New Salem.

Dear Field:

How are you these fine days? In that new house I imagine. I'm just back from a eight weeks tour of Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona and how hardly had time to find out where my funds are. I infer you are at home from your work in the Record.

I hear that your brother has come on from Kansas City. I am very glad to know that Kallsoot is a good man to work for and his making the Herald a fine paper. — I'm to be in town soon and I'm coming out to see you in the new house at the first opportunity. You

Give me your brother's address then. I shall hope to see you both again.

My garden is in fine shape.
I expect to enter for Premium at the County fair. Grapes, Squash Onions and Mangel-wartzels.

Do Page spring to your mind of the Atlantic? He writes me not long ago that he was going out of the editorial business.
This a capital fellow.

Your friend
