War Highlights

WESTERN FRONT

British tanks gained three miles through eastern Holland in a drive pointed at Germany's Ruhr. Enemy remnants in Aachen were freshly supplied by air and by trucks that made suicide dashes through the American siege lines. Street fighting in the city was more violent than ever. Everywhere Allied progress was slow as Germans appeared to have completed deployment along a winter line.

Both sides were moving up great masses of men and supplies.

Continuing a four-day Allied offensive against Cologne, more than 2100 American planes dropped 2600 tons of bombs on the city rail yards and industries.

ITALIAN FRONT

Heavy fighting marked the entire front in Italy, particularly south of Bologna. American troops captured 88-mm. guns on the city's defenses in a renewed thrust from the captured city of Livorno.

RUSSIAN FRONT

The Germans reported the opening of a Russian offensive for East Prussia, stating that the Red Army had reached the German border near Naumiestis, 42 miles east of Kaunas, capital of Lithuania.

PACIFIC FRONT

A Japanese naval force, sighting Adm. William F. Halsey's U.S. 3d Fleet, declined participation in a major engagement and scurried toward its base. Two American ships were damaged in prolonged Japanese aerial attacks. Superfortresses have destroyed the more important Japanese air installations on Formosa: B-29's raided Formosa for the third time in four days. U.S. 14th Air Force planes, under Maj. Claire L. Chenault, sank 32,000 tons of shipping at Hongkong, including the sinking of one cruiser, the hitting of one destroyer and raids on Japanese docks and shipping.

Tokyo reported that American forces had landed in the Philippines.

Lt. Comdr. Amoss Reviews Benefits From WR Service

On Monday, 16 October 1944, the twenty-fourth class of potential yeomen were graduated from the Cedar Falls Naval Training School.

Lieut. W. N. McCown read a message from Comdr. E. E. Pettee expressing his regrets in not being able to be there to wish the graduates smooth sailing. Lieutenant McCown also introduced the speaker, Lt. Comdr. W. J. Amoss, D-V(S), USNR, Officer in Charge of Naval Officer Procurement in Des Moines, Iowa and Kansas City, Missouri.

Lt. Comdr. Amoss spoke on the problems of procurement and reviewed the original aims of the Women's Reserve. He reminded the graduates of the tremendous possibilities the Navy offers, and urged them to do their jobs thoroughly and well so that they would be able to take advantage of the opportunities and security provided. Among the benefits to be had when service has been honorably concluded, he mentioned:

1. Refresher training courses regardless of age.
2. All members who were under twenty-five when enlisted, who have served at least ninety days and were honorably discharged are entitled to additional educational opportunities equal to length of service. Any course selected must be taken at a school recognized in that particular field. All fees, tuition and a living allowance will be paid.
3. Protection against unemployment either total or partial. This varies from 24 weeks up to a year. Assurance of an income, if you have to have it, up to $100 a month.
4. Privileges regarding loans for the establishment of business or the paying off of accumulated bad debts.
5. Mustering out pay which varies depending on the length and place of service.
6. Hospitalization for balance of life if needed.
7. Provides that every member is entitled to a place to be buried in, a flag to be buried under, $100 to be buried with, and a headstone

Two More of Staff Receive Transfer Orders

Lt. (jg) Charlotte Yust and Lt. (jg) Sylvia Autio received orders last week for transfer to new duty.

Lt. (jg) Charlotte Yust, who was a member of the instruction staff, records and forms and correspondence department, and had charge of the recreational movies on this station was detached Tuesday and will report to the Naval Hospital, Mare Island, California for new duty. She will be the WR representative there. Miss Yust reported for duty at Cedar Falls in April, 1943.

Lt. (jg) Sylvia Autio is the educational services officer at this station and lectures on current events, Navy regulations, customs and traditions. Miss Autio is to continue her educational services work in Washington, D. C.

Outgoing Units Rate 4.0 In Military Conduct

The six sections comprising the last outgoing unit have set a fine example for all future IOWAVES. The military conduct of these sections rated a 4.0 since no member had had a captain's mast during the two or three months of the course.

to put on top.

Lt. Comdr. Amoss warned graduates not to expect glamour in overseas assignments and advised that serious consideration be given the matter before making application for this duty.

Lieut. Elizabeth Hall, officer-in-charge of seamen, presented the certificates to the platoon leaders and commended the following seamen for their fine record of achievement here:

Shorthand—Mary Kindred, Section 14.

