Cover Story

Typical of the way UNI hopes to fly high in 1970 was this flight to touchdown land in 1969 when flanker Larry Skarvedt led the parade against Drake on a 76-yard pass play with the Bulldogs in pursuit.

Sheriff Starts 1970s As Athletic Director

There is something about the turn of the decade that Stan Sheriff likes. Ten years ago he opened the 1960s with a new title . . . head football coach. He still holds that position.

Now we have the 1970s and Stan begins his newest duties . . . Athletic Director.

Sheriff moves into his eleventh season with an impressive 62-32-2 coaching record.

Few college coaches have had a more successful beginning. After two seasons as head assistant (1958-59) Sheriff took over for the 1960 season and came up with an unbeaten year in nine regular season games. His first collegiate coaching loss came in UNI's first post-season game that fall. UNI fell, 17-6, to Hillsdale in the Mineral Water Bowl.

Stan got that one back in 1964 when the Panthers whipped Lamar Tech 19-17 in the first Pecan Bowl game, signifying the NCAA College Division Midwest Regional championship.

Sheriff coached teams have won four North Central Conference titles (1960, 1961, 1962 and 1964). He's 41-12-1 in NCC play. He's produced six first team Little All-Americans and 30 all-conference selections, including seven most-valuable player winners.

A native of San Francisco, Sheriff played his collegiate ball at Cal Poly (San Luis Obispo) where he was an all-conference center for three straight years and first team Little All-America as a senior. He played in the 1953 East-West Shrine game and the Hula Bowl, later playing three years as a linebacker in the NFL.

Sheriff graduated from Cal Poly in 1954 and received his M.A. degree from there in 1958. His first coaching experience came during a tour of Army duty where he coached the 4th Infantry Division team to the European service title with a 10-1-1 record.

Stan, and his wife Jane, have three sons, Paul, Michael and Richard.

Stan is a member of the NCAA Football Coaches' rules committee.

The Assistants

DON ERUSHA — Sheriff's number one assistant, Erusha is starting his eighth season with the Panthers. He's in charge of both the offensive and defensive lines. He molded the defensive unit that this fall is expected to be one of UNI's finest in years. He also must come up with an offensive line that was splintered by graduation, losing four of the seven starters. Erusha has consistently constructed top-flight linemen, high-lighted by first team Little All-America Ray Pedersen in 1967. Erusha graduated from Coe College and coached in the high school ranks at West Union, West Branch, Mt. Clemens, Mich., and Cedar Rapids Washington. Prior to his arrival at UNI in 1963 he was on the Coe staff. Don and his wife Pat have one daughter, Kay, a sophomore at UNI this fall. Erusha is to be given much of the credit for UNI's 21-19 victory over Drake in 1968 when he came up with an innovation in the line that gave the Panthers the domination in line play over the bigger Bulldogs and directly led to the win.

DENNIS REMMERT — Remmert is one of three former UNI players now on the Panther staff. He is in charge of coordinating the defensive platoon, sharing the defensive coaching responsibilities with Erusha. Remmert, at one time or another, has held most of the assistant coaching spots with UNI, handling the freshmen for several years. On the varsity level he has been the offensive backfield and end coach before switching over to defense. During his playing days he earned Little All-America honors as an offensive tackle. He graduated in 1959 and after a short pro career joined the Panthers as a graduate assistant. He coached one year at Ft. Dodge junior college before returning to the Panthers. Remmert handles the press box phones on game days and occassionally shares in the scouting chores. He and his wife Sandy have no children. Remmert, a native of Mason City, is starting his seventh season with the Panthers.

LARRY THOMPSON — UNI's new offensive coordinator coach isn't all that new. Thompson, a former two-sport all-stater at Waterloo East, played his collegiate football at UNI under Sheriff, earning all-NCC honors as a halfback in 1963. The following season he opened his coaching career as a graduate assistant with the Panthers, handling the backfield during that Pecan Bowl year. He then moved to Illinois State for one season as an assistant before moving to Ellsworth Junior College for a highly successful run in 1966, posting a 32-5-1 record in four seasons and taking the Panthers to two bowl games, winning both. Larry and his wife Kathy have two young sons.

