Head Football Coach Stan Sheriff

Football's Centennial Year is 'Decade Year' for head coach Stan Sheriff. He's starting his tenth season as head man of the Panther grid fortunes. Sheriff moves into the tenth season with an impressive 57-27-2 nine-year record.

Few college coaches have had a more successful beginning. After two seasons as head assistant (1958-59) Sheriff took over for the 1960 season and came up with an unbeaten year in nine regular season games. His first collegiate coaching loss came in UNI's first post-season game that fall. UNI fell, 17-6, to Hillsdale in the Mineral Water Bowl.

Stan got that one back in 1964 when the Panthers whipped Lamar Tech 19-17 in the first Pecan Bowl game, signifying the NCAA College Division Midwest Regional championship.

Sheriff coached teams have won four North Central Conference titles (1960, 1961, 1962 and 1964). He's 41-12-1 in NCC play. He's produced six first team Little All-Americans and 30 all-conference selections, including seven most-valuable player winners.

A native of San Francisco, Sheriff played his collegiate ball at Cal Poly (San Luis Obispo) where he was an all-conference center for three straight years and first team Little All-America as a senior. He played in the 1953 East-West Shrine game and the Hula Bowl, later playing three years as a linebacker in the NFL.

Sheriff graduated from Cal Poly in 1954 and received his M.A. degree from there in 1958. His first coaching experience came during a tour of Army duty where he coached the 4th Infantry Division team to the European service title with a 10-1-1 record.

Stan, and his wife Jane, have three sons, Paul, Michael and Richard.

Stan is a member of the NCAA Football Coaches' rules committee.

DON ERUSHA — Sheriff's number one assistant, Erusha is starting his seventh season with the Panthers. He's in charge of both the offensive and defensive lines. He molded the defensive unit that this fall is expected to be one of UNI's finest in years. He also must come up with an offensive line that was splintered by graduation, losing four of the seven starters. Erusha has consistently constructed top-flight linemen, highlighted by first team Little All-America Ray Pedersen in 1967. Erusha graduated from Coe College and coached in the high school ranks at West Union, West Branch, Mt. Clemens, Mich., and Cedar Rapids Washington. Prior to his arrival at UNI in 1963 he was on the Coe staff. Don and his wife Pat have one daughter, Kay, a freshman at UNI this fall. Erusha is to be given much of the credit for UNI's 21-19 victory over Drake in 1968 when he came up with an innovation in the line that gave the Panthers the domination in line play over the bigger Bulldogs and directly led to the win.

DENNIS REMMERT — Remmert is one of two former UNI players now on the Panther staff. He is in charge of the defensive backs and linebackers, sharing the defensive coaching responsibilities with Erusha. Remmert, at one time or another, has held most of the assistant coaching spots with UNI, handling the freshmen for several years. On the varsity level he has been the offensive backfield and end coach before switching over to defense. During his playing days he earned Little All-America honors as an offensive tackle. He graduated in 1959 and after a short pro career joined the Panthers as a graduate assistant. He coached one year at Ft. Dodge junior college before returning to the Panthers. Remmert handles the press box phones on game days and occasionally shares in the scouting chores. He and his wife Sandy have no children. Remmert, a native of Mason City, is starting his sixth season with the Panthers.
GLEN HENRY — Few wear more hats than Henry in UNI's athletic setup. Starting his fourth season at UNI, Glen has head coaching duties in swimming where his team has won the first two 'unofficial' conference titles. He started the program at UNI and in three years has made the Panthers a contender. In football he is in charge of the junior varsity team, coaches the ends and flankers on the varsity, serves as Sheriff’s chief scout of opponent teams and picks up his share in recruiting as time allows during the swimming season. Henry is a graduate of Chadron State in Nebraska. He coached two years at Greybull, Wyoming, and then returned to Chadron as a graduate assistant, coaching football and starting the swimming program there. A native of Newcastle, Wyoming, Henry and his wife Karen have three young children, Lisa Kay, Lance and Lori Ann.

CHARLES SCHULTE — Schulte, the newest addition to the Panther staff, is not a new face on the scene. A year ago he assisted while completing his work on a M.A. degree. Schulte, a native of Elkader, Ia., was the starting center on Sheriff's first team, the unbeaten 1960 edition. Rated as one of the top blockers in that line, Schulte went on to a high school coaching career at Reinbeck, Montezuma and Waterloo West prior to his return to UNI for graduate studies. He received his B.A. degree in 1961. He and his wife Joan have two children, Joseph and William.

