Head Football Coach Stan Sheriff

Stan Sheriff is entering his ninth season as head football coach at the University of Northern Iowa, carrying an impressive 52-22-2 record with him.

Stan came to UNI in 1958 as line coach under Bill Hammer, took over the top position two seasons later and made one of the splashiest entries into collegiate coaching ranks an record when his first team, 1960, went undefeated in nine regular season games and then received and accepted the school's first post-season bowl bid. His first coaching loss came in that Mineral Water Bowl, a 17-6 defeat at the hands of Hillsdale College.

Sheriff got that one back in 1964 when his fourth straight North Central Conference championship team won the first Pecan Bowl game, beating Lamar Tech 19-17 at Abilene, Texas.

In eight seasons Sheriff has won or shared four league crowns, finished second twice, third twice. He's produced six first team Little All-American players and 26 all-conference selections, including the most valuable award seven times.

A native of San Francisco, Sheriff played his collegiate ball at California Poly at San Luis Obispo where he was an all-conference center for three years and first team Little All-America as a senior. He played in the 1953 East-West Shrine game and the Hula Bowl and later played three years in the National Football League.

Sheriff graduated from Cal Poly in 1954 and received his M.A. degree from there in 1958. His first coaching experience came during a tour of Army duty when he coached the 4th Infantry Division team to a European service title with a 10-1-1.

Assistant Football Coaches

DON ERUSHA—Starting his sixth season as Sheriff's number one assistant, Erusha is in charge of both the offensive and defensive lines. Erusha has consistently molded solid forward walls, highlighted in 1967 by first team Little All-America Ray Pedersen. Erusha is a Coe College graduate with prep experience at West Union, West Branch, Mt. Clemens, Michigan, and Cedar Rapids Washington. He coached at Coe prior to his arrival at UNI. Don and wife Pat have one daughter, Kay, a Cedar Falls High School senior.

DENNIS REMMERT—Remmert, a former Little All-America tackle at UNI, starts his fifth year under Sheriff and his second as the defensive backfield coach. Remmert worked for two seasons as a graduate assistant under Sheriff following his 1959 graduation and then coached at Fort Dodge Junior College for one year before returning. A native of Mason City, Dennis and wife Sandy have no children.

GLEN HENRY—Henry is starting his third year as a Panther assistant and is also the school's head swimming coach. Henry took over the freshman coaching duties in 1967 and will continue that assignment this fall. A graduate of Chadron State he served his alma mater for one year as head swimming and assistant football coach. Glen and wife Karen have three young children Lisa Kay, Lance, Lori Ann.

ELMER KORTEMEYER—Kortemeyer became UNI's first full-time trainer three years ago. A former UNI student, he graduated from the University of Wyoming in 1957 and received his M.A. degree from the same school in 1962. Kortemeyer had high school coaching experience in Wyoming. He and his wife Joy, have two sons, Carl and Paul and two daughters, Clare and Katherine.

FRANK RYAN— Ryan, a 1962 graduate of UNI, takes over this year as the football graduate assistant. He'll coach the offensive backs and he's got a working experience with one of them, quarterback Phil Schooley. Ryan's first coaching job was as an assistant at Belle Plaine where Schooley prepped. Frank became head coach at Belle Plaine in 1964, posting a 5-4 record. In 1965 he moved to Benton Community at Van Horn to start a football program, building a 11-14-1 record in three years. A native of Corning, Ryan is single.

Full Steam Ahead With the Top 22

"We're looking for the best 22 football players. We want them on the field," opened head football coach Stan Sheriff.

Sheriff's plan is nothing new. Its been used as long as football has been played. Shifting personnel to get the maximum potential is old hat with Sheriff and its a key to the 1968 season for Northern Iowa.

Depth, no matter what you are looking for, is the problem with college division teams. It is a problem for UNI this fall. The front liners show good promise but the Panthers cannot afford a rash of injuries anywhere.

In 1967 UNI had only one starter out for more than one game and it helped on the way to a 7-3 season.

