Elementary Teacher Education Senate Meeting
3:30-5:00 Thursday, December 8, 2016
Curriss Business Building Rooms 319
Agenda

- I. Welcome
- II. Possible Revision of Application to the UNI Teacher Education Program
- III. Teacher Education Program Online Application
- IV. Teacher Education Program Class Completion Requirement
 - a. In December of 2008 the Council on Teacher Education passed the motion that, "Individuals will be suspended from the teacher education program if the individual is unable to meet program-mandated grade requirements for any required course in three attempts. The suspension will be for one year and will follow the defined procedures of the TCPRC."
- V. Iowa Core Curriculum Question
 - a. 79.15(6) Teacher candidates demonstrate competency in content coursework directly related to the Iowa core.
 - 1. The Core is a guideline for planning, differentiating, and assessing instruction. The effective instruction guidelines align with best practice. As candidates begin to prepare lesson plans, alignment is required as to how the lesson objectives are tied to the Iowa Core. During the clinical experience, candidates continue to document the Iowa Core standards. Candidates align their lesson to the standards of the professional organization, particularly for subject areas not addressed by the Iowa Common Core.
- XI. Diversity Statement Update
- XII. Update from Executive Council
- XIII. Update on Matters Arising at the State
 - a. IACTE Update
 - b. Federal Regulations Update
- XII. Upcoming Dates (subject to change)