ELMER KORTEMEYER — Kortemeyer begins his fourth year as UNI's head trainer. A former UNI student, Elmer completed his undergraduate studies at the University of Wyoming in 1957 and received his M.A. degree from the same school in 1962. In the interim he coached high school football and basketball in Wyoming. He and his wife Joy have two sons, Karl and Paul, and two daughters, Clare and Katherine.
Defense the Key in 1969 for UNI

There is a feeling of optimism in the Northern Iowa football camp this year and it starts with head coach Stan Sheriff.

"I think we have to feel good about the prospects for 1969," he said. "We have many things going for us.

"First, the players are looking forward to the season. We have good team spirit and morale. It's a must.

"Secondly, we have the nucleus of an outstanding defensive unit. You have to be strong on defense to be a consistent winner. What makes me feel good is the feeling we can compete with the schedule. By that, I mean we have an equal chance in all ten games. Every game is a challenge and we can beat anyone on any given day. This doesn't mean we expect to win all 10 games. We want to win all 10 and we feel we have that chance. We also recognize that our opponents have fine teams, too.

"Third, we have fine senior leadership and for us this an important item this year. Basically, we are a young team but I think we have that leadership in the key spots, especially on defense."

The schedule is a good one and a demanding one. For example, the two pre-season favorites in the North Central Conference will likely be North Dakota State and South Dakota U. Both were ranked nationally last year (NDSU was number one, USD number eight) and the Panthers get them on successive weekends.

The Problem Areas

You start in the offensive line if you are searching for problem areas. That's where the Panthers lost the most. The entire right side of the line graduated, from the center on out and that unit lacked depth in 1968.

"We expect a number of sophomore mistakes in the line in the early going," Sheriff continued. "You just don't put four new men up front and expect all to be rosy.

"Right now sophomore Gene Dietrich is the best bet at center with either Gary Hirsch, Fred Beaver or JC transfer Mike Fisch at the other guard.

"If you would want to pinpoint one spot that worries me most at the outset it is right tackle. We have the size we want there but we're looking at newcomers almost exclusively. Vince Cox, out with an injury all of last year, is looking good at the tight end spot and he's only a sophomore.

"The back field is in much better shape and I'll go into that latter. We don't have a passer of Schooley's ability, but the four young men we do have have other talents. They seem to compliment each other. For instance, I'd rate junior Bill Raun and freshman Steve Egger as stronger in passing than in running and sophomore Gary Weber and freshman Dave Hodam as stronger in running than passing.

"Raun ran our offense in the spring and is the logical first choice at this point. I am happy that we have some depth here this year."

Strengths

You start with the front seven on defense when adding up the pluses of the 1969 Panthers. Sheriff and his staff have both experience and depth on hand.

The guard spots are bright spots. Back are all-NCC Dan Goddard, Jim Rudd and Skip Bellock. Bellock returns to guard after a year at tackle where he operated out of necessity. Larry Green and Doug Walters return at tackle.

And then, the real glittering spot of linebacker. No where does UNI have more experience and more depth than here.

"Look at it this way," said Sheriff.
“We have an all-NCC middle line backer returning in John Williams. He’s called our defensive sets for two full seasons and he’s a hitter. He’s flanked by Dennis Meyer on his right, Dick Bergstrom on the left. Bergstrom has been switched from strong safety but the transition is not a great one. The jobs are almost similar but he is now relieved of the responsibility of the deep pass coverage. We think he’ll have a great year. Back of them are veterans Mike Filer and Rex Perisho, both starters part of the time in 1968, plus a top yearling recruiting Ken Rosenkrans, Waterloo East first team all-stater.”

The Switches

At first glance it appears Sheriff has made more than the usual number of personnel switches. He disagrees.

“Actually, last year was the year we made a number of position changes,” he explained. “We were thin and something had to be done. Now, in at least three cases, we have the men back where they belong.

“The prime change, the one that caused a series of switches, is the move of Bergstrom to linebacker. To fill that spot at strong safety we’ve moved cornerback Jim Vokoun and we think he’ll be even more valuable there. Then we took free safety Marv Miller and moved him to Vokoun’s corner with veteran Bob Livingston and JC transfer Clarence Rivers holding forth at free safety. Jim Luhring looks like he’ll be the other cornerman.”

Other changes involve the possible move of Hodam to right guard and Roger Jones in the backfield.

That backfield switch is just part of it. Sheriff has what he considers ten capable running backs vying for the three starting spots, including the three 1968 starters in halfbacks Jones and Wagner and fullback Dennis Kettner.

“This is most interesting. Ten men who may all be so close than anyone of them could be a starter,” Sheriff added. “Kettner and Wagner were the leading runners a year ago, but we’ve always wanted Jones inside. He played the flanker spot a year ago because of his size and blocking, but he may be the best runner of the trio.

“Dennis Frederick, at 191, may be the best newcomer. He’ll have to beat out Wagner and Mike Reed, who started the spring game, and freshman Jerry Roling, a young man we have a great deal of hope for. He’s 190 pounds right now and he’ll get a bit bigger.”