The pluses start at defensive guard where Sheriff and line coach Don Erusha have four top athletes—Dan Goddard, Skip Bellock, Tom Barbatti, Jim Rudd—on hand. Barbatti and Bellock missed the spring game but are returning lettermen. Lettermen Bruce Gulick and Larry Green will handle the defensive tackle spots. Both started last year, but Gulick saw his action on offense and Green has shifted from right to left . . . taking over the crucial spot vacated by Little All-America Ray Pedersen.

Spots get thinner from here. It looks this way:

Offensive backfield: Record-setting quarterback Phil Schooley should be set for his finest year, but he has newcomers behind him, headed by sophomores Larry Skartvedt and Roger Jones and junior fullback Dennis Kettner, who sparkled in the spring game, causing Sheriff to call him the best since Randy Schultz. Transfer Mike Reed and junior Jim Wagner lend depth and could beat out the sophomores.

Offensive line: Most of the returning strength is here and its keyed by tackles Bob Hampton and Larry Rater, likely the best pair of offensive tacklers in many a moon at UNI. Both excel in downfield blocking, both are 225 pounds of eagerness. Warren Woepking returns for third starting year at center while a good pass catching corps is headed by senior Marv (Twiggy) Johnson, the NCC leader in 1967, and sophomore Randy Ruisch, who could prove to be the finest tight end in four or five years. The guard spot is headed by returning starter Rick Hodam, a junior, and is thin. Personnel changes are likely to bolster this spot.

Defensive line: Shows great promise with four lettermen and two top-flight newcomers in Goddard and Rudd. The linebacking corps is set with returnee John Williams in the middle, Rex Perisho and Dennis Meyer on the outside.

Defensive backfield: Young and eager, this is a bigger group than the stand-out quartet of 1967. Tom Pinkham returns for his third season as a starter and should help settle the youngsters. Dick Bergstrom, a starting tight end in 1967, is at strong safety and adds 20 pounds to the position with junior Jim Vokoun and sophomore Marv Miller filling out the spots. Miller, the youngest, may be the best of the bunch, much in the line of Bill Smith from last year. He'll play Smith's free safety spot.

Specialties: Sheriff may have found a standout punter in the spring and its quarterback Schooley, who averaged 49-yards a kick. Pinkham and reserve Bob Livingston add depth. Guard Dick Klaudt will handle the kicking chores. Once a shoe-less booter Klaudt has added the shoe and consistency now.

Sheriff is planning on straight platoon football at the outset, but needs may cause some to play both ways or to shift positions. The best 22 will find their way to the front.

Panther Profiles

THE CO-CAPTAINS

12—PHIL SCHOOLEY, QB, 6-3, 215, Sr., Washington, Iowa

Passing from the cup is Schooley forte and he had a hand in six record setting performances in his first season. Personal marks came for passes attempted (261) and passes completed (112) and the walls should keep tumbling down this fall. UNI fans look for great things from Schooley following a brilliant spring game performance of how to make the short passing game go. The biggest back on the squad, Schooley is not a running quarterback. He's also the best bet to handle punting chores.

Schooley's 1967 Passing Statistics

	Att.	Comp.	Intc.	Pct.	Yds.	Ave:	Long	TD
1967	261	112	11	.429	1193	10.6	57	5

79—ROBERT HAMPTON, T, 6-2, 225, Sr., Cedar Rapids, Ia.

Nicknamed the 'Hog', Hampton is one half of the finest pair of offensive tackles at UNI in many a season. He and Larry Rater make up the team and both excel in the lost art of downfield blocking. Hampton mans the important right tackle spot and seems aimed for an outstanding senior campaign. A leading candidate for all conference honors.

42—THOMAS PINKHAM, DHB, 6-0, 180, Sr., Cedar Falls, Ia.

Pinkham, an honor student in the classroom, heads into his third season as a starter in the defensive backfield. An all-state running back in his prep days at NU high, Tom becomes the leader of the pass defense and the backup punter for Schooley. He'll handle the tough left corner and has proven himself as a tough defender against the sweep. Potentially one of the finest deep defenders in the conference.

