UNI: A NEW ERA

A new era opens this fall for the Panthers, the era of the University of Northern Iowa. It is not a cold start for the former days as State College of Iowa and Iowa State Teachers College and Iowa State Normal School were good ones athletically.

In football the Panthers posted the following marks under previous school titles:

Iowa Normal	.....	49	31	11
ISTC	.....	201	149	31
SCI	.....	32	13	2

The past has been a solid one, the future looks bright as the Panthers of UNI move forward to make their own mark in the record books.

1967 Outlook

Stan Sheriff coached football teams have been consistent on at least one count. . . the running game is always solid. But, 1967 may be the year of the truly balanced offense.

Optimism over a first class passing game comes from more than one point. First, transfer student Phil Schooley comes on at quarterback with credentials marked top-rate passer. Secondly, there is help on the way in the receiving department where only Terry Fox has been a standout.

Sheriff goes into 1967 with his entire starting backfield on hand but the quartet may not make the starting grade.

Returnee Ed Mulholland, a sound mechanical quarterback, will have to fight off Schooley. Terry Fox, a flanker as a sophomore and running back last fall, may be back at the flank. Mike Toom, on the flank in 1966, is scheduled to man a running back spot. . . if he can hold the job from Dick Miller, Bill Smith or Bill Calloway. Ralph Thomsen is back at fullback but either Toom or Dennis Kettner are capable of moving him out.

Its the kind of problems Sheriff likes. Where to play Fox, who missed spring drills for baseball. If track star Herb Grigg or basketball player Mark St. Clair looks as good in the fall as they did in the spring as pass catchers, Fox may be back at left half.

Overall, Sheriff has nine starters back on offense and nine back on defense. He has more depth than in the past and it is apparent that only one man will be going both ways. . . co-captain Ray Pedersen.

The offensive line has a solid middle with Warren Woepping back at center and seniors Pedersen and Bruce Mohr at guard. Bruce Gulick returns at one tackle and highly-rated sophomore Larry Rater is at left tackle. The end spots, weak in 1966, will be better with transfer Marv Johnson and Vince Wells and Dick Bergstrom battling at the other flank.

Defensively, the Panthers return all four deep defenders, two linebackers and three of the front four.

The four deep backs have the best chance of going into the opener unchanged. Lynn King and Tom Pinkham are scheduled to open at the corners with Lon Scriven and Bill Smith at the safeties. Pinkham was injured during spring drills but should be ready. Smith looked impressive as a runner in the spring and may split his duty. He set an interception record last fall with seven.

Larry Clement and Dave Derhammer are back at linebacker with Bryce Hansen set at the third spot and it may be Hansen has the most solid footing. Sophomore John Williams has been impressive at middle linebacker and could move senior Derhammer out. Clement, a bantam battler, will likely need relief over the long haul because of his size.

Up front Pedersen rules the roost at one tackle spot with Mike Bock on the other side. Dennis Healy, fast becoming one of the league's finest inside guards, had a great spring and appears ready for stardom. The fourth spot may be taken by a sophomore with yearling Rick Hodam battling veteran Bob Smith, an offensive end in 1966, for the job.

Sheriff likes the look of the team. He's already on the record as saying the Panthers will be much improved over 1966. "Just how this will pay off in the league," he added, "is another question. The conference figures to be a tight race with almost all of the clubs improved."

UNI faces a ten-game schedule and the keys are evident. First comes a meeting at Fargo with North Dakota State to open league play. Then, at mid season, the Panthers play three key games, two in NCC action, on the road in as many Saturdays.

Two new non-conference teams are on the schedule in Western Illinois and Eastern Michigan.

Head Football Coach Stan Sheriff

Stan Sheriff became the head football coach at University of Northern Iowa in 1960 following two years as the squad's first assistant and line coach under Bill Hammer.

