Private Tolkatchev at the Gates of Hell: Majdanek and Auschwitz Liberated: Testimony of an Artist [poster]

University of Northern Iowa. Center for Holocaust and Genocide Education.

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.uni.edu/chge_documents/12

This Poster is brought to you for free and open access by the Center for Holocaust and Genocide Education at UNI ScholarWorks. It has been accepted for inclusion in Center for Holocaust and Genocide Education Documents by an authorized administrator of UNI ScholarWorks. For more information, please contact scholarworks@uni.edu.
PRIVATE TOLKATCHEV
AT THE GATES OF HELL:
Majdanek and Auschwitz Liberated:
Testimony of an Artist

ON EXHIBIT AT ROD LIBRARY
01.22.18 - 02.01.18

To commemorate International Holocaust Remembrance Day 2018, the UNI Center for Holocaust and Genocide Education presents an exhibit of reproductions of the drawings made by Zinovii Tolkatchev, a Soviet artist who accompanied the Red Army forces that liberated the Auschwitz-Birkenau concentration camp on January 27, 1945. The exhibit includes reproductions of drawings made at the Russian-liberated Majdanek concentration camp outside of Lublin, Poland. Biographical information and excerpts from Tolkatchev’s testimony complete the exhibit. All material comes a virtual exhibit created by Yad Vashem, the World Holocaust Remembrance Center, in Jerusalem.