not a sensational baseball player, he is always pressing the opposition. In the game or on the bench, he shoots the works. Has two year batting average of .143 and fielding average of .938. Has a all-North Central conference center for three years.

JOHN COSTIGAN. Senior third baseman. A junior college transfer, he won his letter last year. Hit .167 and fielded .800.

LEVERNE DUNSMOOR. Junior pitcher. "Lefty" won his letter last year, although his record showed one loss and no wins. Hit .500 in two trips to the plate.

GEORGE HUTCHISON. Senior catcher. Has won two letters in baseball. One of the best of Teachers College catchers but would rather talk about his qualifications as a basketball player. Has hitting average of .312 for two years and a fielding mark of .985. Hates to see his name spelled with an "N" between the "I" and "S".

ALLEN KANE. Junior pitcher. Won single letters in baseball and football. Won three games and lost one last year while batting at a .118 mark. Like all pitchers he loves to hit. Really hits a hard ball and may be the slugger he claims before the year is over.

HUBERT MISSILDINE. Junior. Played center field last year but may be the regular third baseman this spring. Under orders to play in that position all summer he reports with plenty of familiarity for the so-called "hot corner". Won his letter last year, hitting .268 and fielding .944.

MELVIN MOHR. Senior outfielder. Has won two letters in baseball.
Reported as a sophomore second baseman but superb fielding eye, coupled with an arm unable to stand strain of snap throwing of the infield, caused him to be removed to the outfield. Here the long overhand throws are no strain and his fielding ability is such that the scorers automatically mark up a putout when the ball heads in his general direction. Has hit .210 and fielded .925, including five games at second base.

ED NASH. Senior outfielder. Has won two letters in baseball. Although the most natural looking ball player on the squad, Nash has yet to play his best brand of baseball. An eye examination and the purchase of a pair of glasses last summer are expected to make a real slugger out of him. Is the easiest swinger yet the hardest hitter on the team. Has a .248 hitting average and a fielding mark of .875.

KENNETH PERRY. Senior outfielder. Has won two letters in baseball.
Has ranked second in hitting both years on the squad and has the best two year mark of the 1938 group - a .339 batting average. His mark in field is .833. The "Kipper" is another player who has yet to live up to his ability.

LEONARD ST. CLAIR. Senior shortstop. Won letter as sophomore. A badly wrenched knee, suffered in basketball just before the baseball season opened, kept him on the sidelines last year. Says he's all set to give it a whirl if the leg will hold up. Hit .263 and came up with an .829 batting average in 1936.

BILL BOLT. Junior catcher. Member of 1937 squad. Big and rugged, Bolt can handle himself at any position on the field. Hitting is weak point.

LOUIS BREITBACH. Junior shortstop. Came up as an outfielder but was put at short last year by Whitford with instructions to learn the business. Did not get into a single game but may fit his way to a regular post this year. A scrapper from the word go. Will blow chances but never quits trying - not easily flustered. Has won one letter as a back in football. Won baseball numeral in 1936.

BERNARD HUGHES. Junior outfielder. Looked like a comer last year and may be the regular centerfielder if Missildine stays at third base. Led 1936 freshman team in hitting with .500 average. Numeral winner that year.

HARVEY KIMBALL. Junior pitcher. Showed steady improvement last year and may be ready to shoulder the pitching burden this spring.
Was a member of the 1937 squad and won his numeral in 1936.
HAROLD RIGGS. Junior pitcher. Only ambidextrous hurler on the squad. Out of school one year.

PAUL HARRMS. Junior catcher. Out of school for several years. Is once more a squad member, hopeful of helping out with the catching duties.

ROMAN YATCHAK. Senior outfielder. Twice a letterman in football and basketball, Yatchak was a reserve outfielder or third baseman last year. An honor student, Yatchak may not report for baseball in order that he may carry 20 hours of school work needed for spring graduation. All-conference basketball guard.

RAY BLAKE. Senior catcher. Won numeral in 1936 after transferring from Marshalltown junior college. Did not play last year.

LWELLYN BOONE. Junior infielder. Won numeral in 1936.

DEAN BREITBACH. Sophomore second baseman. Although a sophomore and 50 pounds lighter and four inches shorter, Dean is the big brother of Louis. Won numeral last year. May work with his brother to form brother keystone combination.

LYLE DODD. Sophomore pitcher. Won numeral in track but is turning to baseball this spring. Won letter as varsity forward on basketball team.

BERNARD ERDMAN. Sophomore pitcher. Together with Dunsmoor, Erdman constitutes lefthanded section of pitching staff. Both, oddly, are fraternity brothers. Can play the outfield or first base. Is also a good hitter. Won numeral last year.

JAMES GOODMAN. Sophomore infielder. Plays any infield position but is counted upon as regular second baseman. Fine fielder and good hitter. Won numeral last year.

HERBERT HAMILTON. Sophomore catcher. Also plays the outfield. Won numeral last year.

ED PUCK. Sophomore pitcher. Won numeral last year. A real comer.

LEE POLLEY. Smallest of the first base candidates but is a left-hander. Most experienced first baseman since the immortal Eddie Hardin. Probably will be the regular if he can hit. Numeral man.

HENRY PETERSON. Outfielder. First year man.

HARRY SCHLEY. Sophomore catcher. Rugged receiver and good hitter. Reserve tackle last fall. Won numeral a year ago.

BILLY WHITFORD. Mascot. Oldest son of coach. Serving first year as mascot. Seventy-two pounds of "wildcat" and destined to be a second "Mon".

ARThUR D. DICKINSON. Attended high school in Shellsburg, Iowa. No letters were given athletes then but he was a regular for two years in basketball and baseball. Graduated in 1912. Attended Iowa State Teachers college. Made four letters in baseball, three in basketball, two in track. Was twice captain of baseball team and once for basketball - in latter case leading his team to conference championship with now famous basket from center of floor in closing seconds of play. Following graduation in 1917 served with Uncle Sam in France. Returning to United States he coached one year at Adair, three at Washington, and a year and a fall at Marshalltown. At beginning of the basketball season of 1924 he returned to his alma mater to coach track and basket ball. Plays a saxophone but real hobby is painting. Considered one of the best track coaches in the midwest. Married and has a boy and a girl.

He teamed with Ed Trefzger to win the North Central doubles at Grand Forks, North Dakota, last spring. It was the third straight year a Panther team has won the doubles and the conference championship. Has won two letters in tennis.

ED TREFZGER. Junior. Played No. 1 man on the team last year. Was runnerup in the conference singles and shared the doubles title with Kadesch. Won letter in tennis last year and was a letterman on the basketball team this past winter.

These two men are the only veterans on the 1938 tennis team and must carry the burden as younger players are developed.