Few collegiate coaches have had the smashing debut Sheriff had. His first team went undefeated in nine games and then received and accepted the school's first post-season bowl bid. Sheriff's first loss as a head coach came in that Mineral Water Bowl game, a 17-6 defeat to Hillsdale College.

In seven seasons Sheriff has produced a 45-19-2 overall record, has won or tied for the North Central Conference title four times, produced five first team Little All-America players and had 23 players on the first all-conference teams.

A native of San Francisco, Sheriff played his college ball at California Poly at San Luis Obispo where he was an all-conference center for three years and Little All-America as a senior. He played in the 1953 East-West Shrine game and Hula Bowl and later spent three seasons in the National Football League.

Sheriff graduated from Cal Poly in 1954 and received his Master's Degree from there in 1958. His first coaching experience came during a tour of duty in the U.S. Army as he guided the 4th Infantry Division team to the European service title with a 10-1-1 record.

Stan, and his wife Jane, have three young sons, Paul, Michael and Richard.

Assistant Football Coaches

DON ERUSHA—Starting his fifth season as Sheriff's number one assistant and line coach, Erusha has consistently molded solid forward walls together. This fall he has the majority of his starters back on both offense and defense, headed by star Ray Pedersen. Erusha is a Coe College graduate. He coached in prep circles at West Union, West Branch, Mt. Clemens, Mich., and Cedar Rapids Washington before returning to Coe as a line coach prior to his move to UNI. He's married and has one daughter.

DENNIS REMMERT—Remmert starts his fourth season as freshman coach for the Panthers. A former Little All-America tackle for UNI in 1959, he worked for two years as a graduate assistant under Sheriff before moving to Fort Dodge Junior College for one season. He will assist Sheriff as backfield coach and handle a portion of the scouting duties. He's a native of Mason City, Iowa. Remmert is married.

GLEN HENRY—Henry, 26, is in his second year on the Panther coaching staff. He will coach the freshman team this fall and handle scouting assignments. Henry initiated the collegiate swimming program at UNI last year. Married and the father of three children, Henry is a graduate of Chadron State, Nebr., where he served the one year as swimming coach and assistant football coach.

ELMER KORTEMEYER—Kortemeyer became UNI's first full-time trainer two years ago and continues in that capacity in 1967. A former UNI student, Kortemeyer graduated from the University of Wyoming in 1957 and got his M.A. from the same school in 1962. He had high school coaching experience in Wyoming. He's married and has two sons and a daughter.

RICHARD OLIPHANT—Oliphant, a 1965 graduate of UNI, comes back to his alma mater off a successful two year stint as football and basketball coach at Beaman-Conrad High School. Oliphant, now the graduate assistant and in charge of the ends, was the starting quarterback on UNI's 1964 Pecan Bowl team. He specialized in picking apart enemy defenses. Rich is married and the father of two children.

The Co-Captains

64 - Pedersen

64—RAY PEDERSEN, G-DT, 6-3, 218, Sr. Cedar Falls, Iowa.

The professional scouts will be back in Cedar Falls in mass this year and Ray Pedersen will be the reason. A two-time all-conference first team selection, Ray is a brilliant performer either on offense or defense. A throw back of the one-platoon days, Ray has been a two-way player for two years and an outstanding one at that. A devastating blocker he is a picture of perfection in pulling out and leading the power sweep. Pedersen, on defense, is a tough nut for any offense to crack. He is an excellent pass rusher and tough to take out when the opponent runs a power play at him. Coach Sheriff, who's produced two other first team Little All-America linemen, calls Pedersen the best he's had in the line at UNI. Last year Pedersen proved his team value when UNI ran into a problem at offensive tackle. Pedersen was switched to that spot to plug the hole and did so in spectacular fashion. Now he's back at guard where the coaches feel he's at his best. Pedersen, a top-notch student in the classroom, possesses excellent speed for a big man.

24 - Fox

24—TERRY FOX, HB, 5-7, 170, Sr., Perry, Iowa.