Skartvedt seems the best bet for the flanker spot, though he’ll get a challenge from Wayne Smith and Sheriff can always move Jones back into that area. Skartvedt, who started the 1968 opener and then missed the rest of the season with illness, is well suited for the flanker. He has better than average speed, catches the ball well, is at his best in the open field and has the willingness to block.

The Kicking Game

With the offense a question mark at pre-season time because of the number of untried players, Sheriff may have more than an invested interest in the kicking game in 1969.

“First, I want to say one thing. We consider this part of our offensive game. It is used as part of our overall plan for a game.

Sheriff has one of the NCC’s best punters in Livingston and his number one PAT man in Dick Klaudt, but Klaudt may not cut the mustard. Sophomore center Gene Dietrich is listed as number one now. He showed a strong leg during his yearling season. Dietrich, Klaudt or Doug Walter will kickoff.

The Newcomers

Sheriff feels he and his staff had their finest year of recruiting. Roling, Rosenkrans, Nelson White, Dave Hodam, Tom Jordan, Mike Kock and Dan Gilbert head an impressive list. Says Sheriff on the freshmen, “I’ll be very surprised if anyone of them earns a starting spot in that first game and very disappointed if many of them do not earn their letter this first year. We think they can help us this fall and learn a great deal of football in doing so.”

A New Look For NCC

The North Central Conference celebrates the 100th Anniversary of collegiate football in a special way, by taking in a new member into the conference.

Mankato State College is that new member, though the Indians will not show up in the football standings for several years.

They became official league members in November, 1968 and will enter active competition for NCC titles in all sports except football during this 1969-70 school year. They will be worked into the football picture as soon as possible, likely the 1972 season.
Where Are They Now?

All of the young men mentioned below have one thing in common. They all participated in the UNI football program since the arrival of Stan Sheriff, they all are UNI graduates, and they are all now in the coaching profession.

The Line

68—JAMES RUDD, DG, 6-0, 218, Sr., Sac City, Ia. Rudd was the best 'non-starter' in the NCC in 1968, playing brilliantly beside Goddard and Barbatti. Considered a top bet for 1969 stardom, Rudd has all the tools, strength, speed, intelligence and the willingness to dominate. Teams with Goddard and Bellock for great inside trio. Letterman.

60—DAN GODDARD, DG, 5-10, 205, Sr., Mt. Pleasant, Ia. The toughest man in UNI's line to keep out of the enemy backfield. Consistently comes up with spectacular play. A transfer from Ellsworth, Goddard made all-NCC in 1968 and should be a top candidate to repeat. Has great quickness and strength and loves to hit. Letterman.

67—VINCE 'SKIP' BELLOCK, DG, 5-11, 183, Sr., Wheaton, Ill. A conference champion in wrestling, Bellock has surprising strength for his size. Billed as the smallest starting defensive tackle in the nation in 1968, he's back where he belongs. Will split time with Rudd and Goddard and is considered an equal starter. Superior quickness, and like Goddard, blessed with great upper body strength. Letterman.

68—DOUG WALTER, DT, 6-2½, 235, Jr., Corning, Ia. The surprise of 1968. Walter was stuck into starting lineup at last minute in opener and never lost job. Has outstanding range for his size and should develop into an outstanding defensive lineman. Added size will help through 10-game schedule. Letterman.

75—LARRY GREEN, DT, 6-1, 214, Sr., Washington, Ia. Injuries hobbled Green much of 1968 season, but he is being counted on for superior service this fall. Was a full-time starter in 1967. Not the biggest defensive tackle, Green parleys quickness into his major asset. Letterman.

71—STEVEN ELLISON, DT, 6-1, 203, So., Waverly, Ia. Ellison could wind up in vital swingman role at defensive tackle. Is counted on for spot duty, but needs to develop if Green has another rash of injuries.

56—DENNIS STEFFENEY, DG, 5-11, 201, So., Waterloo, Ia. Steffaney may have little chance to start behind the likes of Rudd, Goddard and Bellock, but should log valuable playing time that will get him ready for 1970 and a possible starting role. Comes with good credentials from fabled Waterloo East dynasty.

57—DOUG SCHULER, DT, 6-2, So., Cedar Falls, Ia. Schuler showed well in spring game at new position. Should see limited action after prep career at NU High as offensive standout in line.
The Linebackers

54—JOHN WILLIAMS, MLB, 5-11, 218, Sr., Columbus Junction, Ia. Mr. Defense for the Panthers, Williams will be calling the signals for the third straight year. Was all-NCC last fall. Williams is an outstanding hitter, extremely intelligent both on and off the field and a prime example of the good team player. Has good range to left or right and plugs hole well. Possibly the top candidate on a star-studded defense for post-season honors. Letterman.

