University of Northern Iowa

Coronavirus (“COVID-19”) Webpage

Dear Campus Community:

As of today, there are still no reported cases of coronavirus disease (“COVID-19”) in Iowa, or within our campus community, and our overall risk remains low.

The University of Northern Iowa is actively engaged in efforts to prepare for and mitigate the impacts from coronavirus disease (“COVID-19”). UNI’s COVID-19 Task Force is meeting regularly to coordinate preparations and has developed the website prepare.uni.edu to provide timely information to campus. There you will find information related to on-campus resources, travel restrictions, trusted sources of information, as well as the opportunity to provide suggestions to the task force.

This website will be updated regularly with information regarding the university's preparation and response to COVID-19.

The task force, which is led by me, includes the following UNI leaders:

Michelle Byers
Assistant VP & Director of HR Services

Janet Despard
Director of Dining Services Administration

Kyle Fogt
Associate Counsel of University Counsel

Leah Gutknecht