Crowd-pleasing Terry Fox will team with Pedersen as UNI's co-captains for 1967. An exciting player from any angle, Fox led the team last year in rushing, pass receiving, scoring and total offense. He gained 620 yards rushing, 439 more on 30 pass receptions and tossed four complete passes for another 92 yards. His brilliant day against nationally rated North Dakota State led to one of the great UNI victories of all time. Against NDS he rushed for 115 yards, caught passes for 155 yards and passed for 49 more. Tiny Terry, also a two-year baseball letterman, was flanker as a sophomore and then switched to running back last fall. He could end up back at flanker this fall or at running back. Wherever it is Fox will be effective. Despite his size Fox has proven he's tough enough to take punishment in heavy traffic. An all-conference player in 1966 he returns as a threat running, passing and catching.

Terry's Career Figures

12 - Schooley

14 - Evans

16 - Mulholland

18 - B. Smith

12—PHIL SCHOOLEY, QB, 6-3, 204, Jr., Washington, Ia. UNI's search for a top-flight passer may be over. Schooley, who transferred in from Iowa where he lettered as a sophomore, is rated an excellent passer, short or long. An improved pass receiving corp and Schooley's aerial artistry could be a big impetus to the Panther attack.

14—JAN EVANS, QB, 5-10, 183, Soph., Princeton, Ia. Evans shared the quarterbacking duties on the Panther freshman team in 1966. He'll be used as a backup man behind the front runners, Schooley and Mulholland.

16—ED MULHOLLAND, QB, 5-10, 184, Webster City, Ia. A parttime starter in 1966, Mulholland was UNI's top passer, hitting 47 of 115 for 40 per cent and 537 yards while giving up six interceptions. He battled Schooley for top job in spring and will be at it again this fall. He knows the Panther offense best, but will need to improve his passing to hold his starting spot.

18—BILL SMITH, DHB, 5-10, 184, Sr., Manchester, Ia. Smith, an All-America runner at Ellsworth JC

two years ago, turned in a record defensive performance last year. He nabbed seven enemy passes for a new record and then sparkled as a runner in spring drills.

20—JAMES WAGNER, HB, 5-9, 175, Soph., Ottawa, Ill. Wagner, an all-stater in Illinois, has yet to come into his own as a collegiate runner. Size hurts him, but the speed is there. He must improve in following blockers to offset lack of size.

21—LYNN KING, DHB, 5-10, 161, Sr., Cedar Falls, Ia. Lynn is a two-year starter at defensive corner back. King is small, but has quick reactions and defends well against the sweep. An energetic team player, he is one of four returning starters in defensive backfield.

22—MICHAEL TOOM, HB, 5-10, 190, Jr., Bettendorf, Ia. Toom started last year as a flanker but has moved into the running back spot and could start at either left half or fullback. He has good power despite lack of height. Toom gained 129 yards on 35 carries in 1966 for a 3.6 average, caught 10 passes for another 159 yards.

20 - Wagner

21 - King

22 - Toom

23 - Jerde

25 - Grigg

26 - Livingston

31 - Thomsen

32 - Kettner

23—THOMAS JERDE, DHB, 5-8, 191, Soph., Webster City, Ia. Jerde lacks experience and could pick that up as a spot player. Lack of size hurts his ability to defend against passes.

25—HERB GRIGG, HB, 6-1, 190, Jr., Muscatine, Ia. Grigg could be the surprise of the team. In one week of spring drills he established himself as a pass receiver of note. A tough competitor, Grigg was number two hurdler on UNI track speed to be an important blocker team last spring. Has the size and and a deep pass threat. A transfer student from Iowa State.

26—BOB LIVINGSTON, DHB, 6-2, 190, Soph., Shenandoah, Ia. Livingston is the best bet to break into the defensive backfield. He could be the man to spell Bill Smith if Smith is used on offense. Also a capable punter, he'll battle Miller and King for that job.

