Malcolm Price Laboratory School is an integral part of the university’s teacher education program and serves three basic functions: it provides a direct-experience laboratory for all undergraduate and graduate teacher education students; it operates as a center for research, experimentation, and curriculum development; and it provides leadership to the elementary and secondary schools of Iowa and the nation through publication, consultation, and a variety of in-service programs and activities. A comprehensive instructional program is offered for students in pre-kindergarten through twelfth grade, including programs for special education and talented and gifted students.

PLS Receives Vision in Action ASCD Whole Child Award

This year Price Laboratory School was selected as the winner of the "Vision in Action: The ASCD Whole Child Award" by the Association of Supervision and Curriculum Development (ASCD). This award recognized Price Lab School as the national model school for educating students in each area of the whole child: Healthy, Safe, Engaged, Supported, and Challenged.

In regard to Price Lab School, ASCD stated, "You know it almost the moment you walk through the door. It's obvious in the way adults and students interact, in the quality of teaching throughout the building, in the seamless flow of leadership from administration to parents to staff to community members. An energy and excitement is present in the hard work long hours, and challenging conversations. This is the kind of place where they do more than just walk the talk; they breathe it. This is the kind of school you want your own child to attend."

To celebrate this achievement a ceremony was held at Price Laboratory School on Friday, May 14, 2010, from 1:30-2:30 pm in the Nielsen Fieldhouse. During that time our Price Laboratory School community heard from students, parents, and teachers about what this honor signified to each group.

It's Our Time
Eddie Diener

Congratulations! You made it. It is amazing you survived, given your struggles. The first thing your Grandma Schlof said was, “Look at these hands. Look at those feet.” One of your first words was “ball” and you began dribbling incessantly...It drove me nuts! At least it was better than your previous hobby of eating dirt.

As the mother of 4, I didn’t realize that you would “break the mold.” You have always been your own person, independent and caring. Maintain those traits and you will be successful in whatever you choose to do.

Love, Mommy.

Will Rector

Dear Will:

It's been hard to keep up with your "pedal to metal" speed, but it's been a joyful ride watching your life change and take direction. Whether you become a paleontologist, professor of history, actor, or NFL historian extraordinaire, we can count on seeing the same intensity and determination that has helped you succeed in high school continue with you in college and the rest of your future endeavors. We will miss your one-of-a-kind sense of humor, but are looking forward to regaining access to the TV on Monday nights. We are so proud of you. Congratulations!

Love, Your Family

Ridwan Laman

Congratulations on your graduation. We are extremely proud of you and your achievements. Continue the excellent work. Mom and Dad

---

Jamil Forehand

We are so proud of you from that happy little boy playing outside of your Grandparent's house to the fine, handsome young man you have become. We know that this road has not been easy for you and you have encountered a lot of bumps along the way. We know that you are a person with very little words but did not complain about the difficulties you had to encounter each day. You took your journey in stride and kept on going, not knowing if you would overcome them. We know that when God created you, he gave you a kind heart and a good spirit and that through God's grace, and your dedication and determination, he has brought you through this journey. We know that great things await you as you continue on your next journey and that you will accomplish all the things you set out to do. We L.O.V.E you and are so P.R.O.U.D of you.

Love, Mom, Dad, Ahmiko, Ashuan, John III and Grandma Ida Mae

Nicole Curran

You did it! We are so proud of you. Congratulations on your high school graduation.

Class of 2010
After enduring the first three years of high school, the seniors took advantage of their last year and explored many new areas of academics that they hadn't yet experienced.

When asked what their favorite senior class was and why, here's what some 2010 seniors had to say:

"Math class with Mr. Maltas- arguing with him about infinity!" -James Kapanka

"MSI with Mr. Henriksen- hearing his remarks about Trai and Christian's ridiculous comments, and watching YouTube videos." -Eddie Diemer

"Shop class with Mr. Wilson, 'cause he's my dog." -Jesse Lankford

"Math with Mr. Maltas- arguing with him about the concepts of 0 and infinity, as well as jokes about how he works for the C.I.A." -Jalen Bergman

"Physics with Mrs. Couch- constantly joking with her, and being called Princess." -Haley Burbridge

I really enjoyed the time spent at NU, especially the football experience which was something completely new for me.

- Francesco Gentilini

Working Hard: This year, the seniors had to prepare themselves for college with the ACTs, dual enrollment, and hours of studying.