43—RICHARD BERGSTROM, LLB, 5-11, 200, Sr, Cedar Falls, Ia. It makes little difference where Bergstrom plays, he excels. A tight end on offense in 1967, he was the strong safety a year ago. Coaches feel he'll be at best as linebacker. A top hitter, Bergy should team well with Williams in protecting strong side. Another great team player.

86—DENNIS MEYER, RLB, 6-1, 226, Jr., Iowa Falls, Ia. Meyer has perfect size for a linebacker and adequate speed. Stepped right in as a sophomore to starting role and held it all the way. An aggressive hitter, Meyer ranks just behind Williams and Bergstrom in ability. Could blossom into all-conference status by senior season. Letterman.

89—MICHAEL FILER, RLB, 5-11, 180, Jr., Cedar Falls, Ia. Filer, despite lack of size, is as tough as they come and plays his position well. Added experience of part-time starting role in 1968 should make him doubly valuable. May be the best of a talented corps at pass defense where better speed pays off. Letterman.

83—REX PERISHO, LLB, 6-2, 205, Sr., Sigourney, Ia. Perisho, a part-time starter in 1968, is a question mark only because of an injury. If he's ready he'll add great value to what is already the team's top position. Defends well against the pass or run and is a reckless hitter. Letterman.
48—DARRELL STEEN, LB, 6-1, 195, Jr., Buffalo Center, Ia. Converted quarterback. Steen is slated for JV duty, seeing only limited action behind solid veteran corps at linebacker.

The Backs

40—JAMES VOKOUN, SS, 5-11½, 190, Sr., Traer, Ia. Vokoun may well be the key to the success of the defensive backfield. Played the right corner a year ago, he has been switched to strong safety. Coaches feel he's better here as a parttime linebacker, using his tackling ability. He'll be looked to for the leadership in the deep backfield. Letterman.

46—MARV MILLER, RCB, 6-0, 184, Jr., Exira, Ia. Miller, targeted for early stardom a year ago, produced well until an injury sidelined him for the year. Opened the year at free safety and has been moved to the corner. Has the best speed in the backfield and good football knowledge in going after the ball. He could meld unit into a good one with fine season.

41—BOB LIVINGSTON, FS, 6-1, 186, Sr., Shenandoah, Ia. Livingston was UNI's number one punter in 1968 and became its number one free safety. Added confidence increased his effectiveness late in the season and coaches' ratings list him as one of the top kickers in the NCC. Has stiff fight on his hands for starting role. Letterman.

42—CLARENCE RIVERS, FS, 5-6, 160, Jr., Detroit, Mich. The coaches claim he has as much sock per pound as anyone on the field. The question is his durability. He's the smallest man on the field and one of the fastest. Not afraid to hit and goes after the ball well. Could hustle himself into a starting spot.

45—JAMES LUHRING, LCB, 5-11, 178, Jr., Nashua, Ia. Coaches hope Luhring can solve the one nagging problem in defensive backfield, filling all-NCC Tom Pinkham's spot. He goes into season as number one candidate despite only spot appearances in 1968.
14—WALTER HENDRICKS, LCB, 5-10, 180, Jr., Winterset, Ia. Hendricks was the backup quarterback in 1968, but saw little action behind the record-setting Phil Schooley. Now being tried at corner back where he'll battle Luhring for starting role.

47—SCOTT EVANS, LCB, 5-11, 185, So., Knoxville, Ia. Evans must be considered in the picture for a corner back spot, probably as a swing man behind Miller and Luhring. Could surprise and earn starting spot.

44—BRUCE WHITCHER, DHB, 5-11, 175, Jr., West Union, Ia. Whitcher will likely see most of his duty on the JV roster in 1969. Played only briefly a year ago.

The Offense

The Ends

85—RANDY RUISCH, SE, 6-2, 192, Jr., Maurice, Ia. Ruisch, a good blocker, could also develop into the best pass receiver in years at UNI. He has good speed, good size and catches the ball extremely well in heavy traffic. Should be a definite all-NCC candidate before he finishes and could reach that plateau this fall. One of many outstanding students on team. Caught 23 passes for 241 yards in 1968. Letterman.

88—VINCE COX, TE, 6-3½, 195, So., Sioux City, Ia. Cox missed all of 1968 due to injury, but came on strong in spring drills. He has three years coming and could be an outstanding tight end with added weight. May be a surprise in receiving department on short patterns.

The Tackles

78—LARRY RATER, T, 6-3½, 225, Sr., Earlham, Ia. UNI's top defensive lineman, Rater teamed a year ago with Bob Hampton in what may have been the best pair of blocking tackles in history. A hard worker and steady blocker, Rater goes into 1969 with added weight and two solid years of experience. Should rate consideration for all-NCC honors this year. Letterman.