31—RALPH THOMSEN, FB, 6-0, 201, Sr., Gladbrook, Ia., Thomsen, a two-year starter, is capable of going either at fullback or linebacker. He was the team's number two rusher last fall with 448 yards in 127 carries for a 3.6 average and he added 29 yards in pass receptions on six catches as a safety valve man. He was the team's number two scorer in 1966 with 18 points.

32—DENNIS KETTNER, FB, 6-1, 205, Soph., Waverly, Ia. This former all-stater has a bright future at UNI. He lacks cutting ability of a Randy Schultz, but has a good straight forward power and deceptive speed. Must overcome a tendency to fumble that bothered him in freshman campaign. Was the leading rusher on the frosh team.

34—MARK ST. CLAIR, HB, 6-2, 185, Sr., Clinton, Ia. Like Grigg, St. Clair was a pleasant spring ball surprise. Mark, a two-year letterman in basketball, is in his first try at collegiate football. He led all receivers in the spring game with eight catches and 149 yards plus one touchdown. St. Clair has good speed and deceptiveness.

34 - St. Clair

38 - Umphress

40 - Vokoun

42 - Pinkham

43 - Scriven

44 - Miller

46 - T. Bergstrom

50 - Hansen

36—HOWARD CHAPIN, DHB, 5-8, 170, Sr., Columbus, Ohio. Despite his small stature, Chapin could prove valuable as a spot reliever in the defensive backfield. He got a chance in spring ball when Tom Pinkham was injured and he performed well.

38—THOMAS UMPHRESS, HB, 6-2, 180 Soph., Des Moines, Ia. An end on the 1966 freshman team, Umphress has been switched to flanker back and will battle for playing time with Grigg, St. Clair and the rest.

40—JAMES VOKOUN, DHB, 5-11, 175, Soph., Traer, Ia. Slated for reserve duty in the defensive backfield. Vokoun needs chances of spot duty to gain experience.

41—WILLIAM CALLOWAY, HB, 5-10, 180, Jr., Mt. Pleasant, Ia. A transfer student from Ellsworth JC, Calloway is counted on for additional running punch in the Panther backfield this fall.

42—THOMAS PINKHAM, DHB, 6-0, 176, Jr., Cedar Falls, Ia. A starter at strong safety last fall Pinkham was switched to corner back last spring and responded well. Injured, he missed the spring game, but is being counted on for full-time duty again. Good reactions are an asset for him against the run.

43—LON SCRIVEN, DHB, 5-10, 172, Jr., Cedar Rapids, Ia. Another returning starter as a defensive back, Scriven switched spots with Pinkham. Scriven loves contact and doubles as an excellent punt and kickoff return man and an outstanding defensive man in covering punts.

44—DICK MILLER, HB, 6-3, 186, Sr., Waterloo, Ia. A defensive starter as a sophomore, Miller opened last year at flanker back and then turned into the team's top punter, barely missing taking the top NCC honors. Last spring he came into his own as a ball carrier, especially on the power sweep. Was injured just prior to spring game but will be ready to go this fall, and could solve a big question if he continues to progress as a runner.

46—THOMAS BERGSTROM, HB, 5-11, 180, Sr., Cedar Falls, Ia. Bergstrom made a big bid in the spring for a starting job at flanker back. He played only briefly in 1966 but is rated as a good blocker. He needs to relax to become a valuable receiver.

51 - Woepking

52 - Clement

53 - Derhammer

54 - Williams

56 - Rudd

60 - Mohr

62 - Kovacevich

63 - Barbatti

50—BRYCE HANSEN, LB, 6-1, 206, Sr., Harlan, Ia. Slated to be a starting linebacker, Hansen is also the likely backup man at offensive center. He appears to have the best chance to hang on to his starting role following an impressive spring.

51—WARREN WOEPKING, C, 6-2, 210, Jr., Mt. Pleasant, Ia. Woepking was a big surprise last year. He filled a big gap with the loss of Doug Korver and did it well, starting all the way as a sophomore and progressing by leaps and bounds. Warren continued to advance with a fine spring and now is a solid anchor in the middle of the offensive line.