About our Middle School

"Northern University Middle School, in order to best serve the educational needs of middle level students, will give equal attention to social development and academic endeavors. NUMS educators will work to meet the individual needs of the whole child and impart skills necessary to achieve success in high school and beyond as life-long learners and contributing citizens. Our school will offer relevant, rigorous and innovative programs that capture the interests of students and encourage them to achieve their full potential. We believe to attain this potential there must be committed engagement from community, administration, faculty, family and student."

Thoughts From The Sophomores

Allison Moyer

"I think the year was pretty good, yet it was still challenging. I had a lot of fun participating in sports and I am excited for junior year."

Brianna Gute

"This year has been a lot of fun! Volleyball and basketball were a lot of fun. Classes were harder than last year, but it was a great year overall."

Eric Hines

"The year was pretty good. I had a lot of fun hanging out with my friends and going to my brother's football games. It was also fun having my aunt as a teacher."

Tommy Amlie

"The year was pretty challenging overall. Football was a lot of fun and math and chemistry were hard, but in the end I got through it and had a pretty good sophomore year."

Trips Around the Globe!

Hola Chile!

Chile Students: Molly Andersen, Britney Culmore, Peighton MacLeod,
Teacher/Organizer: Mary Doyle and JoAnne Novinger, teacher.

Peighton - "In a matter of two weeks everything I thought about anything changed. I now understand how important it is to learn about other cultures! I no longer just imagine myself living and working in the United States but, perhaps in another country with a completely different culture (and language)! Now that I have traveled outside the U.S., it's going to be difficult for me to stay here!"

Britney - "My trip to Chile was so much fun! I loved everything about it, the people, the food and the city (Arica). I definitely want to go back because it is such a fun place. The beach, empanadas, and perfect weather all year long...what could be better."

Molly - "Chile was the experience of a lifetime. I'm so glad I got the opportunity to go. I love all the friends I made and I can't wait to go back!"
Bonjour France!

Teacher/Sponsor: Dr. Elizabeth Zwanziger

Alyssa Kilbourn - "This has been an experience I probably will never have again. Experiencing this fast-paced yet relaxing area has been a much needed break, however intellectually challenging!"

Sarah Prophet - "Is this heaven? Are you an angel?" "No, this is Paris, and I'm a French person."

"Thus began my spring break in France. My two weeks of stilettos, ascots, and boulangeries. An artistic mantra, Paris has shaped my body (thanks, croissants), mind, and soul. Too much of a good thing can make you sick, but not when pertaining to France."

Tad Klenske - "I learned that all the people around the world are the same. The only difference is the language and the place."

Devon Shaver - "France is the wind beneath my wings. The days are filled with friends, laughter, and nutella. C'est la vie!"

Cyber Defense Team
Returns from State Competition Victorious for the Third Year

This year the NU High Cyber Defense Team had 15 students, comprising two teams, compete in the IT-Adventures Cyber Defense Competition, held in Ames.

For the third year in a row, a first place trophy was brought home by the NUHS Cyber Defense Team! NU's Team #16, having been in second place for a majority of the competition, pulled a last-minute upset to take first place in the IT-Adventures High School Cyber Defense Competition.

Both NU teams did exceptionally well, leading in the scoring for most of the day. But, in the last hour, NU's Team #5 suffered a critical system failure during a mock "fire drill" and was not able to recover. They competed valiantly throughout the competition.

Congratulations to the NU Cyber Defense Team members for another successful competition!

Second Row: Kieran Cowden, Brandon Brown, Jyothi Dhanwada, Judy Bleile, Cody Brown.
Third Row: Sarah Dietz, Kyle Basom, Jordan Thomas, Doug Curran, Alec Calhoun, Josh Eisen.

This is my third year on the team. I really enjoy learning about the inner workings of our computers. - Kyle

This is my second year on the team, and between these two years I have learned so much. - Sarah

This is my first time on the team. I am nervous and excited, I have learned a lot. - Wendell

This is my third year on the team, and it still feels like what I know is just the tip of the iceberg. There is always something to learn. - Kieran
The NU High Speech Team

The wonderful Speech Team of 2010 included Jordan Bankston, Kyle Basom, Judy Bleile, Alec Calhoun, Kieran Cowden, Jyothi Dhanwada, Sarah Dietz, Cassie Euchner, Megan Grey, Joni Griffith, Rachel Hanson, Linne Hoofnagle, Alyssa Kilbourn, Tad Klenske, Christine McKenna, Tessa Michaelson, Sarah Prophet, Caroline Sell, Jordan Thomas, Alex Thompson, and Raquel Williams.