72—FRANK COONEY, T, 6-3, 235, So., Marengo, Ia. Cooney may be the top hope at right tackle as coaches search for replacement for Hampton, the biggest question mark in the line as preseason opens. Cooney has the size and better speed than Rater, but like others, he lacks experience.
53—JAMES KLINGER, T, 6-3½, 234, Sr., Fort Dodge, Ia. Klinger, the number two center last year, has been moved to tackle and could earn the starting nod if he can overcome injuries. Off-season surgery, it is hoped, solved that problem.

65—DICK KLAUDT, T, 6-0, 215, Sr., Waverly, Ia. Klaudt has been switched from guard to tackle where he could play role as swing man. Did PAT and field goal kicking in 1968, but will have to fight to retain that job this year over Gene Dietrich. Letterman.

The Guards

69—RICK HODAM, G, 6-0, 214, Sr., Des Moines, Ia. Hodam is the key to the guard position. The only veteran back, he may play either side. Missed spring drills with injury. Rated as one of the quickest guards in the NCC, Hodam should blossom into top lineman this fall. Letterman.

66—GARY HIRSCH, G, 5-11, 195, Sr., Dubuque, Ia. Hirsch is one of three strong candidates for the other starting role. He has some experience and it could pay off in the final rating. Must depend on quickness to overcome lack of size.

63—FRED BEAVER, G, 5-11, 210, So., Sac City, Ia. Beaver will battle Hirsch for starting spot. He was in the starting role in spring game and continued progress could keep him there. Has adequate size.

62—MICHAEL FISCH, G, 6-0, 210, Jr., Dubuque, Ia. An unknown quality at the outset, Fisch is being counted on nevertheless. A junior college transfer, he could lend a touch of experience where it is needed.

The Centers

51—GENE DIETRICH, C, 6-0, 230, So., Marengo, Ia. Dietrich will go into the season as the number one center and number one placement kicker. Has a great future at both spots. Gives Panthers good size at anchor spot. He lacks only the experience and should get that quickly replacing all-NCC Warren Woepking.

50—JON HANSON, C, 6-2, 208, Jr., Muscatine, Ia. Will see considerable duty this year as he battles Dietrich for starting spot. Must depend on quickness to overcome lack of weight.

The Quarterbacks

15—BILL RAUN, QB, 6-2, 182, Jr., Clinton, Ia. The most experienced of UNI's four untested quarterbacks. Raun is an Iowa State transfer who headed the spring game attack. Rated a better passer than runner, but blends
15 - Raun
12 - Weber

the two well. Should be rated the best chance to open the season as the starter.

12—GARY WEBER, QB, 5-10, 175, So., Sioux City, Ia. Another transfer, from Centerville JC, Weber rates as a better threat running the option but can throw with authority. Lack of size may force him into more rollout action passes. Will push Raun for starting role.

The Running Backs

32—DENNIS KETTNER, FB, 6-1½, 203, Sr., Waverly, Ia. UNI's leading ground gainer in 1968, Kettner gained 826 yards for 4.4 per carry average, led team in scoring with 50 points and eight TDs. Had top games against Northern Michigan (166 yards rushing) and Drake (152). Expected to have biggest battle for starting spot this year from Jones. Has good straight-away speed, needs improvement in open field. Letterman.

20—JAMES WAGNER, HB, 5-8, 175, Sr., Ottawa, Ill. Always a dependable runner and good blocker, Wagner is a solid veteran, but fighting to retain starting spot. Gained 515 yards a year ago with outstanding games against Drake (136 yards) and Western Illinois (131). Was number three pass receiver with 22 catches. Good speed and open field ability. Can not be counted out as starter. Letterman.

24—ROGER JONES, FB, 6-0, 190, Jr., Aurelia, Ia. Jones has been switched inside where coaches have wanted him. Has good size and speed and learned to block last year from slot position. Gained 256 yards in 1968, caught 21 passes. Should battle Kettner for starting role despite missing spring drills while lettering in baseball. Dad was UNI's first Little All-America in 1937. Letterman.

31—MICHAEL REED, HB, 6-0, 196, Sr., Kansas City, Kan. Reed started spring game at left half and will battle Wagner again. Has good open field speed and good size but must overcome tendency to fumble. Like Jones, Reed spent most of 1968 at slot back spot where size paid off in blocking.

36—LARRY MOSES, FB, 6-2, 183, So., Waterloo, Ia. Moses was not counted on at all as spring drills opened but he came up with impressive performances to push himself into contention with Kettner and Jones. Gives spot good depth.