52—LARRY CLEMENT, LB, 5-10, 184, Sr., Newton, Ia. Short on size, long on toughness sums up Clement. A battler, Clement appears to be a solid starter as long as he can hold up physically. A good team player, he may need spot relief.

53—DAVE DERHAMMER, LB, 6-2, 215, Sr., Cedar Rapids, Ia. Derhammer returns as the middle linebacker and faces a stiff challenge from sophomore John Williams. Derhammer's play should be improved following a year of duty in 1966 following his transfer from JC ball.

54—JOHN WILLIAMS, LB, 6-0, 212, Soph., Columbus Junction, Ia. Williams is one of the top sophomores on the team, a player with an outstanding future. A two-time all-stater, Williams had a good spring and may move veteran Derhammer to the outside or the sidelines if his progress continues.

56—JAMES RUDD, LB, 6-0, 208, Soph., Sac City, Ia. Rudd, an offensive center for the freshmen last fall, Rudd is just a step behind Williams. Rudd may get a good crack and will pick up valuable experience when Clement draws a rest period.

60—BRUCE MOHR, G, 5-11, 195, Sr., Eldridge, Ia. Mohr returns as the starting right guard on offense. Small, Mohr is a consistent, effective blocker who does a good job pulling to help lead the interference. He helps form a solid middle three in the line.

65 - Klautd

66 - Hirsch

67 - Bock

68 - Ryal

69 - Hodam

72 - Gulick

74 - Armentrout

75 - Green

62—WILLIAM KOVACEVICH, DT, 6-2, 220, Sr., Rathbun, Ia. UNI's defense could be helped greatly if Kovacevich could have a great year at defensive tackle. Kovacevich has spent time on both offense and defense but has yet to permanently nail down a starting role.

63—THOMAS BARBATTI, G, 6-0, 205, Jr., Iowa City, Ia. Barbatti was a starting guard as a sophomore but has given way at left guard to Ray Pedersen who was returned to his old spot. His presence gives UNI a solid guard position with an experienced performer to relieve either Pedersen or Mohr.

65—RICHARD KLAUDT, G, 6-0, 207, Soph., Waverly Ia. Klaudt had a good freshman year, but a disappointing spring. His progress could solidify the guard spot and he could be used at linebacker. A good field goal kicker (minus the shoe), he's top prospect as UNI's PAT man.

66—GARY HIRSCH, G, 5-11, 193, Soph., Dubuque, Ia. Another entry in a promising list of sophomore guards. Hirsch will back up Mohr on the right side following an impressive freshman record.

67—MICHAEL BOCK, DT, 6-0, 205, Sr. Templeton, Ia. Bock, injured part of the spring, will battle Kovacevich for the starting job he held in the latter stages of 1966. Bock is small, but a battler who showed marked improvement at the end of last year.

68—JOHN RYAL, C, 6-3, 216, Soph., Marion, Ia. Ryal has good size and a good future at his spot. He'll be used in relief of Woepking at offensive center.

69—RICK HODAM, DG, 6-1, 205, Soph., Aurelia, Ia. Hodam could be one sophomore to crack the starting lineup. He had a good spring and started the Alumni game on defense. Quick and aggressive, Hodam will be a big asset if he can pick up where he left off in the spring.

72—BRUCE GULICK, T, 6-2, 222, Jr., Cedar Falls, Ia. Gulick, a full-time starter as a sophomore in 1966, is trimmer this year and a more experienced and effective blocker. Gulick played well a year ago as a newcomer and is counted on for outstanding work this fall.

77 - Bauman

78 - Rater

80 - Wells

81 - R. Smith

84 - Healy*85 - Bellock*88 - Klinger*89 - R. Bergstrom

74—WILLIAM ARMENTROUT, T, 6-3, 205, Soph., Sumner, Ia. Armentrout, shifted to tackle last spring, is counted on for spot duty on offense.