BILL CALLOWAY — Energetic Bill Calloway steps in this season as a graduate assistant with specific duties in handling the junior varsity. Just two years removed as a split end for UNI, Calloway earned his spot with an outstanding effort in 1969 as a student assistant. He handled a portion of the scouting assignments and received his first shot of recruiting in the spring. He also served as co-ordinator of the Alumni squad for the Spring game.

ELMER KORTEMEYER — Kortemeyer begins his fifth year as UNI's head trainer. A former UNI student, Elmer completed his undergraduate studies at the University of Wyoming in 1957 and received his M.A. degree from the same school in 1962. In the interim he coached high school football and basketball in Wyoming. He and his wife Joy have two sons, Karl and Paul, and two daughters, Clare and Katherine.

UNI's Backfield: A Special Feeling in 1970

There's a special feeling rumbling around Northern Iowa.

It centers around the offensive backfield head coach Stan Sheriff has assembled and about the line.

The Panthers should be loaded in the backfield with six solid running backs scrambling for two running spots.

Its an enjoyable problem for Sheriff and staff.

Lets start at left halfback. Back are two of the most interesting sophomores around in years, Jerry Roling and Dave Hodam.

Roling is a gem who paid dividends in 1969 as a freshman (stunning Drake with a perfect 57-yard punt return) who promises to get even better as he develops. A solid, versatile and shifty runner at 190 pounds.

Hodam could be listed at quarterback or free safety or split end or flanker. He's a running back who can play well at any spot. A high school quarterback for his father at Des Moines Hoover, Daves debut last fall in mid-season at halfback and gained 169 yards the first try. He has great knowledge of the game and desire to match.

Neither Roling or Hodam is expected to start.

The number one threat is 201-pounder Ron Owens, who has four years of service behind him and the listing of the finest back at UNI since Randy Schultz. Owens has speed, a lightning start, punch and the moves. He drew cheers for his performance in the spring game.

The Big Boys

Now, take fullback. Do you like returning starter Roger Jones at 202 pounds? A good bet, but by no stretch of the imagination a sure bet. Jones was the leading ground gainer in 1969 and the top scorer.

But, there's Willie Allen at 237 pounds with a quick start and a good blocking reputation. Or, 225-pound Jim Gorsch with a little more speed and a crunching style.

Two spots are set. Gary Weber is the quarterback and Sheriff expressed his confidence by shifting Hodam to halfback and listing only freshman behind the Sioux City senior who has yet to start a game for UNI. The team agreed, naming him co-captain.

Weber is a runner by nature, a passer with better results than many give him credit for. He nailed flanker Larry Skartvedt with a perfect 40-yard strike in the spring game for openers.

Skartvedt is the other back. He could be a top candidate for a running back spot, but few do as well what the likeable Larry does at flanker. He can run the reverse and best of all . . . he can get open and then catch the ball. He owns two of the three longest touchdown receptions in UNI history, blitzing Drake and North Dakota U. for 76 and 86 yards respectively.

When Weber is in the throwing mood there is more than Skartvedt and the multi-talented Hodam to throw to. Back is co-captain Randy Ruisch at split or tight end. And, in comes Mel Schwiesow, the number one pass receiver in the nation in junior college in 1969.

Up Front

From the tackles in its a new game, one that top assistant Don Erusha is working hard to bolster.

Starter Frank Cooney is back at right tackle with JC transfer Shelby Humbles, at 255 pounds, and Gene Dietrich, a starter at center in 1969, are at left. That trio could be the answer if all goes well.

Sheriff's talented recruiters found a gem at guard in JC transfer John Blessman to join returning starter Mike Fisch, but there is a need for more depth here and at tackle.

The center spot may be set for the next three years. Ken Rosenkrans earned all-state honors at the spot two years ago for Waterloo East. He lettered in 1969 as a part-time starter at guard and now has been shifted to the anchor spot. Both Sheriff and Erusha are happy. Veteran Jon Hansen is a solid backup, good enough to start if Rosenkrans falters.

For the Defense

The defense is a near carbon copy of the offense. The returnees are in the backfield and that is where the Panthers came up with two key JC stars.

The top man is middle linebacker Bob Lee. Sheriff likes to quote his statistics. He's 6-3, 210 and runs the open 440 in under 49 seconds. Sheriff adds, happily, that he carries the reputation of a hitter. He likes the contact.

Randy Junkman is the second addition and he's set at right cornerback to team with all-NCC Jim Luhring. Luhring has earned his reputation and is a co-captain. Junkman started earning his with a 79-yard pass interception TD run in the spring game.