25—KEN BRIMHALL, HB, 5-10½, 180, So., Wayland, Ia. A converted quarterback, Brimhall will need time to adjust. Could see spot service this fall.

34—KARL KRUMM, HB, 5-9, 184, So., Tripoli, Ia. Krumm is much like Wagner. Lacks ideal size, but has adequate speed and is a knowledgable runner who always seems ready on game day. Tough to bring down for little man. Could see spot duty.

26—DENNIS FREDERICK, HB, 5-11, 191, Fr., Iowa City, Ia. Frederick could be the surprise package Sheriff is looking for. Rated as a tough competitor and outstanding runner, he could well shove all others into bench roles. Should be top contender for starting role despite missing spring drills.

The Flankers

22—LARRY SKARTVEDT, FL, 5-10, 187, So., Radcliffe, Ia. Skartvedt started first game in 1968 but came down with mononucleosis. Was granted additional year by conference. A good blocker who loves contact, Skartvedt may be the best suited in years for flanker spot for UNI. Has great open field moves and can catch the ball. Could be the top deep pass threat needed to keep defenses honest. Could have outstanding year.

23—WAYNE SMITH, FL, 5-11, 178, Jr., Belmond, Ia. Smith should see considerable duty this fall as he continues to improve. Started, like Skartvedt, as running back, but has good tools for flanker position and can push Skartvedt for starting spot.

The Newcomers

55—KEN ROSENKRANS, C-LB, 6-1, 210, Fr., Waterloo, Ia. A first team Iowa all-stater a year ago for Waterloo East’s state champions, Rosenkrans could well be the first freshman to earn considerable playing time. Can be used in two spots, as offensive center and as linebacker. An outstanding prospect and one of most versatile newcomers in years.

28—JERRY ROLING, HB, 6-0, 190, Fr., Eldora, Ia. Another all-stater, Roling comes in with the highest running credentials since Randy Schultz. Does not have great speed, but is rated outstanding in open field and in dedication to the game. He is top freshman candidate in backfield, and like Rosenkrans, slated for early stardom with normal progress.

76—NELSON WHITE, DT, 6-4, 215, Fr., Waterloo, Ia. Waterloo Columbus’ outstanding all-state lineman could see considerable action by mid-season, possible as swing man behind Green and Walter. Has top credentials, he moves into position that needs added depth.

79—MICHAEL KOCK, DT, 6-6, 240, Fr., Churdan, Ia. Like White, Kock has outstanding chance to play early. He’s biggest man on squad and one that coaches look to for future. Should see reserve duty this fall.

13—DAVID HODAM, QB, 6-1, 185, Fr., Des Moines, Ia. An all-stater from Hoover High in Des Moines, Hodam comes in with dual credentials, both as quarterback and top-flight runner. Will work at both positions and is considered quarterback of future. Brother of guard Rick, he is another yearling slated for considerable first year duty.

74—THOMAS JORDAN, T, 6-3, 220, Fr., Centerville, Ia. Jordan moves in where help is needed and may see considerable duty as coaches search for second offensive tackle. Was all-stater. Has good size and rated average in speed.

73—DANIEL GILBERT, T, 6-3, 225, Fr., Audubon, Ia. Must be rated right with Jordan as top yearling prospect at position lacking in depth. Should see first year duty. The early developer of two could eventually start.

61—FRANK CORDARO, G, 5-11, 196, Fr., Des Moines, Ia. May be the best freshman guard prospect in camp. Comes with good credentials from Dowling High in Des Moines. Should see considerable duty this fall. Earned all-state ratings.

52—SCOTT PURYEAR, G, 6-1, 215, Fr., Cedar Rapids, Ia. Puryear has good size for guard spot and ranks with Cordaro as top prospect for tomorrow. Could also see considerable duty this fall.

16—STEVEN EGGER, QB, 6-1, 189, Fr., Cedar Rapids, Ia. Played at Regis in Cedar Rapids. Egger will start as number four quarterback but could move up on strength of passing arm.

27—DENNIS CARTER, HB, 6-2, 190, Fr., Mason City, Ia. Carter should rate on level with Anderson at outset. Either could get trial on defense, but come in with good running back credentials.

29—STEVEN MILDERS, FL, 5-10, 180, Fr., Iowa City, Ia. From Regina High in Iowa City. Milder may step right in as number three flanker back where speed can be used on pass patterns. Could see some reserve duty this year.

58—JERRY HULSIZER, DG, 5-10, 185, Fr., Marshalltown, Ia. Hulsizer may have to be content with junior varsity duty with Panthers’ great depth and talent at this spot. Will have chance to learn from best.

70—LYLE KARSTEN, DT, 6-5, 220, Fr., Manning, Ia. Karsten’s size, nearly ideal for defense, gives him opportunity for long look this fall. Can polish skills on JV schedule.

