The Inspirers By Kenyon

Inspirers are different people. They're people who have more than you think. It's like more of a passion. I mean if you really want to be inspired, well, I'm an inspirer right now. You can be too and now we all have something that we hide something deep inside us and we keep something inside of all of us.

What inspires you?

Being at the Waterloo Writing Project

What do you want to inspire people to do?

Make a book about things that inspire them

Why are you an inspirer/ What makes you feel that way?

Seeing different people and sharing their writing

We really like the phrase "we hide something deep inside us and we keep something inside of all of us."

How can we inspire people?

Convince them to write what they have to share and say

Who inspires you?

My mom

You don't have to answer all of it so don't feel overwhelmed. We are just throwing out ideas just like you do.

How old are you?

Nine - 4th grade - I go to Becker elementary

I love how you strive to inspire others. My grandpa inspires me most. He is such a fun, loving, and strong man that I think everybody should aspire to be. What I love most about him is that he constantly is building people up and making them feel good about themselves.

Hi there, I'm Julia. My mom, Jenn, inspires me the most. She is a special education teacher in Des Moines. She inspires me and the students she teaches. That's why I am going to be a teacher. So I can inspire kids just like she does.

Hi, I'm Austin. My father inspires me alot. He is a very hard worker. He always taught me to work my hardest and to try my best at everything I do. That's why he inspires me.

We are very excited to be working with you. I think it's a great idea that you want people to be inspired to write about their own inspirations.

How does your mom inspire you? Can we have a story of a time your mom inspired you?
