Burma: Democracy or Genocide [poster]

University of Northern Iowa. Center for Holocaust and Genocide Education.
“Burma: Democracy or Genocide” tells the story of Burmese activist Ang San Suu Kyi, whose life encompasses Burma’s political and ethnic turmoil, including her father’s assassination, the targeting of the Rohingya, Karen and Karenni people, and the powerful pro-democracy movement.

Ellen J. Kennedy
Founder and Executive Director of World Without Genocide at William Mitchell College of Law in St Paul, MN, Winner of the Anne Frank Center’s Outstanding Citizen Award

Monday, March 11, 7:00 pm | Sabin Hall 2