Scholarly Communication

Learn how to protect your rights as an author at the two scholarly communication events that Rod Library will sponsor this month. Join us at the topic table on “Scholarly Communication: Author Rights” at the CommUNIty of Scholars event from 2:00-4:00pm in the Great Reading Room in Seerly Hall on Friday, April 6th.

On Tuesday, April 10 Karen Fischer, Collection Analysis Librarian from the University of Iowa, will present “Know Your Copyrights: Ownership and Author Rights.” The presentation will be from 11:00am - Noon in the University Room in Mauker Union. The presentation is open to the campus.

National Library Week!

April 8-14 is National Library Week! Check out our Facebook page for daily contests, random acts of prizes and search for intelligent life winners. One lucky winner will receive a grand prize. Not to give too much away, but it might look like this-

Skype Room

Can’t find a way to connect with your group members for that final project? Room 280 now has a webcam and Skype. Contact the Circulation desk for checkout of room 280.

Finals Prep

Finals are ready for you, but are you ready for them? Remember we are here to help! We offer extended hours (see below) from April 25-May 1. We have group study rooms, and laptops (Mac and PC) available for checkout. When you are here and need a caffeine boost, coffee and soda/water/energy drink machine available on the 1st floor. Room 324 is a great presentation practice room and can be checked out from the Circulation desk. Reference staff are available for research consultations or to answer quick questions in person or text (319-250-4100) or email at http://www.library.uni.edu/ask-us-research-help. The fourth floor is a quiet area and great for that between finals power nap. Be sure to check your library account at https://unistar.uni.edu/patroninfo~S1/ to ensure all your books are returned. Have a great Summer!
