January 2011

Cover and Table of Contents, Expanding Minds and Promoting Tolerance, Northern Iowa Today, Winter 2011

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.uni.edu/artcampus_documents

Part of the Sculpture Commons

Let us know how access to this document benefits you
Expanding Minds and Promoting Tolerance
2 A dialogue of diversity
UNI creates a conversation about civility, tolerance and acceptance, inspired by "The Laramie Project" play.

6 UNI am a legacy family
Meet five generations of purple pride in the Lynch family.

8 Stormy weather
The growing concern with school climate.

10 Travels with TC
TC is one traveling cat! See his vacation photos from around the world.

12 Exploring differences
A guide to expanding your comfort zone.

14 New center focuses on peace, violence prevention
UNI's Center for Violence Prevention will build a national model.

16 A message from the president
UNI's strategic plan and launching UNI I am...

22 Imagine the Impact
UNI launches $150 million national campaign.

Columns
18 Panther Athletics
20 College & University
   News from around campus
22 Foundation Update
26 UNI Alumni Association News
27 Class Notes
33 Calendar of Events

The Cover: "Exhaling Dissolution," by Sarah Deppe, Maquoketa, Iowa, a UNI senior working toward her Bachelor of Fine Arts in sculpture.