IOWA STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE
Dear Sir:

This Panther Dope Book is published to give you as much advance information as we possess about the personnel of the Iowa State Teachers College football squad, its coaches, schedule, and its opponents. We try to include everything we feel can be of interest to you. Perhaps we succeed, perhaps not. At any rate you alone can tell us.

Will you let us know if we do not include all the dope you would like to see? We are not after praise for our work, we only want suggestions on how to better it. Please list the items you want included in our next book, put them on the post card at the top of this page and drop it in the mail box. We would appreciate any and all your suggestions and will do all we can to answer your needs and suggestions.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely yours,

Harry G. Burrell
Sports Assistant

GENERAL SUMMARY OF 1939 PROSPECTS

Coach Clyde L. Starbeck, starting his fourth year at Iowa State Teachers College, faces his toughest schedule with only average material on hand. He is likely to be handicapped for both man power and weight. The team will be slightly heavier than the 1938 eleven, which was one of the lightest teams playing big league football, and it will be slightly faster. But the squad is certain to be small and will not list over 10 lettermen.

There are no soft spots on the difficult nine game schedule with every opponent listing a veteran team. Just how tough the schedule is can be judged by the fact that only over Creighton University (TC-6; C-0, 1904) and Kansas State Teachers College (TC-14; KSTC-13, 1938) can the Panthers boast of a victory edge.

Practice is scheduled to start about September 4, giving the husky Panther coach less than three weeks of practice before the opener in the newly completed Iowa State Teachers College Stadium. The Northeast Missouri State Teachers College of Kirksville will be the opponent for the opening contest.

While the outlook for 1939 is not a bright one, Coach Starbeck does feel that his squad possesses enough strength to make it tough for all opponents. While he promises no wins, he will promise to put a scrappy, hard-fighting team with a wide open attack on the field for every game. The opponents may win, but it will have to be on the field and not in newspaper figuring.

Harry Schley will coach at Tabor. Schley won one letter at tackle.

Allen Kane will coach at Bagley. Kane won five letters, two as a football halfback and three as a baseball pitcher.

Gordon Stainbrook is not teaching. He won one letter as an end.

Anton Turkal, still in school, won one football and one track award.

Carroll Cook, still in school, won two letters at tackle and two in wrestling.

Eino Talus, letter-winning end, will not return to school.

Marvin Jones, letter-winning tackle, is still undecided.

Clifford Shirk, letter-winning fullback, will not return.
STADIUM INFORMATION

The new Iowa State Teachers College Stadium will be used for the first time when the powerful Northeast Missouri State Teachers College eleven invades the local field September 23. The Stadium is 300 feet long and 30 rows high. It will seat more than 6,000 fans. In addition, a permanent bandshell, seating more than 100, and a press box, which will take care of the visiting scribes and dignitaries, will handle a few more.

Rest rooms for spectators will be found on the mezzanine floor of the stadium.

On the main floor beneath the mezzanine will be the locker rooms, shower rooms, equipment rooms, storage space, and coaches' offices. In addition there will be an indoor running track and batting cages to take care of the winter workouts of the track and baseball teams.

Prices for all games will be the same: $1.10 (tax included) for adults; 25 cents for high school students; and 10 cents for youngsters under the age of 12.

The kickoff for every game will be at 2:00 o'clock.

The press box includes jacks and phones for complete coverage. The radio booth is available to any station making the necessary arrangements with the college authorities.

All sports editors, wishing to attend the Iowa State Teachers College games, either as working press or as spectators, should send requests for GAME tickets to the Bureau of Publications. These requests will be turned over to the office of the director of athletics. It will only be necessary to call at his office in the gymnasium the day of the game. It is not the practice of the ticket department to mail tickets.

When requesting GAME tickets let us know if you want PRESS BOX tickets. Such tickets will be reserved with your GAME tickets. They will NOT ADMIT you to the game. They are only good for the press box. If you are working the game you will be seated in the front row. Otherwise you may be asked to sit in the stadium.

Mats and pictures are available or can be secured for you. Let us know your needs and we will do our best to fill them.

Let us know if you want special service for the game. Local wire offices ask at least 36 hours notice for hookup of facilities. If you want us to give coverage please write to Harry Burrell, Bureau of Publications, by Thursday before the contest you are interested in.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

Iowa State Teachers College is located in Cedar Falls, a city of 8,000. Enrollment is approximately 2,000.

School colors are Purple and Old Gold. The athletic nickname of Teachers College teams is Panthers.

There are available four practice fields for football in addition to the gridiron upon which all varsity and freshman contests are played.

This is the forty-third football season at the Iowa State Teachers College. The sport was first played on an intercollegiate basis in the fall of 1895. The game was abolished during the years 1906 and 1907.

Teachers College has met 53 different football foes, 17 of which are from out of state. It is noteworthy of the growth of Panther football that the last 14 teams added to the list have been out of state aggregations.

PRE-SEASON DOPE ON NORTH CENTRAL CONFERENCE TEAMS

University of North Dakota. Last year the Sioux tied for second in the conference with three wins and one loss. This year the prospects are for a light team that will have to depend largely upon the services of newcomers to maintain the fine 1938 record. Of those newcomers the outstanding man is expected to be "Bud" Monroe, rated as another of the great line of centers started when Starbeck handled the Nodak line. Big Bill Richards is the only 200-pounder on the squad which lost six all-conference stars. In addition to Richards seven lettermen are returning. C. A. West is athletic director and head football coach. Ed Oiseth handles the publicity.