"We had a lot of fun acting out weird situations and our vegetable improv was so much fun to do!" - Rachel Hanson

Congratulations to Judy Bleile and Jordan Thomas for qualifying for All-State Individual Speech!

A million thanks to our wonderful coaches, Dave and Linda Schachter! Without them, our tushes would be neither big nor little, and we would know how to be "happy with what we've got!" - Jordan Thomas

Arsenic & Old Lace
"And just a pinch of cyanide!"
There's something wonderful about theatre; it's the feeling that underneath the characters, the costumes, and the stage lights, there's something bigger and better than we are: a family. 'Arsenic and Old Lace' brought that family back for me. As we say goodbye to our seniors Keith Hanson and Will Rector, we're saying hello to our newest additions: Raquel Williams, Sarah Prophet, Madeleine Hoofnagle, Felicia Jordan, and director Joe Frenna. We're a family; we say goodbye, we say hello, we grow up; but we never forget what brought us together. Thanks, 'Arsenic and Old Lace' for doing that for me.

~ Jordan Thomas
Once Upon A Mattress: an energetic, witty, and charming musical tale - what's not to love?! From the start of Once Upon A Mattress we vowed that in the spirit of musicals, we would start with a smile, and carry it through no matter how tough the waters got. In the spirit of theatrical productions, something will undoubtedly go wrong - but the cast always pulls everything together just in time! It's just one of the many wonders of theater, and we certainly had our share of wonders during this musical! Mattress consisted of a stunning confection of middle school students, high school students and faculty blended together to create the perfect cast in all talents and areas. We never forgot our hilarious debut faculty appearances. Mr. Spurr at the cockroach eating “Sprurflec” and Mr. Gray as the ear-splitting “Hogtor”. Rehearsals flew by with songs, lines, jokes and drama a new better job of dancing offstage than on. All too soon, it was opening night and in the end we weren't smiling just because we felt it was our duty. We were smiling because every face out in the audience was smiling and applauding right back at us.

"It's fun to be good. Now, do the work to get there!"

In choir we are working to develop vocal technique and good choral tone. As always, we are continuing to work on basic, necessary music theory, music history, and music reading skills.

This year Joni Griffith and Rachel Hanson were both accepted into the Iowa All-State Choir. They are both in Chamber Choir.

"One band, one sound!"
~ Dominique Fagan
I think that trumpeter Miles Davis said it best: "Do not fear mistakes. There are none." Improvisation is the philosophy of jazz—and of life too, in a way. Everything we do, even just being who we are, is part of an unwritten plan, an improvisation, whether we realize it or not. So I think this year we finally understood how to stop fearing what is outside of what is known, and discovered all of its hip things!

"The NUHS Jazz Panthers continued to serve as a premiere example of jazz in small schools! Another great season filled with exciting music and success. Congrats and thanks for all the great times!"

"Jazz band was awesome! The only thing I didn't like about it was having to wake up early."

"This season was more about emotion and making dreams come true"

"It is difficult to try and sum up the 2009 NU HIGH football season with words. To me, this season was more about emotion and making dreams come true. Our journey started the first week in June when former player and recent NU HIGH graduate Devon Turner was laid to rest. The players and coaches from the 2005-2008 teams entered the funeral together, sat together and were one of the last people to see Devon before he was laid to rest. That event lead to our determination to make 2009 a memorable year.

We started out 1-0 with a win over Colo-Nesco for the first time since 1995, beat GMG and Tripoli to go 0 for the first time since 1992, beat Riceville and AGWSR to go 5-0 for the first since 1973 and ranked in the top ten for the first time since 1999. We won our 5th straight homecoming game, which hadn’t happened since the 60s and beat a ranked opponent (Mason City Newman) for the first time since 1988. We beat Rockford and Northwood-Kensett to go 8-0. The Northwood-Kensett game was extra special because the 1988 team, led by NU HIGH legends Trev Alberts and Matt Hilliard, were in attendance for the game and spoke to our team before kick-off. We beat North Butler to go 9-0; breaking the school record for wins in a season and wrapping up a District Championship for the first time since the early 1970s.

