Future Plans for student

What did you accomplish during your internship?
I was able to inventory and help improve the historical traveling trunks for kids. Also, I was able to take the information from the Cedar-Falls and Waterloo Bus Tours given to school kids, and turn that into two short virtual tours using Google Earth that can be accessed on any computer.

How did the internship benefit the student?
This internship allowed me to learn how to use my research skills and knowledge of history in a way that would benefit the community. I also got some great volunteer experience under a great organization filled with great people.
How did the internship benefit the agency?

With the project completed by Cory, the Grant Museum District has been able to update Museum School programs and ensure they are current and connected to classroom instruction.

How does the internship benefit the community?

The community will continue to have history and culture integrated into the local schools as a result of this internship.