The 1939 schedule:
- September 22 - University of Omaha at Grand Forks
- September 29 - Luther College at Grand Forks
- October 6 - Iowa State Teachers College at Grand Forks
- October 14 - University of Toledo at Toledo
- October 21 - South Dakota State College at Brookings
- October 28 - North Dakota State College at Grand Forks
- November 18 - Morningside College at Sioux City

Morningside College. Coach Jason Saunderson lost a lot of mighty fine veterans but he has a few good ones still on hand in addition to one of the finest freshman squads in recent years. Eleven lettermen were lost but at least 10 will return. The powerful center of the line is intact and three unusually fast backs return. The team will be at least as strong as last year when the Maroons broke even in eight games. Jason Saunderson is athletic director with Ira J. Gwinn handling the public relations.

The 1939 schedule:
September 22 - Nebraska State Teachers College at Wayne
September 29 - North Dakota State College at Fargo
October 21 - University of South Dakota at Sioux City
October 28 - University of Omaha at Omaha
November 4 - Iowa State Teachers College at Sioux City
November 11 - South Dakota State College at Brookings
November 18 - University of North Dakota at Sioux City

University of South Dakota. The defending champions graduated eight regulars and 10 lettermen but there are still eleven men who played enough to rate as near regulars. Coach Harry Gamage has threatened to ask South Dakota Coeds to report if turnouts are bigger but he has asked three full teams back for drills, 10 more men than the entire squad listed in 1938. Spring practice disclosed several good freshmen to team up with the rest of the 1938 squad. The 1939 team will be somewhat heavier, less experienced, and is not expected to be able to repeat last year's good record. But it will cause no surprise if the Coyotes are right back in the thick of the title conflict. C. B. Hoy is athletic director and LeRoy Johnson handles sports publicity. G. Russell Bauer is the publicity director.

The 1939 schedule:
September 23 - College of the Pacific at Sacramento
September 30 - University of Iowa at Iowa City
October 6 - North Dakota State College at Fargo
October 14 - University of Omaha at Vermillion
October 21 - Morningside College at Sioux City
October 28 - South Dakota State College at Vermillion
November 11 - Iowa State Teachers College at Vermillion
November 18 - University of Cincinnati at Cincinnati
November 24 - St. Louis University at St. Louis

North Dakota State College. The Bison eleven is favored to replace the 1938 champions from the University of South Dakota. Some fine performers are gone from Fargo, including the sensational Ernie Wheeler, but with at least 12 of 15 available lettermen sure to return C. C. Finnegan should better last year's record when his team bowed only to South Dakota in the loop. Finnegan is athletic director and John Smith handles publicity.

Donelson handles publicity for the school.

University of Omaha. Experts say Omaha will have a great first team this year, big, fast, and rugged, but that they may be a bit weak in reserves. More conservative school authorities even admit that prospects are much brighter although the Cardinals are playing the toughest schedule in the conference. A fast sophomore backfield to aid Don Pflasterer, two tall first year ends, plus several other good sophomores, added to a lot of experienced talent among the varsity, are expected to pull Omaha off the rocks. Results will depend upon how sophomores react to big time opposition and how well the reserves come through. BIG, fast, and dangerous is the watchword where Omaha's Cardinals are concerned. Cecil "Sea" Hartman is athletic director and head football coach while Leo Pearcy handles the sports publicity.

PRE-SEASON DOPE ON NON-CONFERENCE OPPONENTS

Northeast Missouri State Teachers College. For the second time these two teams will get together. The Bulldogs won the first game, 14 to 0, in 1929. Malcolm Eiken, head coach and athletic director, figures the team will be stronger than last year. More weight has been added, more speed uncovered, and 22 lettermen will be on hand to help offset the loss of nine award winners. Last year the team won three games and lost five. Strong prospects for the future although coaches feel team will be green in the opener here. Clifton Cornwell is the publicity director.

Creighton University. Here's the real toughie of the 1939 schedule. Predominantly a junior team, the Bluejays are in a position to equal or better the 1938 mark - which read six wins, one loss, and one tie. With 17 lettermen on hand, Coach Marchie Schwartz has a chance to build an unbeaten team this year. The toughness of the schedule may offset greater speed, greater weight, and more experience - but the word is that even some of the returning regulars will ride the bench with the freshmen squad providing a regular or two for the varsity this season. Weak at the ends and center, the Bluejays figure to plug these gaps and really go to town. Schwartz is athletic director while Hugh Fogarty handles the publicity.

Kansas State Teachers College. The loss of seven lettermen will make the Hornets defensively a weaker team, but backfield speed and experience may make for a higher scoring outfit. Fourteen lettermen will be back. Last year the Hornets won three and lost six. F. G. "Fran" Welch is athletic director and head coach and George H. Phillips is publicity director.

October 14 - Iowa State Teachers College at Cedar Falls

Western State Teachers College. Ten lettermen are back but Coach Mike Gary can't help recalling sadly that his center is the only 1938 lineman on hand, and that he lost Dale Morris, one of the nation's finest punters. A brilliant backfield may go places if the new line holds up but the Broncos do not hold too high hopes that all six men can come through in the same year. Herbert W. Read is the acting athletic director and Homer M. Dunham is the director of publicity.

Coo College. The veteran Moray L. Eby, head football coach and athletic director, says: "Our chances for this year are fairly good. That is about all I can say at this time. The center and right tackle positions are yet to be filled, the quarterback post is still open, and all in all we have a long, hard schedule ahead of us. It is a fine and interesting schedule, however." Sixteen lettermen will return to offset loss of eight of last season's squad. Ernest P. Mickel is the director of publicity.
