Quarterly News Letter to the Alumni, July 1, 1916

Iowa State Teachers College
Alumni in College and University Work. Last quarter a partial report was received from the alumni in the college and university work. The following were in the service of the State University: W. P. Cooper, of the University of Chicago; L. H. Goodwin, of the University of Wisconsin; and G. W. Walters, of the University of Minnesota.

Women's Debate. The honor de- bators of the Women's Literary Soci- ety debated the question whether the failure of the Coe-Teachers College plan was due to the wrong location of the college, or to the neglect of the judges at each college, or to the failure of the judges at each college. The decision of the judges was in favor of the negative. In the fall of the year, the Teachers College had four decisions and Coe College teams two decisions.

The Extension Department. During the last fiscal year, the Extension Department was organized in ninety-seven of the ninety-nine counties and 11,592 students were being perfected to continue the work for the coming year on as much more extensive scale. The advent of the extension work and the financial needs will permit the teachers of the Extension Department to continue their work and the financial needs will permit the teachers of the Extension Department to continue their work. The Extension Department is being perfected to continue the work for the coming year on as much more extensive scale.

The Extension Department. During the last fiscal year, the Extension Department was organized in ninety-seven of the ninety-nine counties and 11,592 students were being perfected to continue the work for the coming year on as much more extensive scale. The advent of the extension work and the financial needs will permit the teachers of the Extension Department to continue their work and the financial needs will permit the teachers of the Extension Department to continue their work. The Extension Department is being perfected to continue the work for the coming year on as much more extensive scale.

The Extension Department. During the last fiscal year, the Extension Department was organized in ninety-seven of the ninety-nine counties and 11,592 students were being perfected to continue the work for the coming year on as much more extensive scale. The advent of the extension work and the financial needs will permit the teachers of the Extension Department to continue their work and the financial needs will permit the teachers of the Extension Department to continue their work. The Extension Department is being perfected to continue the work for the coming year on as much more extensive scale.

The Extension Department. During the last fiscal year, the Extension Department was organized in ninety-seven of the ninety-nine counties and 11,592 students were being perfected to continue the work for the coming year on as much more extensive scale. The advent of the extension work and the financial needs will permit the teachers of the Extension Department to continue their work and the financial needs will permit the teachers of the Extension Department to continue their work. The Extension Department is being perfected to continue the work for the coming year on as much more extensive scale.