54—JOHN WILLIAMS, LB, 6-0, 210, Jr., Columbus Junction, Iowa.

Williams became a starter mid-way through his sophomore year. He picked off three enemy passes from his middle linebacker spot in five games. Another honor student and a two-time all-state tackle, Williams has a brilliant future ahead of him. A solid contender for all-league honors, Williams will quarterback the defensive.

14 - Hendricks

20 - Wagner

22 - Skartvedt

23 - Smith

14—WALT HENDRICKS, QB, 5-11, 170, So., Winterset, Ia. Hendricks is the backup signal caller for Schooley. Had a good spring game and frosh season. More of a scrambler and runner than Schooley.

20—JIM WAGNER, HB, 5-9, 175, Jr., Ottawa, Ill. One of three out-of-state performers, Wags earned all-state honors two years ago in Illionis. Will likely see plenty of punt and kickoff return duty. He's a leading contender for the left halfback job. Carried 16 times for 19 yards in 1967. Runs with power despite his size.

21—WILLIAM CALLOWAY, HB, 5-10, 180, Sr., Mt. Pleasant, Ia. Calloway, a transfer a year ago, saw little action, but could figure in this fall as Johnson's replacement at split end and will be used in punt and kickoff returns.

22—LARRY SKARTVEDT, HB, 5-10, 180, Soph., Radcliffe, Ia. One of the brightest sophomore prospects, Skartvedt has an excellent chance to earn a starting role at left half. The best cutting runner on the team, he reminds one of a smaller Randy Schultz. He's from the same league that produced Schultz. A tough youngster with an outstanding future. Can catch the ball as an added asset.

23—WAYNE SMITH, HB, 5-11, 170, Soph., Belmond, Ia. Smith played on the great Belmond teams but may be a year away as a sophomore. He'll have to battle Skartvedt and Wagner for playing time. Had a good freshman campaign.

24—ROGER JONES, HB, 6-0, 190, Soph., Aurelia, Ia. Jones is the other sophomore back given a good chance to earn a starting role. He'll be used at slot back. A good blocker for a youngster, he runs with power, catches the ball well and, like Skartvedt, has a great future ahead of him. His dad was UNI's first Little All-America player back in 1937.

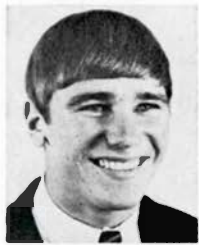

24 - Jones

32 - Kettner

34 - Arduser

40 - Vokoun

41 - Livingston

43 - Bergstrom

45 - Luhning

46 - Miller

27—MICHAEL REED, HB, 6-0, 195, Jr., Des Moines, Ia. Reed who prepped at Cedar Rapids Washington, is a transfer from Ellsworth JC's bowl team. A promising addition, he'll battle Jones for a starting role. Reed could be the surprise package of a potentially outstanding backfield.

32—DENNIS KETTNER, FB, 6-1, 205, Jr., Des Moines, Ia. No one had a better spring than Kettner, a former all-stater and an honor student. He carried the ball only once last fall for one yard, but Sheriff rates him the best at fulback since Schultz. A solid blocker, Kettner is another good pass catcher and runs with speed and power, though not a cutting runner like Schultz. A returning letterman.

34—KENNETH ARDUSER, FB, 6-0, 190, Soph., Sigourney, Ia. Arduser, who played well as a frosh, will get his chances at action in spelling Kettner. He had a fine spring game, giving promise for another good future.

40—JAMES VOKOUN, DHB, 5-11, 180, Jr., Traer, Ia. Vokoun is counted on as a starter at the right corner on defense. He saw only limited action in 1967 but came a long way in the spring and capped it with a creditable job in spring game.

41—BOB LIVINGSTON, DHB, 6-2, 190, Jr., Shenandoah, Ia. Livingston, a reserve in 1967, missed spring ball while pitching for UNI. He's also a candidate for the punting chores. but the verdict on him is out until practice progresses and its seen how much he's missed. Will probably fill in for Volkoun at the corner.