They join the veteran Marv Miller and oncoming Karl Krumm. Miller, hit by the injury bug, could be the best of the bunch with a full season of service. Krumm, an offensive back until this spring, was the surprise of the early drills. He's the best bet for strong safety with his constant hustle and willingness to hit.

Solid Spot

Two veterans flank Lee at linebacker. Co-captain Mike Filer is on the right side and set for a brilliant year if he continues to progress as he did in 1969. Dennis Meyer, at 226, is back on the left side to stop the power attacks, with Darrell Steen as the key swing man so vital to the spot.

Up front there is a lack of depth and only one returning starter. Doug Walter will handle the left tackle spot and right tackle is in good hands with all-NCC 190-pound wrestling champion Mike Allen. Allen has that combined speed, quickness, agility and upper body strength that pleases Erusha and Sheriff.

Likely starters at guard are sophomores Mike Koch, at 6-6, 245, and Nelson White, 6-3½, 230. White lettered as a freshman. Both need to learn more and relax and enjoy the combat ahead.

The Kicking Game

You figure on the plus side when you add up the Panther kicking game.

Little Mike Butler will be one of the best punters in the country this fall and he's just a sophomore. He does three things extremely well . . . he kicks for height, for distance and for small returns.

Butler became the first frosh in history to win a North Central Conference statistical title last year and he averaged 39.48 on 58 kicks. Just as important, the foes returned those 58 punts only 83 yards, 1.4 yards a try.

Dietrich should become the best placekicker in UNI history. He tied three records last year and is in line to shatter all the career marks.

Who's Number Two

One interesting sidelight looms for Panther fans. Who will be the number two quarterback. Three freshmen think they are the one. There is Ft. Dodge's second team all-stater Tom Walters. Or Al Wichtendahl from Cherokee and Cedar Falls Doug Witham.

Walters is the early front runner. Wichtendahl and Witham are interesting long shots.

All have one thing in common. Their high school coaches played for Stan Sheriff.

The winner of this battle should be number one in 1971.

Where Are They Now?

All of the young men mentioned below have one thing in common. They all participated in the UNI football program since the arrival of Stan Sheriff, they all are UNI graduates, and they are all now in the coaching profession.

The Squad - Co-Captains

12—GARY WEBER, QB, 6-0, 175, Sr., Sioux City, Ia. The starting quarterback, Weber played only briefly at that spot in 1969 and filled in behind Larry Skartvedt at flanker often enough to earn a letter. A transfer from Centerville JC, Weber passed four times, hit three and scored once on a run in his brief stints. Had a solid spring game. Lends more versatility to position with his running ability.

45—JIM LUHRING, DHB, 6-0, 180, Sr., Nashua, Ia. An all-conference corner back in 1969, Luhring heads up a solid deep defense that could sparkle in 1970. Luhring had an outstanding effort against Drake and from then on drew the enemies number one receiver full time. He responded with great plays and four interceptions that led team in that department. An honor student in the classroom.

85—RANDY RUISCH, SE, 6-2, 195, Sr., Maurice, Ia. Ruisch led all pass receivers last year with 39 catches and was second with 23 as a sophomore tight end. Could operate at either post this year as he teams with Skartvedt and JC star Mel Schwiesow. Has the size to block on the inside. An honor student, Ruisch paints water towers for his summer fun.

89—MIKE FILER, LB, 6-0, 183, Sr., Cedar Falls, Ia. Pound for pound the toughest hitter on the squad, Filer had a big junior year keyed by an outstanding effort against Drake. Good speed got him in position to nab three enemy passes and he ran one back for TD from 46 yards out. Lack of size has not hampered him on field where hustle and willingness to hit make him a key performer.

13 - Hodam

14 - Knox

15 - Walters

17 - Butler

12—GARY WEBER, QB, 6-0, 175, Sr., Sioux City, Iowa. All the pressure is on Weber in 1970. He played less than five minutes at quarterback a year ago, but lettered as a reserve flanker and specialist. Can provide great threat with his running talents and will earn respect with his passing. Killed Alumni with long bomb in spring game. Honored as co-captain before first collegiate start.

