Graduated from Iowa State Teachers College in 1917 after winning nine letters in baseball, basketball, and track. Coached at Adair, Washington, and Marshalltown. Won the Iowa conference track title eight years in a row and added two more in the North Central to set up record of ten championships in nine years. Has won North Central twice and finished second twice in four years. Considered one of nation's finest track coaches. Paints for a hobby and plays a mean saxophone, and is a well-known "blues" singer, a regular "gloomy gus." Married and has a boy and a girl.

Paul F. Bender, assistant track coach. Now in his nineteenth year here. Graduated from LeMars, Iowa, high school in 1913. Played letter winning football there and competed in track. Graduated from the University of Iowa in 1918. Competed in football, track, baseball and gymnastics. Captained gym team and won state title. Served in war. Coached one year at Shenandoah high school. Never once played basketball but that year coached team which won 17 and lost one and went to state finals. Started at Teachers College in 1921 as head track coach and assistant to Mendenhall in all other sports. Track team won first Iowa conference title. Became head football coach in 1925 when Dickinson became track coach. Football teams won 25, lost 9, and tied 6 in five years - lost only three conference games in five years. STANDARDS FOR AWARDING TRACK AND BASEBALL LETTERS

Awards will be made by the athletic board of the Iowa State Teachers College upon the recommendation of the head coach and concurred in by the director of athletics under the following regulations

Track:

Letters will be given on the following basis:

1. To men who place in the North Central conference meet.
2. To men who placed in the Drake Relays or to men competing on a relay team which takes first in the open division of the Drake Relays.
3. To men who score 12 points or more in outdoor meets.

Baseball:

Letters will be given to the men on the following basis:

To men who play in a minimum of one half of the scheduled games and for a time equal to forty per cent of the total innings played during the season. To pitchers who shall have pitched in twenty-five per cent of the total innings played during the season.

BASEBALL ROSTER FOR 1939 SEASON

- Louis Breitbach, Masonville, Iowa, senior. Started as an outfield prospect but lettered in his junior year as a shortstop. Has won two letters in football. Hit .217 and fielded .929 last year.
- Lyle Dodd, Conrad, Iowa, junior. A pitcher who won his letter last year. Has also won two basketball letters, placing on the second all-conference team for two years. Won one game and lost three last year, hitting for .083 and fielding perfectly.
- LuVerne Dunsmoor, Strawberry Point, Iowa, senior. Left hand pitcher who won his letter as a sophomore. Ill last year just at a time when he had reached his peak. Has hitting average of .400 for two years.
- James Goodman, Strawberry Point, Iowa, junior. Second baseman, a letter winner last year. Brilliant fielder but weak hitter. Fielded perfectly last year and hit .214. Should improve on hitting this year with good natural form.
- Allen Kane, Farmersburg, Iowa, senior. Pitcher who has won two letters. Also collected a pair in football. Sensation as a sophomore, he hurt his arm last year. If he is back in shape he'll be awfully tough. Still thinks he's a slugger despite .143 average. Has fielding mark of .870 -- perfect average last season.
- Hubert Missildine, Dumont, Iowa, senior. Another outfielder who turned infielder. Won letter in outfield as sophomore and then came into third base last year for another letter winning season. Good fielder and fair hitter. Two year hitting average of .268 and fielding mark of .896.
- Lee Polley, Maloy, Iowa, junior. First baseman or outfielder. Won letter last year. Hit .214 and fielded .968. Should be a lot better ball player after year of seasoning.
- Ed Puck, Moneta, Iowa, junior. Pitcher who won letter as a first year man. Lots of tough luck last year, losing several low hit games. With better breaks ought to do well this season.
- Leland Snell, Plymouth, Iowa, senior. Lettered as a catcher in 1936 and then taught. Back in school again to complete both athletic and undergraduate career. One of two married men on the squad.
- William Bolt, Traer, Iowa, junior. Under ordinary conditions he would be a letterman. But he played behind George Hutchison and got little work. This will be his year now. Fine player with hitting deficiencies. Won letter in basketball this year.
- Llewellyn Boone, Dows, Iowa, junior. Outfielder, 1938 squad man.

Art Borwick, Story City, Iowa, sophomore. Numeral winner last year. He may have the stuff to push Louis Breitbach back to the bench in the fight for the short stop post. Average hitter and a good fielder.