81—ROGER BOECK, SE, 6-2, 195, Fr., Harlan, Ia. Boeck may be top yearling end prospect. Has good size and steps into spot that needs depth. Could see early action.

82—EDWARD BRILES, TE, 6-2, 205, Fr., Corning, Ia. Briles, like Boeck, may see action as spot player. Has the size to play either split or tight end.

Nothing Fancy for NMU
But Tougher Than Nails

Northern Michigan coach Rollie Dotsch promises nothing fancy with his offense this year.
He also promises they will do well what they set out to do.
The Wildcats' problems look like a borrowed copy of UNI's pre-season figures.
They lost five starters on offense in the line, have strength back in the running game and are depending a lot on a solid defense to keep them in the game.
Dotsch's backfield starts with Little all-America halfback Lonnie Holton and quarterback Rich McCarthy. Holton is a brusing type. Not too fancy, not too fast, but great in all he does.
Depth, a problem in 1968, is back as a headache for Dotsch. It spoiled a 5-1 start for them a year ago, just as it did for UNI.
The defense is the thing. Headed by linebacker Mike Skrocki and end Jim Kemp, the Wildcat defense shut-out three foes a year ago. They'll be counted on to get the good field position for the offense as it matures through the season. And, a shorter injury list would help too.

Chippewas Stumbled Over Common Foes

Central Michigan, the new face on the UNI football schedule this year, stumbled only twice in 1968 and both times against a team UNI faced.

The Chippewas, coached by Roy Kramer, forged an impressive 7-2 record in 1968, losing to Northern Michigan 28-24 and in a stunning upset at the hands of Western Illinois 30-28. That last defeat cost them a clear cut title in the IIAC.

Kramer, who says he's worried about depth and lack of size in the offensive line, has 28 returning lettermen and a big jump in a qualified passing game. Back is starting QB Bob Miles and his two top receivers in end Ed Jonaitis and swingback Dave Lemere. The top running back is Bob Zilinski.

The defense is headed by a trio of linebackers in Jim Feil, Ron James and Jim Gallery and a top-flight safety man in Bob Markey.

Kramer has some other pluses. This is a veteran team spiced with 24 seniors and the 78-man squad includes only three out-of-staters, two from Ohio and one from Waterloo, Iowa, Steve Holdiman, a sophomore linebacker.

Central leads the series that started in 1953, two games to none.
Vikings Have New Look;
Starenko Era Begins

Ralph Starenko is the new head coach of the Augustana Vikings and that means a new look.
Starenko starts out with 23 letter­men and plenty of problems.
The first order of business is the defense that was bombarded a year ago, to the tune of 28.6 points a game. There are eight offensive starters back but some of them may end up on the other side of the line as Starenko tries to shore up the dike.

Tackle Jon Gapa, end David Larson and back Mike Daly are the key defensive returnees and they'll need help.

Starenko's offense, whatever changes he may make, will still revolve around a talented trio of quarterback Lee Brandt, end Jim Egge and running back Roger Olson. All three can do the job, given some support by the veterans.
If the Vikings are to pick themselves up off the conference floor (0-6 in 1968) the defense must improve, Brandt and Egge need spectacular years and Starenko must solve a yearly problem, lack of depth. Five home games may help.

Ginn, Gonnerman Gone; Kragthorpe Era Begins

A couple of bosses have departed the South Dakota State football scene and a new era begins.

Gone are long-time head coach Ralph Ginn, replaced by his assistant Dave Kragthorpe, and do-everything fullback Darwin Gonnerman. Most will miss Ginn, few will miss the talented Gonnerman.

Kragthorpe must come up with a new backfield in his first year plus part of the line.

The Jacks do have something going for them. Its defense where 10 starters return including 240-pound linebacker Jim Langer, and 240-pound defensive tackle Tim Roth along with end Clyde Hagen, a 235-pounder.

The Jacks are long on defensive muscle but may be short on speed. They'll expect more than they got in 1968, yielding an average of 27 points a game.

Help must come from the sophomores and freshmen for Ginn finished with a tiny squad. Rolland Vander-Heiden may be the running back but the search is on for a quarterback.

'Dogs Flush with Veterans; Headed by Real McCoy

Drake coach Jack Wallace has a slight problem. He's got returning lettermen stumbling over each other to get into the act.

The Bulldogs return 28 and 13 of them were starters a year ago when they had little trouble scoring points and much trouble keeping the opponents from the same trick. The UNI-Drake test was the lowest scoring tilt of the year for the Dogs ... a 40-point affair that UNI won 21-19.

Gary McCoy, ranked tenth nationally in 1968, returns to head a potent offense at quarterback. He owns most of the records now and has fullback Bert Perlow and converted receiver Duane Miller as his prime weapons.