13—DAVE HODAM, HB, 6-2, 195, So., Des Moines, Iowa. No one is more versatile than Hodam. A quarterback in prep days for his Dad at Hoover, he can play five spots and help any team. Debuted as runner with 169 yards against Morningside, hurt Drake with receiving. Top football head, excellent team man and potential team leader. Lack of passing arm keeps him out of QB picture.

15—TOM WALTERS, QB, 6-2½, 185, Fr., Fort Dodge, Iowa. Another top notch prep threat, Walters earned second team all-state honors and can do it all. He's top threat with Knox for backup role. The prize is high, starter in 1971.

16—DOUG WITHAM, QB, 6-4, 180, Fr., Cedar Falls, Iowa. A real sleeper. Hurt in lone year of prep football, Witham may develop late into best of rookies. Son of former UNI Athletic Director, he'll try hand at basketball as well.

17—MIKE BUTLER, P, 5-8, 153, So., Des Moines. The biggest surprise of the 1969 season. Butler is a top punter, ranking on the national scale, led NCC statistics as a freshman. Has terrific potential and future. Kicks the ball high and allows few returns. If they recognize specialty men he'll rank as Little All-America candidate.

18—AL WICHTENDAHL, QB, 6-1, 190, Fr., Cherokee, Iowa. A second sleeper in the quarterback race. Missed senior (HS) season of play and may take longer to develop. Prepped for both Bruce Wiegmann (Waterloo East) and Ken Beverlin (Newton) in their stays at Cherokee.

20—MIKE WOODLEY, FS, 5-8, 160, Fr., Waterloo, Iowa. Overshadowed by Jerry Moses at East, Mike Woodley is a top recruiting for UNI. Played both ways in high school but is scheduled for free safety duty with Panthers. Could earn starting role as yearling.

21—CRAIG ANDERSON, DHB, 6-1, 195, So., Jewell. Tried at running back last year, Anderson will spend full time on defense from now on. Needs time to develop new skills.

20 - Woodley

21 - C. Anderson

22 - Skartvedt

23 - Smith

22—LARRY SKARTVEDT, FL, 5-10, 187, Jr., Radcliffe. UNI's top pass receiving threat, Skartvedt has all the tools for greatness. Has speed, agility, toughness and desire to be of Little All-America stature. Top pro prospect on squad along with Butler. Became deep threat a year ago, blitzing Drake and North Dakota U. (the latter was the longest TD passing strike in UNI history with Skartvedt running most of it.)

23—WAYNE SMITH, DHB, 5-11, 190, Sr., Belmond. Has failed to letter to date, Smith should see enough duty on defense and as backup for Skartvedt to match first two years playing time and then some.

24—ROGER JONES, FB, 6-0, 202, Sr., Aurelia. Faces stiff fight to retain starting job as UNI fullback. Missed spring while starting on baseball nine, he must out hustle Willie Allen and Jim Gorsch to continue as starter. Led team in rushing last year after starting as flanker during sophomore season. Dad was UNI's first first-team Little All-America gridder, in 1937.

25—RON OWENS, HB, 5-10, 201, Jr., East Moline, Illinois. UNI's top running threat in years, Owens is already ranked on par with Randy Schultz before playing a single game. Could be top back in NCC from start. Has four years of Marine service behind him and great future ahead. Has exciting style that pleases fans.

26—JIM BRADEN, HB, 5-10, 175, Fr., Red Oak. Must wait his turn as Panthers look to talent rich veterans for yardage this season.

28—JERRY ROLLING, HB, 5-11, 190, So., Eldora. He may be second best running back in area but will have to beat out Owens to start. Sure to see loads of duty he can return kicks and block. Gives UNI best one-two halfback running punch in years.

24 - Jones

25 - Owens

28 - Roling

29 - Milder

31 - W. Allen

34 - Krumm

35 - Gorsh

42 - Rivers

29—STEVE MILDER, FS, 5-11, 180, So., Iowa City. Shifted to defense, Milder needs time to learn new spot and toughness to stick opponent. Has speed to work with for starters.

31—WILLIE ALLEN, FB, 6-2, 237, Jr., Waterloo. Big Willie, at 237, can mow opponents down. Could be UNI's starter at fullback, but must beat out Jones and Gorsh in talent-rich position. Could be big benefit at tight end, a spot pros might prefer him at in the future. Looked good in the spring.

