GOVERNOR

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

Kim Reynolds
LT. GOVERNOR

Dear University of Northern Iowa graduates,

Our heartfelt congratulations to the University of Northern Iowa Class of 2011. You have worked hard, accomplished a great deal and have much to celebrate today. You, your families and friends should be very proud.

Now you are about to begin a new chapter in your lives. You have prepared yourselves well with your studies and other activities. You also can feel confident about your future because of the support and encouragement of family, friends, faculty and others who helped you along the way.

With that in mind, as you go forward in additional studies or start your first job after college or graduate school, always ask how you can volunteer in your community. We hope you stay in Iowa because you have so much to offer the state, and the state has much to offer in return. But wherever you land, look around and lend a hand to make the world a better place.

Providing Iowa's young people a world-class education is one of our top priorities. That includes completing a college or graduate degree. We applaud your success in doing just that.

Again, on behalf of the great state of Iowa, we wish you all the best in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Handwritten signature of Terry E. Branstad in black ink.

Gov. Terry E. Branstad

Lieutenant Gov. Kim Reynolds

Graduate College

All graduate degree candidates are listed under the college of their academic major.

The Academic Procession

The procession begins with the entrance of the candidates for degrees. Led by faculty marshals, the candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, both the Teaching Program and the Liberal Arts Program, Bachelor of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Liberal Studies, Bachelor of Music and Bachelor of Science enter in groups, representing each of the undergraduate colleges. They are followed by the candidates for the highest degrees.

Students wearing a bronze medallion are those graduating summa cum laude (with highest honors), which represent the top three percent of each college by grade point average; or those graduating students receiving a Purple and Old Gold Award, given to those students who have excelled in scholarship or who have shown conspicuous achievement in particular areas.

The procession continues with representatives of the faculty.

The President's Party forms the final section of the academic procession. Headed by the commencement marshal, it includes the president; members of the Board of Regents, state of Iowa; administrative officers; the academic deans; and honored guests.

The commencement marshal carries the University Mace, designed and fashioned for the Centennial Commencement in 1976 by Randall Swanson, at that time a freshman majoring in Industrial Arts. A traditional symbol of authority, the mace is a carved wood rod capped with ends of cast bronze, with the top carrying the seal of the university. The president wears a jeweled "Chain of Office" symbolizing the wearer is the leader of the institution. The silver chain includes links with the names of previous presidents of the institution, as well as previous names of the university.

The academic costumes worn trace their origin to the Middle Ages when long-sleeved hooded gowns were necessary for warmth in the unheated stone colleges. Over the centuries, much diversity occurred, and to bring some order, in the United States in 1894 an intercollegiate system of academic costume was agreed on, now adhered to by American institutions. According to this code, both the styling and colors of the regalia have significance.

The design of the gown indicates the degree. The bachelor's is a simple gown with a full sleeve. The master's gown is much like it except for the long sleeve which hangs loose. The doctoral gown is fuller and more elaborate. It has velvet edging and three velvet stripes on the full sleeve. The color of this velvet may be black or in the color appropriate to the degree.

Hoods, which are worn over the gowns, are similar for all degrees, although differing slightly in length. The candidates for the bachelor's degrees usually do not wear the hood. The hood has a velvet edging which indicates the area of the degree, and the inside or lining of the hood is satin in the colors of the college or university granting the degree.

A partial list of the degree colors to be found on the edge of the hood or the trimming on the doctoral gown is as follows:

|-------------------------|--|--------------------------|
| Apricot - Nursing       | Drab - Business                          | Orange - Engineering     |
| Blue, dark - Philosophy | Green - Medicine                         | Pink - Music             |
| Blue, light - Education | Green Sage - Physical Education          | Purple - Law             |
| Brown - Fine Arts       | Lemon - Library Science                  | Scarlet - Theology       |
| Citron - Social Science | Maize - Agriculture                      | White - Arts and Letters |
| Copper - Economics      | Maroon - Familyand Consumer Sciences | Yellow, Golden - Science |

University Honors Program

Graduates wearing gold University Honors medallions are recipients of designations from the University Honors Program. The designation of University Honors with Distinction indicates the completion of at least thirty credit hours of honors-level coursework throughout a student's undergraduate study; the designation of University Honors indicates the completion of at least eighteen credit hours of honors-level coursework. Both designations require the completion of an undergraduate honors thesis. Students earning honors designations are noted throughout the commencement program along with their thesis titles.

Legacy Graduates

The University of Northern Iowa has a long and proud tradition of multi-generational family graduates. The Legacy designation in the commencement program signifies that a parent and/or grandparent are also UNI graduates. The UNI Alumni Association celebrates this special connection with alma mater and welcomes all alumni to submit their legacy information to info@unialum.org. Legacy information included in this program was submitted by the graduate.