75—LARRY GREEN, T, 6-1, 200, Soph., Washington, Ia. Green, like Armentrout, is slated for reserve status on the offensive line.

77—DARRELL BAUMAN, DT, 6-2, 208, Soph., Grimes, Ia. Bauman will likely back up Pedersen on the defensive line, gaining experience with relief duty.

78—LARRY RATER, T, 6-4, 225, Soph., Earlham, Ia. Rater, an outstanding prospect, will likely be a starter at left tackle on offense. He progressed rapidly in spring drills giving Sheriff a chance to shift Pedersen back to left guard. Playing next to Pedersen will give the youngster a big boost.

79—ROBERT HAMPTON, T, 6-2, 225, Jr., Cedar Rapids, Ia. Hampton is a transfer from Ellsworth JC and one of the newcomers who is counted on heavily. He'll battle Rater for the starting job and give the tackle corps the best depth it has had in years.

80—VINCE WELLS, E, 6-2, 195, Sr., Dexter, Ia. Wells will try to nail down the tight end spot he held for part of 1966 before injury sidelined him. Rated as a good blocker he could double his value with a more consistent pass receiving effort.

81—ROBERT SMITH, DG, 6-1, 195, Sr., Grundy Center, Ia. Smith was an offensive back as a sophomore, a split end last year and now is gunning for a starting spot as a defensive guard. He'll battle Hodam for that role after an injury sidelined him part of the spring.

82—MARVIN JOHNSON, E, 6-1, 175, Chicago, Ill. Johnson could solve a lot of Sheriff's end problems. The Ellsworth JC transfer is a top prospect for the tight end spot and comes in with credentials as an excellent pass receiver and blocker.

84—DENNIS HEALY, DG, 5-11, 190, Sr., Jefferson, Ia. Healy is a real success story. He almost dropped football a year ago, but came back, took a crack at defensive guard and is now rated one of the best in the league. Coming fast this spring, Healy could be the best at his spot in the NCC.

85—VINCE (SKIP) BELLOCK, E, 5-11, 177, Soph., Wheaton, Ill. Bellock, a tough battler, could be a real surprise entry in the battle for starting spots as pass receiver. Bellock displayed the ability to catch the ball in heavy traffic during the spring and can keep himself in the running if he continues to progress.

88—JAMES KLINGER, E, 6-2, 210, Soph., Fort Dodge, Ia. Klinger is another sophomore who could play a big part in UNI success if he continues to progress as he did this past spring. A good receiver, Klinger has good size and could make a serious bid for the tight end spot if his blocking holds up.

89—RICHARD BERGSTROM, E, 5-11, 195, Soph., Cedar Falls, Ia. Bergstrom was a pleasant surprise in the spring drills. Not too big, he stuck at it and came up with an excellent blocking performance that could earn him heavy duty in the fall.

1967 Outlook

Returning Lettermen: 28. Clair Lambert, qb; Ron Stump, e; Jesse Jenkins, e; Dennis Porter, t; Jim Justus, g.
Key Losses: 6. Allen Ische, g; Byron Johnson, lb; Curt Marker, g; Tony Richardson, e.
Offense Wing-T, unbalanced line, split end.
Strengths: Linebacking, defensive backs and the offensive backfield where veterans are plentiful.
Weakness: Dotsch must find personnel in line, both offensively and defensively to fill in for key losses.
Capsule Comment: NMU has a veteran team with a strong balanced attack. Jim Lindstrom and Larry Snoddy provide the running, Clair Lambert and Lloyd Carr the passing to a veteran end corps. Defensive backfield may be the best UNI sees all fall. Top linebacking corps may make up for inexperienced defensive line.

1967 Outlook

Returning Lettermen: 21. Joe McLaughlin, lb; Ron Wrather, hb; Tim Hart, e; Jack Hughes, fb; Dean Lubbs, g;
Jerry Wamsley, db; Doug Woolman, qb.

