2012 HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE CEREMONY

choosing to act: stories of rescue

THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 7 P.M.

*Grout Museum of History & Science
503 South Street
WATERLOO, IOWA*

The United States Congress established the Days of Remembrance as our nation's annual commemoration of the Holocaust. "Choosing to Act: Stories of Rescue" has been designated as the theme for the 2012 observance. The featured speaker at our ceremony this year will be Inge Auerbacher, survivor of Terezín (Theresienstadt) Concentration Camp, author of several books on the Holocaust, including the story of her survival, I Am a Star, and the recipient of numerous awards for her books and her work teaching tolerance and human rights. This event is sponsored by the UNI Center for Holocaust and Genocide Education, Sons of Jacob Synagogue of Waterloo, Cedar Valley Interfaith Council, Catholic Parishes of Waterloo, the Peace and Justice Center of the Cedar Valley and the UNI College of Humanities, Arts and Sciences.