Typing—Norina McAfee, Section 33.

Most progress in both shorthand and typing—Dorothy M. Kelly, of Section 34.

The Highest Average—Ruby B. Young, Section 14. Young completed the course with an average of 99.19.

Six WR Officers Leave for Survey of Hawaiian Conditions

Six Women's Reserve officers of the Navy, Marine Corps and the Coast Guard will depart soon for temporary duty in Hawaii.

The first Women's Reserve personnel to be assigned to duty outside the continental limits of the United States, these officers will undertake surveys of housing conditions and billets in the Hawaiian Islands prior to the assignment of Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard women to permanent duty in that area. They will return to the United States in about one month to report their findings to their respective branches of the Naval Service.

The Navy Survey will be made by Lt. Comdr. Jean T. Palmer USNR, Special Assistant to the Director of Enlisted Personnel, Bureau of Naval Personnel, and Lt. Comdr. Joy Bright Hancock, USNR, Women's Reserve Representative for the Bureau of Aeronautics and for the Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (Air).

The Marine Survey will be made by Colonel Ruth Cheney Streeter, USMCR, Director of the Marine Corps Women's Reserve, and Major Marian Boyd Dryden, USMCR, Assistant to the Director of the Aviation Division, Marine Corps.

The two Coast Guard officers will be Captain Dorothy C. Stratton, USCGR, Director of the Coast Guard Women's Reserve, and Lt. Comdr. Ineva Reilly Meyer, USCGR, Assistant Chief of the Enlisted Assignments Division, U. S. Coast Guard.

Four Visitors Aboard Station This Week

Comdr. Charles Morgan, Lieut. Edith M. Buyers and Ens. Jessie Birse, from the Naval Training School, Hunter College, were station visitors on Wednesday, 18 October. Lieutenant Buyers accompanied the draft from Hunter as the medical officer, and Ensign Birse was the officer in charge.

Lt. Comdr. James A. Henderson, district voting officer from Great Lakes Naval Training Station was a station visitor on Friday, 20 October.

EDITORIAL

Are You Too Easily Satisfied?

Did you hear the latest scuttlebutt? Did you know that if you carry "Bart (n) Hall" successfully through his naval career, and get all the endorsements on those "official navy letters" down in 4.0 fashion (not to mention becoming a whiz of a stenographer), you will set sail from Cedar Falls with no less than three white stripes on your "navy blues." Yes, for once this scuttlebutt is true. However, let's not sit back and "rest on our laurels," if we have already reached the "passing average" in any or all of our subjects.

Just remember that many a hardworking trainee, who has worked as hard if not harder than some of us has gone out of these portals as S2c and shed never a tear over it, but accepted it in true Navy fashion. Moreover, the better average we maintain while in training, the farther along the road to a higher rating we will travel. Besides, to be perfectly frank, no one is satisfied with 2.5 as a final average. Maybe we can't all be 4.0's, but we can at least aim that high. (Who knows, we might surprise ourselves one day and get there!)

Finally, if you find yourself slipping into a lackadaisical attitude, remind yourself that our boys are getting a "4.0" in all their "tests" overseas, and are willing to go even higher. So from now on let's make 4.0 our "passing average."

SONG OF THE WAVES

Sing free, ye mates, as the wind is free When the storms lash over the writhing sea; As the sea soars high in the fury of the lee— Sing free, ye mates, sing free. Sing as you march to the jolly step; Sing as they sang who stormed Di- eppes;	Sing the brave songs their hearts have kept Since they sang free, sang free. Sing strong, ye skirted sea-marauders; Sing strong, for ye are the nation's daughters; To its sea-seasons: the "ladies of the waters". Lift up your hearts—Sing Free! Martha Louise Bruce

BARTLETT BINNACLE

Any trainee wishing to join the "Van Johnson fan club" contact Marjorie "Hillbilly" Bowden in Room 278B: mailcall on Monday last brought forth a personally autographed picture of "glamour boy Johnson", and, girls, guess who the letter was from: Bart (n) Hall!

The honors go to 42 this week, for having week-end liberties: Barkhurst, Lotz, Brown and Fletcher all were conspicuous by their absence. By the way, Fletch, who is the big attraction that lures you to Waterloo every week?

We think the Purple Heart should certainly go to Ens. Dorothy Smith, for her "wounds" received at the Seaman Show last week. (Cheer up, Miss Smith, you have lots of "Georgia Gals" to back you up!)