We started a playoff run with wins against Lisbon and Central Elkader, the first post-season wins in NU HIGH football history and became the first team ever to win 11 games. Our dream season ended with a loss to Mason City Newman in the State Quarterfinals and we finished up with an 11-1 record. We finished the season ranked #5 in the state.

The individual awards can go on forever; 11 players made the All-Metro team (more than Cedar Falls, Waterloo West/East and Columbus), 11 players made the All-District team, and 5 players were elected All-State (most in NU HIGH Football history). All in all it was a year that I will personally never forget and want to thank the players for all their hard work and hope they realize that if you put your mind to it and do things right good things will always happen. Just like Matt Hilliard said——’It ain’t braggin’ if you done it.’

You guys done it!” ~ Coach Kody Asmus
"I'm happy I decided to go out for football. It turned out to be a great season."
~ Jalen Barnes

"Football season was fun, and a nice way to go out as a senior."
~ Jimmy McClain
Homecoming Game vs. Newman

Having won four homecoming games in a row, the 2009 NU HIGH football team faced a daunting task of trying to make it 5 in a row. This year's homecoming game put the 5-0 and #9 ranked Panthers against Mason City Newman, who was also 5-0 and currently ranked #4 in the state. In addition to the game, the football team decided to take the logos of their helmets, wear their all black practice pants and wear all black jerseys with the letters "DT" on the back of every jersey to remember our fallen teammate, Devon Turner. "Black Out" homecoming shirts we’re made with the simple mission of the football team on the back: “BEAT NEWMAN.”

Mason City Newman came into the game with a high-powered offensive attack that did most of their damage on the ground. Newman raced out to a 14-0 lead early in the 2nd quarter but NU then came battling back with 2nd quarter touchdowns by Andrew Stone and Jalen Barnes. Late in the 4th quarter, Newman scored again making the score 21-14. Newman got the ball back late in the 4th quarter and decided to go for the win on a 4th and 1 on their own 31 yard line. Johnny Hines and the NU HIGH defense stepped up and made a huge play, resulting in a one-yard loss and a turnover on downs. On the next play, Kyle Denning deep to Jalen Barnes over the middle of the field and although the pass was tipped, it ended up landing in Andrew Stone’s hands for what seemed to be the game-tying touchdown.

A Newman player jumped off sides on the PAT attempt so we decided to go for 2 points and the win. The famous "Joker Over 44 Q Lead" was called and the rest is history. Following behind the blocks of AJ Jones, Christian Ford, Brian Moran, Emmett Fritz (who knocked a blitzing Newman player’s helmet off on the play), Jawanza Holmes, Jimmy McClain, Joe Weber, Johnny Hines and Alex Quinones; Jalen Barnes squeezed into the end zone for a 22-21 NU HIGH lead. Players, coaches and fans went nuts as the players raced back to the sideline. Newman ended up moving the ball into NU HIGH territory but a 47-yard field goal landed just short and the celebration began on the field and in the stands.

To be honest, it was one of the greatest moments of my life and I could not have imagined drawing it up any better or sharing it with a better group of players and coaches. We didn’t play a perfect game but we did just enough to win and almost everyone who witnessed the game said it was one of the best games they had ever seen. Anytime I think about or watch the replay of the game I still get chills. What a game, what a week! The homecoming streak continues...5-0! - Kody Asmus, Head Football Coach
The 2009 season was filled with many ups and downs. The high note of the season had to be senior night, where we were able to send the seniors out in style and accomplish one of our biggest goals of the year by winning our first conference game in 5 years. It was fun to see all the girls’ hard work pay off and hope that taste of success will only inspire hard work in the off season for a successful 2010. ~ Coach Kim Bear

"Cross country this year was fabulous! Our team was a strong force of runners both old and new, that banded together wonderfully to form a fantastic and dedicated team. Both Jyothi and Christine were unable to run the whole season, but that didn't stop either from coming to practice and helping at meets, which showed great perseverance on their parts. No matter if you were a timer, a runner, a side-line cheerer, or a coach, we can all say it was a great season!"

Cross Country Season

This year the NU boys' and girls' runners had another great and successful season. They worked hard everyday at practice. That hard work showed by improving their times each meet. By the end of the season, everyone was running their best times of the year. We had a lot of meets that everyone ran a new personal best.