Dean Breitbach, Masonville, Iowa, junior. Although smaller and a junior, Dean is the "big" brother in the Breitbach combination. Scrappy second baseman, his hitting is not powerful enough.

Wendlen Burckhard, Grand Forks, North Dakota, sophomore. Did not report for baseball as a freshman so Whitford knows little about his baseball ability. Football letterman, outfielder.

Don Dilly, Aplington, Iowa, sophomore. Won numeral last year as an outfielder. Fast, rangy, fair hitter.

Bernard Erdman, Wesley, Iowa, junior. A really fine left hander who will go places. A good assortment of "stuff" and fine control for a southpaw pitcher.

Paul Hafke, Farmersburg, Iowa, sophomore. Won numeral here several years ago and is back to win the varsity letters now. Is a hard-hitting outfielder.

Herb Hamilton, Greene, Iowa, junior. Squad member last year. Can catch or play the outfield.

Forest Hanifan, Swea City, Iowa, sophomore. Comes up with a good reputation as a catcher. Is good hitter. Brother of former Teachers College baseball player. Won numeral last year.

Kent Hershire, Clinton, Iowa, sophomore. Plays the outfield.

Harley Hilborn, Rodman, Iowa, junior. Pitching prospect.

Bernard Hughes, Lime Springs, Iowa, senior. Squad member for the past two years. Lots of natural ability. May click in the outfield this season.

Quentin Johnson, Hillsboro, Iowa, sophomore. Is an outfielder.

Bill Klinzman, Bagley, Iowa, sophomore. Numeral winning pitcher.

Milan "Bing" Miller, Fayette, Iowa, sophomore. Is an outfielder.

Archie Martin, Cherokee, Iowa, sophomore. Infielder or pitcher.

Charles McGaffin, Corning, Iowa, sophomore. Good infield prospect who can hit. Won numeral two years ago and is back in school to get more education and three varsity letters.

Orval Nielson, Elk Horn, Iowa, sophomore. Comes from a hot bed of baseball. Plays the infield and may get a regular job.

Wesley Patterson, Bancroft, Iowa, sophomore. Gangly sophomore may be a regular pitcher next season. Built good high school and legion reputation before entering college. Numeral winner.

Henry Peterson, Roland, Iowa, junior. A fighter. Not a beautiful player by any means but he gives it all and is a real slugger when he is hitting. Outfielder.

Howard Rabey, Belmond, Iowa, junior. Pitcher who figures on trying the infield this year. Did not report last year. Grid letters.

Harland Riebe, Cedar Falls, Iowa, sophomore. No freshman experience. Decided he'd give the game a try. Has played catch but will try outfielding. Football letterman.

Harry Schley, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, senior. Played some in the outfield last year. Is also a catcher. Football letterman.

Ed Shank, Sumner, Iowa, sophomore. Plays the outfield.

Cliff Shirk, Lake View, Iowa, junior. Pitcher or outfielder. A member of the squad last year. Won one football letter.

John Sindlinger, Waterloo, Iowa, sophomore. Plays the outfield with a pair of 34-year-old legs. In and out of school for the past eight or nine years, Johnny is getting that degree for sure this time and maybe a baseball letter in the process.

Keith Van Winkle, Webster City, Iowa, junior. Has a fine baseball reputation. If he can successfully make the switch from "town" ball to the college variety, Whitford may have found that hard-hitting first baseman he has been seeking since the "old left-hander" graduated.

Merle Vaughn, Benton, Iowa, junior. Infielder, and when we say infielder that's exactly what we mean. Plays them all.

GOLF AND TENNIS

There probably will be a return to a golf schedule for the first time in many years. The plentiful supply of good golfers and the scarcity of tennis players is responsible for the shift from tennis to golf.

Ed Trefzger, Hawthorne, Cal., senior, is the only top-flight tennis man in school. He will be entered in the North Central conference meet in the singles event. He has been runnerup for the past two years.

Golf will be coached by Oliver M. Nordly, head basketball mentor. Last year the Panther team, led by Lee Parman, won both the individual and team championships in the North Central. Other promising prospects include Ted Buchwald, Bill Close, Ed Olson, Ken Crowell, John Cross, and Morton Nelson.
