Community Engagement Celebration Day

It is time to CELEBRATE! On Community Engagement Celebration Day, leaders from across the Cedar Valley and campus will attend to learn more about the impact UNI faculty, staff, and students are having in the community. Don't miss out on the opportunity to showcase your work. Share your community project work from courses, research, student organizations and professional service. If you're engaged in the community come tell us about it. Veridian Credit Union sponsors $200 each to projects in 8 categories.

When: Friday, April 28th

Where: Gallagher Bluedorn Performing Arts Center Lobby

Time: 9:00-11:30 am

Learn more about the project categories and event details.

Service-Learning

UNI's Service-Learning Institute

There are still a few slots available for the Service-Learning Institute, May 22-24. Applications accepted until Thursday, April 6th. Participants receive a stipend. Easy application process. Click here to learn more and apply.

Engaged Faculty Institute (EFI)

If you're unable to attend UNI's in-person SLI, Iowa/Minnesota Campus Compact is hosting an online Engaged Faculty Institute (similar to UNI's SLI and with a slightly different name). The institute works best for those who are ready to design or redesign at least one specific community-engaged course and is open to all faculty (tenured/tenure-track and instructors).

The online EFI is May 15-26. Registration closes Friday, April 28th. Registration is available by clicking here.

Service-Learning Course Designation

UNI's will be reapplying for the Carnegie Classified Institution for Community Engagement and to uphold this classification we must demonstrate course based service-learning. If you are teaching a course with a community-engaged project, please apply to have the course designated as Service-Learning.

Applications are accepted on a rolling basis, however if you want your course designated for fall 2023, apply soon. Click here to apply.

Faculty/Staff Engagement

Engaged Scholars Initiative (ESI)

Campus Compact, in partnership with the University of Nebraska at Omaha and the Lang Center for Civic & Social Responsibility at Swarthmore College, are now accepting applications for the 2023-2024 cohort of the Engaged Scholars Initiative (ESI).

The 2023-2024 cohort will consist of up to 20 early-career faculty and staff from Campus Compact member institutions. $1,000 fee covered by Academic Affairs. If interested contact your Dean or Julianne Gassman.

Applications are due Monday, May 8. Click Here to Learn More and Apply

Practicing Democracy: A Toolkit for Educating Civic Professionals

This new publication by Nicholas V. Longo offers practical approaches and strategies for developing students' capacity to engage in collaborative, public problem solving.

The toolkit is divided into 12 lessons designed to engage students in critical reflection and sustained dialogue that helps them connect with others across differences of background, experiences, and perspectives. The lessons are targeted to students of all majors and were created with the goal of educating a new generation of “civic professionals”- students who are prepared to facilitate inclusive and participatory problem-solving in communities.

National Assessment of Service and Community Engagement

On April 10th students will receive the National Assessment of Service and Community Engagement (NASCE) survey. This survey is an institutional assessment for measuring how well participating colleges and universities fulfill their mission as they relate to service and community engagement. Please encourage your students to complete this survey. If possible, consider offering time in your courses, or during a meeting, for completing the survey April 10-20.

Volunteer Iowa: Disaster Training

Starting tomorrow, this two-part series is hosted by Volunteer Iowa's Disaster Program Officer, Michael Rojas. Rojas will outline how to:

- Prepare for disasters;
- Develop contingency plans;
- Take a leadership role in helping communities during times of disaster.

Disaster management is becoming an in-demand field and Volunteer Iowa is looked upon as a leader during times of Disaster. Participants will also learn how to make disaster management a career. Attend and get started in building a more resilient Iowa.

All are welcome to attend - Tuesday April 4th & Thursday April 6th, 11:00-12:15, WRC 155. Register here.

Certified Nonprofit Professional (CNP) Credential at UNI

As a Campus Partner with the Nonprofit Leadership Alliance, UNI offers a preferred track to prepare students for the Certified Nonprofit Professional (CNP) Credential. The CNP Credential is the only national nonprofit credential preparing students for leadership and service in the nonprofit sector. At the University of Northern Iowa students can choose to earn their CNP Credential through two pathways (detailed at this link). If you would like to earn your CNP at UNI please contact: Kristina Kofoot at kristina.kofoot@uni.edu or call (319) 273-4507.