34—KARL KRUMM, SS, 5-9, 185, Jr., Tripoli. An all-state ball carrier, Krumm got lost in maze of offensive talent. Found a home in the spring at strong safety. Lacks size, but is among the best in toughness, willingness to hit and as a team player. Outstanding attitude will help him earn starting spot.

35—JIM GORSH, FB, 6-1, 225, Jr., Cedar Rapids. The third party in the interesting battle for fullback job. Started spring game and showed well but was injured in first half. Could be number one again. Has good speed for 225-pound size. Blocking effort could win it for him.

40—MARC BERNAT, DHB, 6-0, 175, Fr., Davenport. Unknown quality coming in, he'll get a chance to learn spot on junior varsity team and as a varsity backup man.

41—JACK SHOOP, SE, 5-11, 180, Jr., Carlisle. Has not lettered as yet, Shoop must battle taller men for starting spot. Should see duty in reserve role.

42—CLARENCE RIVERS, FS, 5-8, 155, Sr., Detroit, Mich. In three way battle for starting spot, Rivers hits hard but size hurts him over long haul of season. Adds early season experience deep backs will need. Missed spring drills while on baseball team.

43—RANDY JUNKMAN, DHB, 6-1, 185, Jr., Manson. One of the top JC additions, Junkman paid spring game dividend with interception and 80-yard return for a score. Top-flight man in interception game, he's learning new art at the cornerback spot after free safety duty with JCs.

45—JIM LUHRING, DHB, 6-0, 180, Sr., Nashua. Won all-NCC honors last fall with great year-long effort. Was consistently assigned foe's top receiver all the way and did the job. Had his top game against Drake and the outstanding Duane Miller. He's looked to guide deep backs this year in his co-captain role.

43 - Junkman

46 - Miller

47 - Evans

46—MARV MILLER, FS, 6-0, 185, Sr., Exira. Potentially, the best defensive back on the squad, Miller has been injury prone. If he can stay healthy he can play with anyone in the league. Good speed and great sense for the play and the ball and he's a sure tackler in the open field. Makes few mistakes.

47—J. SCOTT EVANS, LB, 6-1, 195, Sr., Knoxville. Should have his most productive year this fall and could press for starting role. Gives Panthers fifth solid performer at this key area.

48—MIKE OTT, SS, 5-11, 180, Fr., Cedar Falls. Defensively, Ott may be the sleeper of the year. An outstanding wrestler, he could win strong safety job in battle with Krumm. Needs only time to learn duties.

49—MARK SOPELAND, SS, 5-11, 180, Fr., Spencer. Could enter strong safety picture early. Must rank with Ott in pre-season planning.

50—JON HANSEN, C, 6-3½, 215, Sr., Muscatine. Battles Rosenkrans for starting job, Hansen will likely handle chores when the kickers come on as he did in 1969. Has good size and speed for position but needs to add consistency to performance as blocker.

51—GENE DIETRICH, T, 6-1, 230, Jr., Marengo. Shifted from starting spot as center in 1969 to tackle, Dietrich may continue as number one. Has the ability and size to block in NCC but lacked speed for center position. Continues as top field goal and PAT kicker, destined to be best in Panther history.

50 - Hansen

51 - Dietrich

52 - Steen

53 - Green

54 - Lee

55 - Rosenkrans

56 - Bohnsack

60 - M. Allen

52—DARREL STEEN, LB, 6-2, 210, Sr., Buffalo Center. Counted on for heavy duty as linebacker, his value comes in versatility. Can play inside or outside spot effectively. Ranks as number one reserve at all three spots. Has failed to letter to date.

53—RUSS GREEN, LB, 6-2, 190, So., Washington. Green has willingness to hit but lacks speed and size. Will be content in reserve role this year.

54—ROBERT LEE, LB, 6-3, 205, Jr., Chicago. The top recruiting prize of the year. He adds element of class to defense that makes it a big plus in 1970 future. Expected to be an outstanding middle linebacker, Lee is rated in Little All-America class from the outset. Could be the best at the spot since 1964 and the outstanding Phil Minnick. Comes from Ft. Dodge, JC.

55—KEN ROSENKRANS, C, 6-1, 220, So., Waterloo. May be UNI's next Little All-America offensive linemen. Has all the tools needed . . . size, speed, toughness and desire. Earned starting role at strange position as freshman at guard. Now he's back at prep spot at center. Could earn NCC honors as sophomore.