43—RICHARD BERGSTROM, SS, 5-11, 195, Jr., Cedar Falls, Ia. Bergy was a starting tight end in 1967. Now shifted to strong safety, he lends needed size to the spot. Progressed rapidly at the new position in the spring. A solid hitter.

50 - Hanson

51 - Woepking

52 - Steen

53 - Klinger

60 - Goddard

62 - Harken

63 - Barbatti

65 - Klautd

44—BRUCE WHITCHER, DHB, 5-11, 175, Soph., West Union, Ia. Slated for reserve duty in the defensive backfield, Whitcher is one of the most eager hitters, but his size is a problem.

45—JAMES LUHRING, 6-1, 175, Soph., Nashua, Ia. Also slated for reserve duty at a corner back spot, he'll spell Pinkham when needed. Needs to add size to be more effective.

46—MARV MILLER, FS, 6-0, 175, Soph., Exira, Ia. Miller is the top defensive back prospect among the newcomers. He has speed, instinct and willingness to hit. He'll take over free safety spot vacated by all-conference Bill Smith. Miller shows good promise following a top spring effort.

49—MIKE ROCKFORD, DHB, 5-9, 165, Jr., New Hampton, Ia. Size poses a problem for Rockford, who is slated for reserve duty in the defensive backfield.

66 - Hirsch

67 - Bellock

68 - Rudd

69 - Hodam

50—JON HANSON, C, 6-3, 195, Soph., Muscatine, Ia. The starting center last fall on the freshman team, Hanson will draw reserve duty behind veteran Woepking and Klingner.

51—WARREN WOEPKING, C, 6-2, 210, Sr., Mt. Pleasant, Ia. Whooper is set for his third straight year as a starter at offensive center. He missed part of last year and some in the spring due to injury but should be fit in the fall for his finest year. A top flight year could put him among the leagues finest. A letterman.

52—DARRELL STEEN, LB, 6-1, 195, So., Buffalo Center, Ia. Steen could be a rare story in football, a quarterback converted into a linebacker. He'll backup Williams as he learns new position. Missed spring game due to injury.

53—JAMES KLINGER, C, 6-2, 210, Jr., Fort Dodge, Ia. Klinger, a converted end, can be good enough to push Woepking for a starting role. He'll also draw time at defensive tackle. Started spring game on first unit.

72 - Gulick

74 - G. Anderson

75 - Green

77 - Walter

60—DAN GODDARD, DG, 5-10, 200, Jr., Mt. Pleasant, Ia. Goddard had a sparkling spring game after transferring to UNI from Ellsworth. If he matches spring performance he could move veteran Tom Barbatti out of a starting role. Has quickness and toughness needed for down guard position.

62—ROBERT HARKEN, G, 6-2, 205, Soph., Iowa Falls, Ia. Harken has good potential but may be a year away from reaching starting role efficiency. Should get considerable experience this fall.

63—THOMAS BARBATTI, G, 6-0, 205, Sr., Iowa City, Ia. An offensive starter as a sophomore, Barbatti is on defense where his potential is greater. Played well at the down guard in 1967, but missed spring drills due to injury and now faces a big challenge from Goddard. A letterman.

65—RICHARD KLAUDT, G, 6-0, 210, Jr., Waverly, Ia. Klaudt has shown flashes of good potential but has yet to show consistency. He'll be in battle for the starting guard position on offense and will handle the place kicking and field goal chores. Once kicked without shoe, he's booting better now from behind the leather.

66—GARY HIRSCH, G, 5-11, 195, Jr., Dubuque, Ia. Hirsch played only sparingly as a sophomore, but should see much more action in a reserve role behind top guards.

67—VINCENT 'SKIP' BELLOCK, DG, 5-11, 185, Jr., Wheaton, Ill. Not very big, Bellock has the strength and is cat quick. A letterman as a sophomore in football and wrestling, he missed spring drills due to injury and must battle the bigger Jim Rudd for the spot vacated by talented Dennis Healy.