Key Losses: 8. Bill Brockhouse, e.
Offense: Multiple

Strengths: Seventeen starters return with the added strength of an undefeated frosh club. Depth, a problem in 1966, has apparently been solved.

Weaknesses: Lack of leadership at quarterback was a major problem in 1966. Doug Woolman at 6-3, 195-pounds, solved that with a great spring showing.

Capsule Comment: Dufelmeier is optimistic. He's found a passer and leader in qb Woolman. He's added depth and has 17 starters returning. The Leathernecks will be opening their season against UNI and will be a mystery team for Stan Sheriff. A 1-7-1 1966 record is not impressive, but 17 returning starters is and WIU could cause trouble.

qb; Mike Belmont, hb; John Heller, g; Bruce Nelson, t.
Key Losses: 18. Andy Knudson, e; Lowell Linderman, e; Dick Sciacca, g; Walt Odegard, dt.
Offense: Slot T, I-formation
Strengths: Little All-America halfback Ken Rota and qb Terry Hanson return to spark a veteran backfield and a solid defensive backfield is on hand.
Weaknesses: Heavy losses in both the offensive and defensive lines must be filled.
Capsule Comment: A solid contender again for the NCC title, the Bison need only to find line replacements. Rota is one of the NCC's finest runners and gets support from Mike Belmont. A solid linebacking corps, headed by Mike Ahneman can help in early going with young line.

Returning Lettermen: 25. John Conrad, e; Jerry Quaderer, hb; Forrest Bell, de; Bob Toffey, ddb; Bill Predovich, e; Rick Ouradnik, qb.

Key Losses: Corey Colehour, qb; Roger Bonk, lb; Mike Gerlach, dg; Errol Mann, kicker.

Offense: Multiple, Pro

Strengths: The UND end corps is solid as in the defensive backfield.

Weaknesses: The offensive backfield lost the great Colehour and fullback Pete Porinsh, the defense lost Little All-America Roger Bonk. Three-fourths of offense gone.

Capsule Comment: No NCC team lost the key personnel that UND did. Helling must rebuild his offense and fill a gaping linebacker hole where Bonk played so brilliantly. UND will be tough and could cause trouble if Ouradnik can come close to matching Colehour in passing. The ends are there to catch the ball. Conrad is one of the nation's finest punters and may be a big key with his left-footed boots.

Key Losses: 7. Tom Vander Heiden, g; Mark Osthus, fb; Jim Silliman, t.

Offense: T with split end.

Strengths: QB Gary Sandbo's two year spin in the shadow of UND's Corey Colehour is over and the scrambler could have his year with a veteran end corps back to catch his tosses.

Weaknesses: Depth is always a Viking problem and the replacing of big Jim Silliman will be a major task.

Capsule Comment: Malmquist has played his men two straight years and sophomore mistakes are now turning into senior gems. With Sandbo at the wheel it could be the big year of the Viking. Augie should have much to say and is a definite contender.

Key Losses: 10. Ron Royer, qb; Manley Sarnowsky, e; John Born, hb; Greg Anders, e.

Offense: Wing-T with split end.
Defense: Monster.

Strengths: Big Ben Mayes, a 275-pound middle guard on defense is back along with six starters on each unit. The defense should be one of the toughest Panthers face.

Weaknesses: Drake lost its great passing duo of Ron Royer and Manley Sarnowsky. Sarnowsky also doubled as record-setting place kicker who beat UNI with field goal.

Capsule Comment: Ron Royer, who troubled UNI defenses for four years, is gone as is Sarnowsky. But, Wallace has a top replacement at qb in Bert Fortuna. Running appears so good Wallace shifted Ron Oswalt, top '66 gainer, to defense.