"Unshipshape" seems to be a well-known adjective in fourth company these days: maybe they had all better get glasses to make sure they get all the dust! (Eh, Miss Ashton?)

Bet Sweet of 41 won't do any more star-gazing on her way to class, from now on: have a nice "trip," Nadine?

Have you noticed the droopy ones we have with us this week? 'Twas all brought about by the departures on Tuesday of some of the very best friends that a gal ever had. We do miss them, don't we?

If anyone is a little leary of the length of her hair, visit Jeanne, the beautician of 41, the night before hair inspection—there'll be no danger of being told to trim your tresses. Cox, the suffering roommate, will testify that after Coulson "worked" on her, it was THREE DAYS before she could comb her locks with comfort.

The latest in the series of tall tales concerning the Seabees is the one about the Red Cross worker on a remote Pacific Island who called the Army command and reported a disease peculiar to the tropics.

"We've got a case of beri-beri here. What shall we do with it?" Came the answer over the wire: "Give it to the Seabees; they'll drink anything."

—The Bulldozer.

This fire extinguisher, madam, will last for forty years," said the salesman to an elderly woman.

"But I won't be here that long," said the woman.

"But," insisted the salesman, "when you go you can take it with you."

—Towlines.

Another Texan: "All western Texas needs to become the garden spot of the world is good people and water."

Easterner: "Huh! That's all that's needed in Hades."

—Towlines

Engfer Receives Letter of Commendation

Ruth Engfer of Section 34 has received a letter of commendation for her aid in recruiting one member for the Women's Reserve.

WAVES Enthusiastic Over Invasion of Commons Ballroom

The Pajama Party held Tuesday night in the Commons was most successful!

Just ask anyone who was there—and everyone was there—about the beautiful ball-room and reading room, the dancing, music, lights, and best of all—the show. Little did we know of the treat the coeds had in store for us in the way of a show. We never, in our wildest dreams thought we would go to Hawaii, but we did. Yes indeed. The Hula-Hula dance by one of the coeds really convinced us of that. Not to be forgotten either, was the pianist who really "gave-out" with some boogie-woogie, and the trio who sang so sweetly, "A Sleepy Lagoon." Ah yes, and in addition to all this, there was the fun of seeing all our shipmates in their pajamas. That was a sight that will never be forgotten. Now we know how some of those gorgeous "hair-dos" are achieved.

Many thanks to the co-eds who so generously invited us and gave us a chance to meet them personally. They are every bit as nice as we expected and really "4.0" in our estimation.

Chevrons of Ship's Company

Jack Pollock, PhM1c

"Jack of all trades," is a title which fits Jacob (Jack) S. Pollock, PhM1c, whose pleasing personality adds much to Sick Bay. Besides his regular duties, he finds time to indulge in quite a number of sports including tennis, handball, swimming, and ice skating. As a sideline hobby he repairs radios (take heed all seamen with ailing radios). He also heartily welcomes a challenger to a game of chess or checkers.

With New York City as his home town, he attended Union University and received his pharmacist training at Albany College, New York City.

Enlisting in the Navy in July of 1943, Pollock came from an Army family but chose the Navy as he liked swimming and he "just liked the Navy and wanted to be in it." Sampson, New York was the scene of his boot training and also his hospital training. After three months there he was transferred to the Naval Hospital at Great Lakes, Illinois, and also served at the McIntyre Dispensary there. He reported to Cedar Falls Naval Training School in April of 1944, receiving his promotion to Pharmacist's Mate First Class in September.

Pollock says that being stationed at the school brings back fond memories of college days and he is quite fond of Cedar Falls. And, that extra special glowing look on his face these days can be accounted for by the fact that "Missus" Pollock is expected to arrive in Cedar Falls in the near future.

Ship's Company Enjoy Luxuries of Dining Room

Certainly one has noticed satisfied and happy expressions on the faces of SHIP'S COMPANY as they leave their brand-new dining room in the mess hall. They do enjoy the new arrangement which offers more privacy and an atmosphere of a private dining room.

On 9 October the work was started to make a separate dining room and the following Sunday the first meal was served. All the meals except breakfast and Sunday night supper are served by two pretty waitresses. A steam table has been installed to facilitate the serving. Attractive table covers are laid at each place. The dining room will accommodate thirty-two people.

