International Friendship Program Student Applications Due August 22

International Friendship Program applications are due Friday, August 22. International students who would like an opportunity to get to know an American family may participate in this community based program which matches them with volunteer community families. This is an AAUW (American Association of University Women) program supported by the Office of International Programs. Students may apply at <https://www.uni.edu/internationalservices/programs-and-activities>, by using the attached form or by picking up an application at the ISSO in 113 Maucker Union. To be matched for the Fall 2014 semester, you must turn in your application by Friday, August 22.
