Presenting 1967-1968
at Northern University High School
To all NUHS students:

The 1967-68 school year, as is usually the case, saw many changes on the school scene—the change most obvious to outside observers, of course, being the name change from State College High to Northern University High. Granted, change can be indicative of progress, but I sincerely hope that the true substance of the students and staff of this institution, regardless of its name, never really changes—that is the zeal with which we as a group strive for excellence in matters curricular and co-curricular.

I have truly enjoyed being a part of this process of change during my brief association with NUHS as interim principal. Now I would like to enlist the cooperation of underclassmen and staff alike in ensuring the continued progress of NUHS and wishing its first graduating class the very best of luck as they go their chosen ways in the pursuit of educational and vocational goals.

Sincerely,

Jerry Duea

To the students of NUHS:

As we reflect on the school year past we can each bask in the pleasure of our friendships, moments of success, and individual or group accomplishments. But let us not linger on the past lest we become self-satisfied with our achievements. Look ahead! Note the challenges facing us as individuals and as members of the human family. Then strive to prepare yourself to contribute in the best way you can to make our world a better, happier one for all mankind.

Congratulations to the graduating seniors. We all appreciate the fine example of leadership which they provided throughout the school year.

Best wishes,

Ross A. Nielsen, Director
Price Laboratory School
To every individual high school memories must be unique, yet we have attempted to capture many aspects of school life; those that have changed the students of N.U.H.S. from isolated individuals to an integral group, working together to achieve excellence in all fields.

At the close of the 1968 school year one could rightly ask if all duties have been met, responsibilities accepted and goals attained and each person can only answer for himself. In some aspects the year has been disappointing, in others most rewarding but here we can only present the responsibilities that have been accepted, the goals that have been attained and the many and varied people who have been responsible for these successes. It is our hope that the shortcomings of 1968 may be used as guidelines for improvement while the many successes serve as inspiration to the future students of N.U.H.S.

Homecoming week began--
School was forgotten--
Breakfast of Champions was held--
The game started with a bang--
At halftime a hush fell over the crowd--
Tension was released when JoAnn was announced Queen. We lost the game but we won the weekend. Homecoming '67 will linger on.
The message of Truman Capote’s fantasy “The Grass Harp” is that people need each other and that the bonds of human kindness are among the highest on earth. Overcome by problems, Dolly Talbot is forced to escape to a treehouse where she meets the wise and friendly judge who through his memories leads Dolly to see that there are still many beautiful things in the world to love. As the judge says “First a leaf, a fall of rain, begin with these, then someone to receive what a leaf has taught you, what a fall of rain has ripened . . . I only know how true it is: that love is a chain of love, as nature is a chain of life.”

Amid a complete carnival atmosphere of sparkling lights, barker's with canes and kewpie dolls, and clowns, fat ladies, strong men, acrobats and gaily painted sideshow fronts and wagons, the audiences were thrilled by our production of the musical "Carnival". With this story fresh in the heart one could only believe that love really does make the world go 'round.

Night Must Fall
“Night Must Fall” is a story of a murder and yet the suspense is not created by the viewers identification of the murderer. Early in the play his identity is revealed, allowing the viewers to focus their attention on the emotional and psychological breakdown of Dan as he comes to the realization that...Night Must Fall.
During the 1967-68 school year, the Student Council has accomplished many things. Both Homecoming and Y.F.U. Week were very successful. In addition to these, many after game dances were held. We continued to support the Salou family and sent supplies to our alumni in Viet Nam. A Student Lounge was established and a juke box was added for the enjoyment of the Student Body.
To Everybody at NUHS,

It seems to me that I just came yesterday and yet, as if I had lived in Cedar Falls and gone to this school as long as I can remember. I wish there was another year in America for me, and another, and another, but the time has come that I have to say good bye—to everybody and everything. This year here has been the most wonderful and unusual and greatest experience in my life. I came here to learn the American way of life, to improve understanding between Americans and Germans; you taught me and helped me from the first day that I was here. I like you for what you are, as friends, as individuals, each one differently, not just because you are Americans. Nobody can help where he was born or what nation he belongs to, but you can develop certain characteristics that distinguish you from others and make you what you are—not the American, but Diane or John or Cathy or Steve. Through knowing you I have also formed my personality. I will take home thousands of memories—all the activities at school like drama and sports and student council and speech contest and many more—but most of all memories of you, of my friends, students and teachers who all helped to make this year so wonderful!

Thank you so much for this. I hope I’ll see you again, either here or in Germany; everybody is welcome at my home!

Always your friend,
Connie

P.S. If you feel like writing to me, here’s my address, I love to get mail!

Dear Friend!

The past year has been a lot of fun, though a lot of work too. I was really lucky to get to go to your wonderful school. I have learned many things of America and American people and my experiences have been mostly pleasant. All of you, both teachers and students have played an important part of making this year such an unforgettable stage in my life towards a brighter future. I have got so many friends that I almost hate to leave, but that is the way life is-- making friends and saying goodbyes. I hope I get a chance to visit your beautiful city again some day.

Sincerely, Pekka Termonen

Dear Friends,

I know that my year here in the United States and at NUHS is and will always stay a high point of my life, a year filled with great new experiences and fun. It was so fortunate for me to be able to attend NUHS, a school which gave me so many wonderful opportunities which I probably would not have gotten at many other schools. I especially think of the great drama and athletic departments.

The only sad point of this year is that I have to leave behind so many very good friends, but I sincerely hope that I'll get the chance to come back here sometime and visit my American High School and all my old classmates.

Finally I would like to tell you that I found a real second home in Cedar Falls and that I'll always be proud to be a graduate from NUHS.

Good-bye and my best wishes to all of you,

Axel Roessing

Time has not hindered the progress of our class—we still don’t have anything. But we have contributed much in outside activities. For instance, in the drama productions, especially “Carnival!”, there were ninth-graders in the show and on crews. And we ranged from poor playing in basketball to two lettermen in swimming for the sports record. In such extracurricular activities as the speech contest, three ninth graders went to Districts. So this year wasn’t completely futile, and we look forward to even more prosperous years. Despite our few accomplishments, we had a great time.

The school year of 1967-68 has been an active, productive one for its sophomore class. The year has been characterized by many meaningful exchanges of ideas between teachers and students. What teacher would say the sophomore class of '67-'68 wasn’t independent and energetic? You could often see the sophomores spreading the NUHS name through activities they enjoy most, like participating in sports, sponsoring a dinner or hayrack ride, and many others too numerous to name. Truly the sophomore class has worked hard to help NUHS earn its outstanding reputation. We of the sophomore class are looking forward to even greater achievements in the future.

The highest goal a class can achieve is one of responsible leadership and cheerful involvement. One could rightly ask if we have attained this position or not—and perhaps we don’t know.

We have had car washes, movies, field house parties, dances, magazine and candy bar sales. We have been knee-deep in mud at Ingawanis, high on wobbly ladders for Prom, inside panther heads and out of our minds. We have been to Des Moines for All-State, to Burnside for concerts, to Ackley for football, to Backbone for picnics and we have always ended up here.

Now, we are leaving. Leaving for new goals and ideals that must face us the rest of our lives. But we will always remember the school that gave us our beginning: a bit of knowledge, our first goals.