Offense: Pro T
Strengths: Solid passing game with two experienced quarterbacks and veteran ends. The offense has good balance with running of Denny Turnure and Dan Duskin.
Weaknesses: Halford lost a bundle on defense. Jim Rupert was a key loss and all but one deep defender is gone.
Capsule Comment: Morningside has never had trouble scoring and shouldn't in 1967. They've had their biggest problems on defense and its true again. The ability to move the ball with passes or stop the enemy aerals is the big key for 1967.

Onken, t; Tom Anderson, qb; Flash Helm, dnb.
Key Losses: 6. Terry Sorenson, e; Mike Buss, e; Dave Porter, c; Gary Hyde, fb.
Offense: T with split end.
Strengths: Nineteen starters return to give Jacks a veteran flavor they lacked last fall. Gonnerman is one of NCC's finest runners and a top kick return man.
Weaknesses: Quarterback spot partial-ly untested. Tom Anderson returns, but suffered injury last fall. Ginn working to bolster defenses.
Capsule Comment: The Jacks are back in the thick of the NCC title race. With 19 starters back they can cause trouble all the way. Gonner-man gives them excellent running but Anderson must improve as a passer to make offense sound. The defense, weak in '66, must be shored up.

1967 Outlook

Returning Lettermen: 17. John Biezuns, fb; John Wood, e; Lyle Stuart, e; Tom Hanafan, t; Bill Kibble, lb.

Key Losses: 8. Don Abbott, lb; Dave Collins, ddb.

Merkley, ddb; Jim Nixon, qb; Larry Hultgren, hb.

Offense: Multiple T with split end.

Strengths: The defensive deep backs return intact and the rushes of NCC leader Biezuns are keys.

Weaknesses: The Coyotes lost much of defense when Abbott, the NCC's most valuable lineman, departed along with Dave Merkley. Five key holes must be filled on defense.

Capsule Comment: Salem has 13 starters back but must fill key spots on defense and come up with depth. Hultgren is the big loss offensively and he had his great day against UNI. Sophomores appear to be the key. If they can fill holes USD could overcome schedule that has them on road for the last five games.

1967 Outlook

Returning Lettermen: 28. Bob Edelbrock, fb; Rick Krumm, qb; Ron Arnold, ddb; Hollis Jeffreys, e; Bruce Gilbert, e.

Key Losses: 12. Jim Zoltowski, e; Jonas Halonen, t; Bob Rodwell, t; Berry Rubin, c.

Offense: T with wing or flanker.

Strengths: Defense is the trademark of the Hurons. They allowed only 143 yards a game last fall and return 10 veterans. Bob Edelbrock sparks a young offensive team.

Weaknesses: Raymond had a big rebuilding job to do on offense. Edelbrock, at fullback, and quarterback Rick Krumm, add veteran flavor.

Capsule Comment: By the time the Hurons come up on the UNI schedule the young offense will be a veteran unit. There is little question on defense where a solid unit was back from the start.

Balance Returns In Cross Country

Balance, the precious commodity that turned the UNI track team into indoor and outdoor track champions last year, is due back on the cross country scene according to coach Jack Jennett.

"The thing that troubled us last year," said Jennett, "was the gap in performance between the third, fourth and fifth men. Our one and two men, sophomores Tom Denney and Tom Stott, were consistent in their times. The rest of the field was spread out too much and too far behind.

"I think we can cut that down this year with the added year of experience. Merritt Beaman and Rick Witt will be tougher than in their sophomore year and Skip Stolley, and freshmen Larry Daniels and Bill Adams will help."

Adams is the only question mark. The top runner on the freshman team, Adams has been troubled with a back ailment.

Jennett will field a veteran team yet will not have a senior on the squad. Ron Toyne, the lone senior a year ago didn't letter. One letterwinner is missing, however. Dennis Coon, who was the number three man a year ago, has dropped the sport.

South Dakota State, once again, is the team to beat in the conference according to Jennett with South Dakota U. a big threat. On the dual schedule the toughest competition will come from Iowa State and Wartburg.