Members of SHIP'S COMPANY when asked if they liked it replied with a hearty, "Yes, indeed!"

Lieut. Rex B. Foster Will Speak At Friendly Hour

The Friendly Hour will open this Sunday with a song-session, at which time the new trainees from Hunter are invited to present the latest WAVE songs to the group. The speaker of the evening will be the Dental Officer, Lieut. Rex B. Foster, who will recount some of his experiences in the course of duty aboard the Hospital Ship, U.S.S. SOLACE, in the Southwest Pacific.

The regular Sunday afternoon Music Hour under the supervision of Chaplain Herbert S. Brown will be held in the East Lounge at 1600. On Tuesday evening from 1630 to 1730 Professor Carl A. Wirth of the Music Department of the College will conduct the Music Hour using records from the college collection. All are invited to attend.

Banks and Trust Companies Authorized to Cash Bonds...

Redemption of Series E War bonds was simplified 2 October—when the Treasury Department authorized qualified banks to cash the bonds upon presentation by owners or co-owners.

The procedure was set up because of the huge increase in the number of War bond holders—now estimated to total about 60 per cent of the country's population.

The arrangement applies also to the Series A, B, C and D Savings bonds which were sold from 1935 to 1941. It does not apply to F and G bonds.

All incorporated banks and trust companies are permitted, under the new rules announced today, to qualify as bond paying agencies, and it is believed a large majority of them will do so.

Proper identification, satisfactory to the bank, is all that any qualified bank will require of a person desiring to redeem an eligible bond. The new system will not affect in any way, however, the stipulation that Savings bonds are not transferable.

Treasury officials said the new procedure might have a deterring effect on redemptions, since a considerable number of bond owners in the past have cashed bonds well in advance of their financial needs—which actually never materialized, or have cashed bonds in larger amounts than, as later events proved, they actually needed.

Lt. (jg) Bess Campbell, personnel officer of this station was put in charge of the draft which left for Oakland, California Tuesday morning.

Chaplain Brown Comes to NTS From Trinidad

A newcomer to the school is Lieut. Herbert Stanley Brown, the new chaplain, who is reporting here from overseas duty.

Born in Denham, Massachusetts, Lieutenant Brown now calls Boston his hometown. He received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Boston University and spent the next three years studying at the General Theological Seminary for the Episcopalian ministry in New York City. The next two years, until the fall of 1939, Lieutenant Brown was with St. John's Church in Buffalo, New York. After St. John's Church came Trinity Parish in New York City where he stayed until entering the service three years later in December of 1942.

Lieutenant Brown attended the Chaplain's School in Norfolk, Virginia and from there was assigned to duty in Trinidad in the West Indies.

In Trinidad, Lieutenant Brown was attached to the Naval Operating Base which at the time was still in the construction period. While there he had a share in the commissioning of a hospital.

Upon returning to the states he was awarded leave for the month of September. After seventeen months' of duty in the West Indies Lieutenant Brown states that the Naval Training School is a wonderful assignment which coincides with the fact that it is wonderful to be back home in the states.

Bos'n's Pipe

Ens. V. M. Dunbar was the officer in charge of the draft which left for Chicago on Tuesday.

Loretta Culbertson, Y1c, is on leave for 15 days in Watsonville, California.

Flora Lemay, Y1c, returned to duty Wednesday after spending an annual leave in Lowell, Massachusetts.

Lillian Clark, Sk2c will spend eleven days at her home in Moose Lake, Minnesota.

Veronica Golewski, Y1c, will be leaving Friday for 10-days leave in Minneapolis.

Margaret Baumann, HA2c, has just received her promotion to HA1c.

Lt. (jg) Edward Morrison left Thursday to spend a ten day leave in Morris, Minnesota.

Meet The Staff

Ens. Katherine Holem

An officer who knows the trials and tribulations of coming up through the ranks is Ens. Katherine Holem, instructor of shorthand and typing.

A native of South Bend, Indiana, Miss Holem intends to make Cedar Falls her home after the "duration and six months." Before joining the WAVES she was an accountant for a business concern in Indianapolis, receiving her degree in Physical Education and English at Hanover College in Hanover, Indiana.

Miss Holem, who has a brother serving with the Armed Forces in France, entered the Women's Reserve as a Yeoman and received her training in Stillwater, Oklahoma. Upon graduation, she was assigned to Cedar Falls for six months and from here went to Los Alamitos, California and then reported to Ottumwa, Iowa. In November of 1943 Miss Holem entered Northampton Midshipmen's School and was commissioned an ensign in January of 1944. Reporting first to Bethesda, Maryland as Barracks Officer, she came to Cedar Falls in May of 1944.

