4-21-2015

9th Annual Holocaust Remembrance Ceremony in the Cedar Valley [poster]

University of Northern Iowa. Center for Holocaust and Genocide Education.

Let us know how access to this document benefits you

Copyright ©2015 Center for Holocaust and Genocide Education, University of Northern Iowa
Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.uni.edu/chge_documents

Part of the Holocaust and Genocide Studies Commons

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.uni.edu/chge_documents/17

This Poster is brought to you for free and open access by the Center for Holocaust and Genocide Education at UNI ScholarWorks. It has been accepted for inclusion in Center for Holocaust and Genocide Education Documents by an authorized administrator of UNI ScholarWorks. For more information, please contact scholarworks@uni.edu.
The UNI Center for Holocaust and Genocide Education and Sons of Jacob Synagogue of Waterloo invite you to the

9th Annual Holocaust Remembrance Ceremony in the Cedar Valley

7:00 P.M. Tuesday, April 21, 2015
Grout Museum of History & Science
503 South St., Waterloo, IA 50701

In this 70th anniversary year of the defeat of Nazi Germany and the liberation of the camps, our ceremony will feature remarks by two guest speakers, Holocaust educator Margaret Lincoln and Holocaust survivor and artist Miriam Brysk. Attendees will be able to view two exhibits, Miriam Brysk’s “Scroll of Remembrance,” and the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum’s traveling exhibit, “Deadly Medicine.”

Miriam Brysk’s and Margaret Lincoln’s participation in this ceremony is supported by the Norman Cohn Family Holocaust Remembrance and Education Lecture Series.

The event is co-sponsored by Catholic Parishes of Waterloo and by the Peace and Justice Center of the Cedar Valley.

For more information, contact the UNI Center for Holocaust and Genocide Education at (319) 273-3870 or see the UNI Center for Holocaust and Genocide Education on Facebook.