56—JIM BOHNSACK, C, 6-1, 190, Fr., Estherville. Another son of former UNI first team Little All-America performer, Lou. Needs time to learn collegiate system. Should play most of his time with JVs in 1970.

57—BRUCE ANDERSON, LB, 6-3, 200, Fr., Ventura. Rated as top freshman linebacking recruit. Anderson will get seasoning with JVs.

61 - Woodruff

62 - Fisch

63 - Lounsberry

64 - Blessman

65 - Noble

67 - Schuler

68 - Moorhouse

72 - Cooney

60—MICHAEL ALLEN, DT, 6-1, 205, Jr., Waterloo. Could make big difference in defense in 1970. Came on last year to become North Central Conference wrestling king at 190 pounds. Has outstanding quickness, great upper body strength and desire to be with a winner. Brother of Willie, he was first team all-state prep guard at Waterloo East.

61—TOM WOODRUFF, OG, 6-2, 190, Fr., Danville. Destined for JV duty in his first trip around in collegiate circles, but could lend hand in depth role in spot that needs numbers.

62—MIKE FISCH, OG, 6-0, 220, Sr., Dubuque. Returns as starter. Shared duties in 1969 with Rosenkrans. Should have best year in 1970 following transfer from Ft. Dodge JC and season of varsity experience.

63—STEVE LOUNSBERRY, OG, 6-3, 200, Fr., McCallsburg. Has size to be in picture early as top reserve. Yearlings will get close look at this spot.

64—JOHN BLESSMAN, OG, 6-2, 217, Jr., Cedar Rapids. No doubt he's the top offensive guard from the moment he transferred from Ellsworth JC last year. Had bright spring session and could challenge for all-NCC honors. Perfect build and temperament for interior lineman.

65—GARY NOBLE, OG, 5-11, 230, Fr., Indianola. Was a second team all-state tackle last year and could earn way to top reserve spot as guard this fall. Size alone puts him in immediate contention.

66—SCOTT PURYEAR, OG, 6-2, 225, So., Cedar Rapids. One of the guards of the future, Puryear may not be willing to wait. Should push Fisch for starting role. Also tosses shot and javelin in track.

67—DOUGLAS SCHULER, DT, 6-2½, 210, Jr., Cedar Falls. The type of player who is just on the threshold of having a big year. Has many of the tools to challenge for starting spot despite lack of size. Should see considerable action.

68—TOM MOORHOUSE, DG, 6-0, 185, Fr., Glidden. Small, Moorhouse will get chance to show toughness and quickness that Panthers like to see at this position.

74 - Jordan

75 - Humbles

76 - White

77 - Walter

71—STEVE ELLISON, DT, 6-1, 205, Jr., Waverly. Must learn to be consistent to be a real factor in Panther plans. Will likely back up Allen.

72—FRANK COONEY, OT, 6-4, 245, Jr., Marengo. UNI's top offensive tackle going into 1970. Could become equal of his prep coach Merle Masonholder, former Panther star. Like Masonholder, he parlays consistency into winning effort.

73—SAM GINN, OT, 6-5, 240, Fr., Des Moines. Tackle spot needs depth and Ginn has size and reputation to move into early contention as a top reserve.

74—TOM JORDAN, DT, 6-3, 215, So., Centerville. Could be outstanding performer of future. Needs to learn spot and mature. Has physical assets to be top performer if he wants it enough.

75—SHELBY HUMBLER, OT, 6-0, 250, Jr., Chicago. Will battle Dietrich for starting spot. Could be the top tackle with consistent effort. Has good size and outstanding quickness off ball. When on his game he can be toughest tackle in NCC. Had top JC career at Ft. Dodge.

76—NELSON WHITE, DG, 6-4, 230, So., Waterloo. Just a step away from stardom and only a sophomore. One of Sheriff's prize freshmen of 1969 (Rosenkrans, Roling, Hodam, Butler). Has physical tools to dominate at his position, but must relax and that should come with added experience. Started as freshman on occasion. No limit once he gains confidence in himself.

77—DOUG WALTER, DT, 6-3, 240, Sr., Corning. Must be the defensive leader up front. He's the lone returnee from 1969. Had top sophomore year but was step behind 1969 stars such as Larry Green and Jim Rudd. Should attain full potential in 1970 as senior veteran.

78—RON KOCH, OT, 6-5, 230, Fr., Lohrville. Brother of sophomore Mike, Ron will get JV experience and have some backup duties behind Cooney.