In the line of sports Miss Holem claims bowling, volleyball, badminton and bicycling her favorites. If you take a peek in at her home in Cedar Falls you will find a badminton court set up as well as a bicycle. Reading and music, including the piano and pipe organ, are her favorite hobbies.

Last, but not least, besides her duties as instructor, Miss Holem is Section "Mama" to Section 42.

NAVY CHUCKLES

Chief: "Where've you been for the past four hours?"

Recruit: "Filling those salt shakers like you told me to."

Chief: "All this time?"

Recruit: "Well, Sir, it ain't no easy job pouring salt through those little holes."

—The Chaser

Riding back to his camp after a leave in London, a colored member of the A.E.F. got into a poker game with some British soldiers.

They all drew, then: I'll bet one pound," said a Briton.

The colored boy studied his four aces. "I don't know how you all counts your money," he said, "but I'll bet one ton."

—The Chaser

Lieut. Rex B. Foster Spent 18 Months On USS SOLACE

If you have an aching tooth the person you should see is Lieut. Rex Foster the new dentist. While you are having your tooth filled or pulled as the case may be, you can take your mind off your troubles by thinking of the many places where Lieut. Foster has traveled.

Lieut. Foster first reported for duty at Great Lakes, Illinois on 11 December 1942 and he served at this station until he reported aboard the hospital ship U.S.S. SOLACE on 20 February 1943. He served on the SOLACE for eighteen months or until he came to Cedar Falls. In that year and a half the SOLACE was in the midst of many famous battles, Tarawa, Saipan, Guam, the Marshalls and Admiralty Islands. The SOLACE also made port at New Zealand, Australia, New Guinea and Guadalcanal.

It must be very peaceful and quiet to Lieut. Foster at the Naval Training School, Cedar Falls after being in a war zone for so long but it also seems like home to him because before entering the Navy he had his office in Waterloo. Lieut. Foster's home is half way between Cedar Falls and Waterloo. His favorite sport is hunting and he says he has a number of hunting dogs on his farm.

Softball Season Has Sensational Windup

The softball season was brought to a startling close this week as Section 43 triumphed over Section 41 by the score of 3-1.

Section 43 held the lead from their scoring of two runs at the beginning of the third inning and gathered another run at the beginning of the sixth to clinch the victory.

Brilliant playing was again shown by Seaman Rosenbaum, who, according to all reports was really a "one-man" team. Seaman Kimber also did a good job of pitching, and in the last inning fanned out three in a row.

Seaman Hash of Section 41, who most certainly would have liked to have been in there playing the game had to content herself with coaching from the side lines, as she had a bruised finger. Section 41 was ably supported by Seaman "Stretch" Jamison and Seaman "Mickey" Kranzler. Kranzler pitched a very good game, but still hasn't decided whether to play the game on her feet or on her knees.

Both teams were evenly match-

Officers Win Tuesday Night's Bowling Match

Navy officers took two of three close games from Frank's Grocery in the Cedar Falls Women's League Tuesday night. Individual single game honors went to Lt. (jg) Sylvia Autio with a score of 139. High three-game average score was made by Lt. (jg) Helen E. Fechter.

Ship's Company bowled against the team from College Hillside and won one game and lost two. Mary Sydness, Y3c, made the high three game average with 132 pins per game and Rhoda Swanson, Sk2c, had a 149 for high single game score.

Next week the officers bowl against Pfeiffers, now top team in the league and Ship's Company takes on Apparel Art.

A Chaplain reported to his commanding officer: "I think we have the morale of the men too high, sir. They want to know if it's true that they might have to go back to civilian life some day."

—The Chaser

ATTENTION ALL ACROBATS..

Can any one beat the following record? ? ? ? 150 set ups each night? Our acrobatic-minded wonder child, Dottie Hendrickson of 42 does this number every night. If you think you can beat this record you are invited to demonstrate your ability any time between 2130 and 2200 in the corridor outside of Room 264B.

ed and the game was even moving when 43 scored in the third inning, the game was theirs.

Although the softball season is over, seamen can now look forward to soccer, hockey, and what should prove most interesting of all, a swimming meet, details of which will be announced later.
