This event is organized by the UNI Center for Holocaust and Genocide Education and is co-sponsored by Sons of Jacob Synagogue (Waterloo), Catholic Parishes of Waterloo, and the Peace & Justice Center of the Cedar Valley. Additional support has been provided by the UNI College of Humanities, Arts and Sciences.

This ceremony has been organized in conjunction with the annual Days of Remembrance of the victims of the Holocaust, as designated by the United States Holocaust Memorial Council, pursuant to an Act of Congress (Public Law 96-388, October 7, 1980).

This event is free and open to the public. Two traveling exhibits, "Dr. Seuss Wants You" and "Facing Prejudice," can be viewed without charge one hour before and one hour after the ceremony.