Wallace's major losses may be on defense where two key switches have deepened the wound. Miller moves to flanker and 240-pound Dave Simpson from defensive end to offensive tackle.

But McCoy is the offensive key. Another brilliant year by him will keep the Dogs in contention in every game.

Blue Chippers Gone; Chiefs Look to Junck

Two key blue chip performers are gone and Morningside coach Dewey Halford will have to miss them, but he may have half the problem already solved.

Gone are all-NCC performers Don Zeleznak and Gary Pettit. That’s the deadly duo that did UNI in in 1968 with Zeleznak hitting Pettit with the key TD pass.

There is no second Pettit in sight but Halford has a prime quarterback in sophomore Mike Junck. He gets a veteran line to operate behind but has only one veteran back behind him in John Anderson.

That line, however, is well rehearsed in protecting the passer and Junck, a double threat as a runner, should cause trouble.

The defense is a carbon copy, vets back in the line with help needed in the backfield.

Depth, a yearly problem, is with Halford and his staff again. Key injuries could stifle the attack.

Coyotes Hungry After
Near Miss in 1968

There is nothing more feared than a hungry animal and South Dakota's Coyotes are in that kind of a mood.

Figure 1968: USD earned the number eighth ranked spot in the national polls, won nine of ten games and set a ton of offensive records. No bowl bid, no title. North Dakota State got in the way.

Coach Joe Salem comes back with his offense nearly intact headed by Little all-America tackle John Kohler, quarterback Jim Foster, tight end Ron Gehhardt, halfback Bob Koch and fullback Steve Pelot.

The future is brighter than the school colors. The problem may be with the defense where USD allowed a ton of points but won anyway. Major losses to graduation came here and here Salem must plug the biggest holes.

And, the key games for USD may be the three NCC road games — at NDSU, SDSU and UNI. The difference is that hungry attitude. They smelled the gravy... now they want to taste it.

Bison are Number One
And Loaded for Bear

This is getting ridiculous. North Dakota State has won or shared the NCC football title for five straight years and they'll be the odds on favorite again.

Coach Ron Erhardt has 31 (count 'em) vets back in camp, including his starting offensive backfield. And, that spells trouble.

If there is a dent in the Bison armor it must be on defense. That's where the heavy losses occurred. Linebacker Stu Helgason, backs Steve Krumrei and Rick Cover are the lone returnees. Gone are such big names as two-time Little All-America Jim Ferge, tackle Bruce Nelson and safety Del Gehrett.

Now, offense is another story. Erhardt has all the stallions back, topped by runners Paul Hatchett (another all-America in '68) and Tim Mjos, super-blocker Joe Roller and QB Bruce Grasamke, possibly the NCC's most-under-rated signal-caller. The line has five starters back and depth to throw away.

Cut it anyway you want and its trouble. The Bison are loaded. The Bison have depth, speed, talent and the rating. Break up the Bison.

Air-Minded Sioux

Need Help on Ground

Maybe one of coach Jerry Olson's three talented passing quarterbacks can run, too.

The Sioux make few bones about either department. They are flush with passers in veteran Dick Kampa, redshirt Mike Conner and flashy newcomer Dan Martinsen.

They are looking for the runner to balance the attack and feel the prize package may have arrived in sophomore Terry Skogmo, a talented 200-pounder.

Whoever does the throwing will have plenty of targets and a solid line for protection.

The defense lost some great talent along the forward wall. Three all-NCC performers are gone. Pete Gilbert heads the defensive backs (he's another all-NCC) and QB Martinsen may end up as his sidekick.

The name of the Sioux game will still be passing and such receivers as Pat Kenney, Jim Wiedmann and John Sandager will be gunning at the records set by the departed super threat Bill Predovich.

An undefeated freshman team of 1968 is expected to yield the needed depth to make UND a contender.

Western Illinois University

A Reputation Comes To Western Illinois

Darrell Mudra, the much-moved football coach, has arrived at Western Illinois and, if the pattern holds, the Leathernecks can start planning on a successful future.

Mudra has been a winner and a man who likes to pick things up off the floor. The Leathernecks have been in the foxhole too long.

Two things can be expected from the start: plenty of new faces and a team that comes ready to play.

Mudra, who has had tenures at North Dakota State, Arizona and a year's shot at Canadian professional football at Montreal, will have a well-rehearsed team, win or lose.

He'll also have a bundle of new faces. His pre-season chart shows a sophomore-studded backfield. Western has 23 lettermen back but that may mean little when Mudra starts culling through the squad. He has a six-man coaching staff to do the job.

The key to early Western success under Mudra may be his ability to come up with class junior college players that can help now.