78 - R. Koch

79 - M. Koch

83 - Calease

84 - Schwiesow

79—MIKE KOCH, DG, 6-6, 245, So., Lohrville. Coming fast, Koch has earned starting spot and gives UNI great size inside to control run and rush passers. Will generate toughness as he picks up experience. Must depend on Walter at start for help, but is line-man of future along with White.

uable experience on JV unit and as specialty man with varsity.

83—JERRY CALEASE, TE, 6-3, 195, Fr., Clarksville. Calease will get most of his experience with the JVs but could enter clouded tight end picture if front runners falter.

80—BRUCE DINNEBIER, SE, 6-2, 190, So., Waterloo. Multi-talented, Dinnebieer could be the surprise of 1970 in receiving department. Lettered as frosh in baseball as starter and is now at football spot he plays best . . . end. Had outstanding career at Waterloo West and could develop similar pattern with both sports at UNI.

84—MEL SCHWIESOW, SE, 6-2, 190, Jr., Hawarden. Schwiesow led the national JC rankings last year as a receiver for Worthington (Minn.) JC and could end up either as the number one split end or tight end. May force the two-year veteran Ruisch into tight end spot.

81—ROGER BOECK, TE, 6-2, 205, So., Harlan. Started early as freshman and then faded. He could be big asset with consistent effort at tight end. Has size to handle the job but must mature in his attitude and willingness to work hard all of the time.

85—RANDY RUISCH, SE, 6-2, 195, Sr., Maurice. UNI's top receiver in number of catches in 1969, Ruisch will go either inside or out, depending on Schwiesow and Dinnebieer. Will have to hustle to earn starting role. With effective blocking he could become outstanding threat as tight end where he would still retain deep pattern possibilities.

82—FRANK METZGER, LB, 6-0, 190, Fr., Des Moines. Should earn val-

86 - Meyer

88 - Cox

Trainer: Mayes

Mgr. - Foor

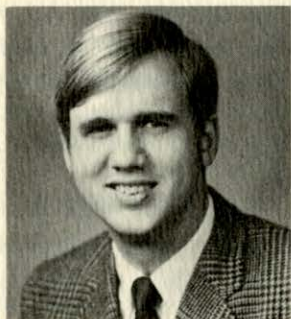

86—DENNIS MEYER, LB, 6-1½, 230, Sr., Iowa Falls. Back for his third starting year as a linebacker, Meyer should have his best. He plays tough left side that gets most of the running action where his size pays off. Lacks great range to work inside. Teams with Filer and Lee to give UNI power position at linebacker.

87—MIKE BROOKS, LB, 6-1, 179, So., Ames. Likely to see JV duty for 1970 season behind a veteran unit. Needs size to be contender for starting role.

