Panel Questions

Finalist: Open Education Awards for Excellence

- Briefly describe your motivation for working on an affordable textbook project.
- Discuss the process of developing your book. What did you learn?
- Your book is not only free but is also considered an Open Educational Resource (OER) so it can be modified, downloaded, shared, and so forth. Why is that important to your project?
- What advice would you give instructors who might be hesitant about considering or creating free textbooks?
