Reading the Schedule of Classes

Provided below is a guide for understanding and using the Schedule of Classes.

Please note abbreviations at the top of the Schedule of Classes page which title the information listed below it: e.g., Dpt.= department number.

Department Number

Course Number

Distinguishes each course in the department. If the first digit is "0" the course is primarily for freshmen and/or sophomores, if it is "1" the course is primarily for juniors and seniors, if the first digit is "2" or "3" it is a course for graduate students only. Course numbers followed by a "g" indicates graduate credit - freshmen and sophomores cannot register for "g" level courses.

Course Title

Course descriptions are found in the UNI Programs and Courses. Descriptions of courses typically taken by first-year students are included in this handbook.

Credit Hours

Unit of measure assigned to a course. It normally designates how many hours per week a course meets during the semester. Fifty minutes equals one class meeting hour. Lab, studio, and physical education courses generally meet two hours for one credit hour.

Prerequisites/ Corequisites

Requirements to register for a class are designated directly under the course title. These must be taken before registering for this course. Corequisites are courses which must be taken at the same time as the listed course.

Building

Instructor

If this is blank, it means no instructor was assigned when the schedule went to press.

Day and Time

This is the day and time the class is offered. EVE designates an evening class and ARR designates that additional hours will be scheduled by the instructor.

Section Number

A course may be taught at more than one time -- the section number distinguishes separate offerings of the same course: 1-49 section numbers indicate full semester courses; 70 section numbers indicate lab sections; 80 section numbers indicate courses offered the first half of the semester; 90 section numbers indicate courses offered the second half of the semester.