68—JAMES RUDD, DG, 6-0, 205, Jr., Sac City, Ia. Rudd had a great spring along side Goddard. They battle veterans Barbatti and Bellock, making this the strongest spot on the squad. Rudd is a converted linebacker who has strength. Like Goddard and Bellock, he's very aggressive.

69—RICHARD HODAM, G, 6-1, 205, Jr., Des Moines, Ia. Hodam, who prepped at Aurelia for his Dad, started all 10 games as a sophomore, five on defense, five on offense. He has excellent speed for offensive guard and quickness. Coaches feel he could be one of the finest ever at UNI if he pushes himself to his full potential. A letterman.

78 - Rater

81 - R. Anderson

82 - Johnson

83 - Perisho

72—BRUCE GULICK, DT, 6-2, 215, Sr., Cedar Falls, Ia. A two-year starter on offense, Gulick is now at his best position, defensive tackle. He's always shown defensive promise, but ability and team needs kept him on offense. He should be starter at right tackle.

74—GARY ANDERSON, T, 6-1, 215, Soph., West Des Moines, Ia. Anderson is slated for swing duty as a reserve offensive tackle, spelling both Rater and Hampton.

77—DOUG WALTER, DT, 6-2, 220, Soph., Corning, Ia. Walter, who showed well in the spring, will be the number two defensive tackle on either side, the swing man. He'll see plenty of action in his first year.

78—LARRY RATER, T, 6-4, 225, Jr., Earlham, Ia. Rater, loaded with potential, could be one of the great ones before he's finished. A 10-game starter last fall as a sophomore, he has good size and speed. A letterman, he's aggressive and an outstanding downfield blocker.

81—RON ANDERSON, DHB, 6-2, 195, Sr., Clinton, Ia. Slated for reserve duty in the defensive backfield, Anderson could make a real contribution with his size.

82—MARVIN JOHNSON, SE, 6-1, 180, Sr., Chicago, Ill. 'Twiggy' led the league in pass receiving in 1967 and seems headed for an outstanding senior year as Schooley's favorite target. He nabbed 32 last fall for 403 yards and provided some key downfield blocks to spring long gainers. A letterman, Johnson should make a solid run for all-Conference honors.

86 - Meyer

88 - Cox

Mgr. - Wade

83—REX PERISHO, LB, 6-2, 200, Jr., Sigourney, Ia. Perisho, who saw limited duty last fall, is expected to start at an outside linebacking spot following a flashy spring game performance. Rated as one of the toughest defenders on the team. Could be a standout in first year as a starter.

85—RANDY RUISCH, TE, 6-1, 195, Soph., Maurice, Ia. Ruisch made a big splash in the spring game, making catches in heavy traffic. He's rated as the best prospect at tight end in years at UNI. Expected to be a starter.

86—DENNIS MEYER, LB, 6-0, 205, Soph., Ia. Meyer had a brilliant freshman season, but missed the spring game due to injury. Rated as a starter on the outside. He is good enough to make the trio of Meyer, Williams and Perisho potentially one of the finest sets of linebackers at UNI.

87—STEVEN JUNG, E, 6-2, 190, Soph., Bettendorf, Ia. Jung looked good in the spring and is expected to see considerable action this fall behind Ruisch. Adds vital depth to the tight end or split end spot.

88—VINCENT COX, E, 6-3, 190, Soph., Sioux City, Ia. Cox has the size the coaches' like at end, but injuries have cut him down. He may be a year away yet due to those injuries.

89—MIKE FILER, LB, 5-11, 190, Soph., Cedar Falls, Ia. Filer teamed last fall with Meyer to give the UNI frosh superior linebacking. Filer started in the spring game with Meyer injured and is now slated for a key role as swing man, spelling both Meyer and Perisho.

MGR—KEITH WADE, Sr., Ryan, Ia. Few managers make the contribution Wade has made at UNI. He controls all managerial duties and has the respect of the players as he handles minor coaching duties on the side, then switches over to the press box for all other Panther sports as a statistician.