Coach Reingardt ('09)

Can't Catch Us...
One Team, One Goal

This team was one of the best NU has ever had that did not win a championship. We knew that with the players we had returning from last year's state runner up team that we could have a special season this year. The team talked about going undefeated for the season, winning the conference title, and the state title for their team goals this season. We came up short on a few of them, but in no way did it diminish what this team was able to accomplish. We went 26-2 on the season (school record) with only one conference loss and losing to Rock Valley, the eventual state champs in a thrilling state semi-final game. We were conference champs and defeated Waterloo East convincingly for the second year in a row. We were also able to defeat cross conference rivals West Marshall and Grundy Center who were tied for the best records on the East side of the conference. Lastly, I would like to thank the seniors for all their hard work the past four years; they will be missed and remembered for all their great contributions to this team and others at NU. I wish them all the best in what ever they pursue, I know they will be successful. ~ Coach Elser

Girls Basketball

This is it!

The girls had a terrific season in winning nine games and winning a district game for the first time in many years. It was pleasure to coach such a great group of girls that worked hard every practice and every game. We are looking forward to building on the success in the 2010-2011 season.

- Head Coach Joe Smeins
Basketball Cheerleading! :)
LET'S GO, LET'S DO IT, LET'S GO FOR THE PANTHER TEAM!

After starting the year with a new coach and five new recruits, we sure had a fun trip! We learned new cheers, started a dance team, and then headed to state for the third time in a row, cheering our boys into 3rd place!

A LITTLE DANCE IN OUR STEP!
The 2009-10 NU girls tennis team finished with an overall meet record of 3-5 and took 5th place at the NICL meet. But the overall record does not reflect how much the team improved throughout the year.

Next season looks to be a promising one with all the starters returning except for Nicole Curran whose leadership will be missed. I will miss being their coach and wish them the best.

Go Panthers!

"Tennis was awesome this year. We all improved a lot (both our tennis and singing skills...), and grew closer as a team, which was great!"

-Jyothi Dhanwada

"Tennis was super fun! Our team was amazing and we all had great success throughout the year."

-Christine McKenna

"Tennis was really fun. We got to experiment with a new coach and a really new varsity line-up. Our team got along great, had fun together, and did pretty good overall. The van rides were a highlight for me!"

-Savannah Campbell
Boys Tennis

I tried to win the next point.
-Kory Miller

The 2009-2010 season was a year of rebuilding. Most of the spring we went to meets short handed, and only had a full squad (of six players) for one meet. We finished with an overall meet record of 2-8. The team ended up 6th at the conference meet, with Tad Klenske earning a 4th place finish at the #3 singles spot for our best individual result.

As a team, we won two of our last three meets and will have the entire team returning for the upcoming year. With the improvements the guys have made, a conference title in 2011 is within their reach.

"This year, the boys' tennis team had an okay season. Although our team consisted of only five players, we fought really hard to win our matches. Next year we plan to have a full team. The freshmen did a fantastic job of playing their seeds."
-Dipankar Chowdhury

This year’s season presented a number of excellent challenges for our young men. As a team we came together and learned how to work as a team. Our matches included a handful of matches against rivals in the area, as well as new teams that we have not faced before. Players on our team filled leadership roles well, and as a group we demonstrated good sportsmanship and character. We competed in a number of thrilling back-and-forth matches that were special to watch and participate in. Our season started off a little rough, with our team competing against a number of larger schools. We played admirably, and our young men held their heads high and worked hard, even in the face of adversity. We consistently displayed the caliber of soccer that we knew we could achieve against a common level of competition. A number of players emerged as solid contributors, and together we began to mesh well and work together. Although the number of wins was not as high as the team would have liked, we are confident that this year’s team will make a deep run towards State!

-Head Coach Chris Kolwaski

“We’ve been doing work for four years on and off the field; this is the year we make that run at State.”

The NU High Panthers Golf Team had a great season in 2010, led by two all-state performers Jalen Bergman and Joe Weber. Bergman finished a stellar four year career for NU in terrific fashion, winning medalist honors at the tough NICL conference tournament, finishing 3rd in the Sectional Tournament, and 3rd in the District to win his third trip to the State tournament, where he tied for 13th place. Jalen won team all-state selection. Among Bergman’s career records are the 9th best season scoring average ever and the third highest total ever of top ten finishes in major tournaments (19.)

