Super Bowl XLIII: Panthers partake

Two University of Northern Iowa alumni experienced a successful NFL season with the Arizona Cardinals.

The Cardinals lost a gripping matchup with the Pittsburgh Steelers in the NFL's Super Bowl XLIII on Feb. 1. Kurt Warner ('94) led the Cardinals as starting quarterback. Detric Ward ('98), now a member of the Kansas City Chiefs coaching staff, served as offensive quality control coach for the Cardinals. Prior to the game, Warner received the 2008 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year trophy, recognizing his community service activities in addition to his excellence on the field.

Both Panthers own Super Bowl Championship rings: Warner with the St. Louis Rams in Super Bowl XXXIV (he was named Super Bowl MVP) and Ward with the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XXXVIII.