 Weaknesses: UND's losses were in both backfields but Olson has passers in Conner and Jerry Boyer. Needs running backs.

Offense: Split end, Belly Series
Defense: 5-2
Strengths: Darwin Gonnerman, the number one rusher in the NCC, is back and its trouble. Fifteen of 22 starters are back.
Weaknesses: Quarterback is still a trouble spot as Ginn looks for passing to compliment the great Gonnerman ground game.
Capsule Comment: Gonnerman will worry NCC coaches all fall and the veterans behind him mean double trouble.

 Key Losses: 15. Tom Youngberg, ddb; Jerry Wieslander, ddb; Roger Sparks, lb.

Offense: Wing-T with split end
 Defense: 5-2

Strengths: Ten of 11 offensive starters are back, including all four backs, headed by super-back Bobby Misner.

Weaknesses: Three top deep defenders are gone, but monstrous line could make up for that.

Capsule Comment: The Bulldogs are loaded on offense and could flush out records by the bushel. Pass defense is the main concern early, but the defensive line is so big it may overcome that fault with super pass rush.

 Strengths: The entire starting backfield is back, headed by quarterback Don Zeleznak and fullback Dan Gipple.
 Weaknesses: The biggest hole is in the middle of the offensive line and the usual depth problem.
 Capsule Comment: Morningside should have a potent offense again if they fill Gayle Knief's hole at end, but depth and defense could be a problem. Gipple gives them a plus with valuable kicking toe.

Strengths: Offense with an experienced quarterback in Jim Foster, good running backs in Bob Koch and Steve Chambers.
Weaknesses: Many holes to fill on defense and Salem must count on sophomores once again.
Capsile Comment: Salem has seen more injuries than he cares to recall. A healthy squad could enhance the 1968 record with Foster set and a horrendous kicking game resolved. Bob Koch could be top back in NCC if healthy.

1968 Outlook

Returning Lettermen: 22. Arnold Fontes, qb; Gary Matsche, e; Tommie Walls, hb; Bob Lints, dt; John Sharp, dt; Glenn Crane, lb.
Key Losses: 13. Ron Arnold, ddb; Bob Edelbrock, fb.
Offense: Wing-T
Defense: 4-3
Strengths: Solid returning group from last fall on defense and offense. Good running attack headed by Walls.
Weaknesses: Were very weak in passing in '67, but Fontes found the range in spring game and this could be the difference.
Capsule Comment: The last meeting of a brief two-year contract. The Hurons are on the way up and need only an improve passing game to get them back in the picture. A good defense is their key.

Coach Jack Jennett

Cross Country Outlook

Jack Jennett, UNI cross country coach, is faced with a rebuilding year as he prepares for the 1968 season.

Jennett has three returning lettermen, a distinct need for better balance and a lack of talented in-coming freshman.

Even he three letterman figure can be deceiving.

First is returning captain Tom Denney. The Anita senior is the one real bright picture back. He holds the UNI four-mile record with 20:29.0 clocking last fall and he finished 21st in the NCAA College Division finals at Wheaton, Ill. His 1968 target is to come in 15th or better and earn UNI's first cross country All-American rating.

Also back is Rick Witt, who should be the number two man, and Wayne Silka. Silka is the question mark. Just out of the Navy, Silka's return to good running form will have to be proven.

Jennett is counting on juniors Doug Joslin and Wayne Daniels to pick up some of the slack and rates Milo Mead and Fred Krumm as the top yearlings expected to be on hand.

Missing will be Tom Strott and Wayne Carpenter, both with eligibility left, but with injuries that will keep them away. Carpenter was expected to challenge Denney for the number one spot.

Jennett rates North Dakota as the team to beat in the NCC, with Arjan Gelling, the national champion, back plus his shadow Mike Kane. South Dakota State, winner of all but one NCC cross country titles over the years, is UND's prime contender, Jennett feels.
