GUEST POET — James Hearst, who refers to himself as a farmer disguised as a poet, will read his poetry Wednesday at 8 p.m. in Brighton Lecture Hall at Emporia State College. One of the visiting lecturers for Literary Week at Emporia State, Mr. Hearst is Professor of English at Northern Iowa University. Published volumes of poetry by Mr. Hearst include "Country Men," "The Sun at Noon," "Man and His Field," "Limited View," and "A Single Focus." He is also the author of many articles, books of fiction, cantatas, pageants, records and folk songs.