Junior Joe Weber, meanwhile, who had one of the best years in NU History as a sophomore, had an even more stellar 2010 campaign. He was first or second in 5 different major tournaments, including medalist honors at the post season Sectional Tournament. He advanced to the state meet for the 3rd straight year, finishing in 9th place. Weber was a first team all-state selection. Joe is now listed on the top five in every major category in NU records, and finished the season with the second best ever stroke average of 38.35, bettered only by Blake Hibben in 2005. Weber hopes to chase even more of Hibben’s records next year, including maybe a shot at an individual state title.

Senior Emmett Fritz played # 3 for NU. While he played in the shadow of Bergman and Weber, as well as Ben Peterson and Thomas Creeden earlier, Emmett was a major contributor to a great era in NUHS golf history, which included the 2008 team state championship. He recorded season bests three times, including a fine 78 in the tough District Tournament in his final outing as a Panther.

Other members of the NU Golf team included senior Will Rector, sophomores Jesse Bankston and Jake Henry, and 9th grader Kasey Jackson.

Coach Lee Weber noted that the season ended on a bittersweet note at the state tournament, where both Joe and Jalen had hopes of medals and all-tournament selections, it was a great year, nonetheless. “We will really miss our seniors who played with great sportsmanship and class the last four years. We are hopeful that we will be able to attract more young athletes to the golf program, as this year’s team was the smallest ever with 7 players.” NU will graduate three seniors leaving major holes to fill next year.

"We had a very successful season. The boys worked hard all year to capture our 2nd consecutive conference championship. We will miss our seniors Johnny and Tanner as they were a big contribution to this year's team, but we have a lot of returning players for next year's team." - Coach Denning
Our record didn’t show how good of a team we truly were, and there were many coaches that came up to me after the games and said so themselves. The girls improved so much as individuals and as a team. It was a tough season and the girls stuck with it, but we had a lot of fun as a team.”

Surviving Life After High School
Mr. Kevin Engels, NU Parent

"The most important thing is that you do your best. You will be successful in life, regardless of the outcome of your efforts, if you just do your best. That's what we've been telling you ever since you were in kindergarten, but it applies just as much now. We spend a lot of time talking about things that are outcome-based, but most of those things are games. Contests where there's a score. In real life, the important things are effort based. You're going to find out that effort leads, at least most of the time, to good outcomes. So do your best. Put in the effort beforehand and don't worry about hitting a home run every time up. Once you're free of the anxiety that comes from the pressure you put on yourself, you'll find you enjoy things better and that you get better outcomes. It applies in baseball, but it applies even more in life. You don't have to hit a home run every time up."

The Memories We've Shared
Eddie Diemer

"I'm glad that when I moved to Cedar Falls in pre-school my mom decided to enroll me at NU. I truly have grown up with the kids in my class. I have had so many great memories in the walls of NU that it would literally take me days to list them all. In fact, you could ask any one person in the graduating class and they would be able to go on and on telling you about all the great memories we have shared together. We have all grown up together and today is a little bitter sweet, because I know I will enjoy moving forward to the next step in my life, but leaving behind NU and the class of 2010 is not as easy as I had once thought it would be."

Forever Young
Will Rector

"As our time in high school comes to a close, it is natural to want to leave our own distinct, individual mark behind that will endure forever, and there are many of those who venture to do so with their feats. But the truth is that fame fades, records are meant to be broken, and plaques tarnish over time. What really lasts forever, is the impact that you make on the people around you.......We don't know what the future will hold for us, all we can do is live for today, being the best person we can be, and continue dreaming for a better tomorrow. Although we can't live forever, by never letting go of the memories that we made during our time at NU, and carrying the experiences we made with us for the rest of our lives, we can live forever young."

Moving Forward Together
Karen Engels

"Together we have done it all. Our days of roaming the halls through NU high were filled with surprises, laughter and success. We are all very different and each bring a unique characteristic to the table which is why when combined we are a group of young men and women who simply can't be stopped. Each and every one of you holds a special place in my heart. I love you all and wish you the best of luck. Words could not express the thanks I owe you all for making the past 13 years of my life ones I will cherish and never forget... When you find yourself in your dorm room, apartment or wherever it is you will be living next fall, feeling lonely and afraid of what the future holds, know that it is together we have gotten this far and together we will continue to set out and reach our goals."