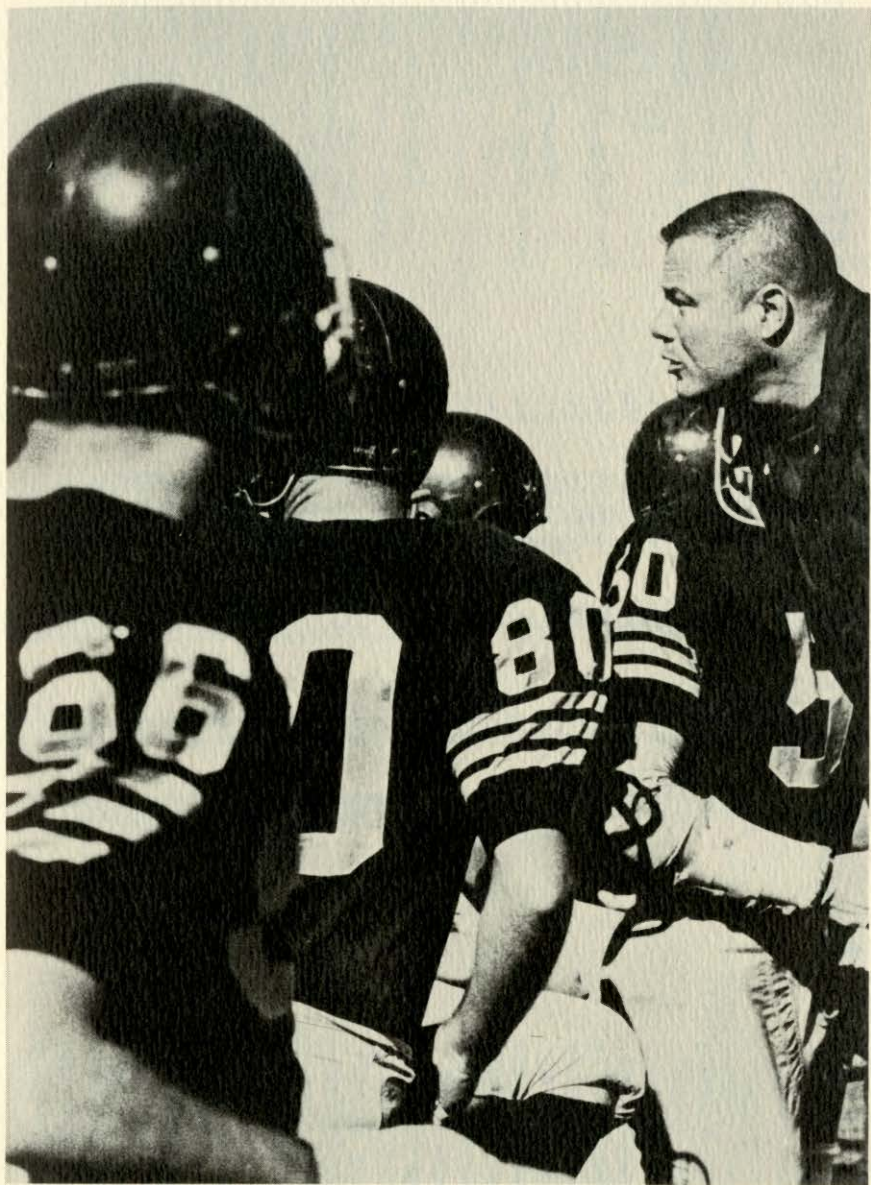

88—VINCE COX, TE, 6-3, 205, Jr., Sioux City. Could be the tight end if he becomes a consistent performer. Injuries cost him in 1969 and last spring. Could be big pickup to UNI offensive threat with good season.

89—MIKE FILER, LB, 6-0, 183, Sr., Cedar Falls. None tougher on this squad than Filer, one of four co-captains. He ignores size to get job done with class at outside linebacking spot. Can stay with halfbacks coming out of the backfield on pass patterns and hits harder than anyone, pound for pound. Should have an outstanding year. Always ready for top performance on Saturday.

New UNI Sports Information Director

Dave Westphal, who accepted the Iowa Panthers Sports-Information Director post as this book was going to press, brings youth and enthusiasm and a surprising amount of experience with him. A 1970 graduate of Wartburg College, Westphal has been sports editor of the Cedar Falls Record for nearly a year. He was sports editor of the student newspaper at Wartburg for two years, and edited sports while attending Valley High School in West Des Moines where he earned all-conference honors in basketball. His wife Debbie, is a teacher at Holmes Junior High in Cedar Falls.

Kemp Returns; NMU Defense Is Solid

Two seasons ago Jim Kemp earned Little All-America honors for Northern as a defensive end. He sat school out last year and he's back. Add that to eight returning starters and Rollie Dotsch has to be happy with the defense.

The big losses came on the offensive side of the ledger where quarterback Rich McCarthy and multi-honored Lonnie Holton, at halfback, have graduated.

Dotsch has his eye on replacements, notably Marty Brenner at quarter, Tommy Davis at the running slot and they'll have an experienced line to run behind.

Northern Michigan has enjoyed a five year winning skein against the Panthers, a change Sheriff and Company would dearly like to change. The last time they beat the big, bulky Wildcats they went to the Pecan Bowl.

Coach Kramer

Running of Lakes Sparks Central Game

Jesse Lakes bloomed early last year but UNI fans missed the big burst, luckily.

One week after Central had beat the Panthers with Lakes gaining an ordinary 42 yards, the sophomore exploded for 343 yards rushing, the sixth best single game total in college division history. He proved it was no fluke, closing with 1,263 yards and 10 touchdowns.

And, Lakes is no one man show. He has a running mate in John Jones, who averaged 5.6 yards per carry in 1969.

Coach Roy Kramer is looking for help in the offensive line to open holes for Lakes, but returns seven defensive starters.

The new leader should be Norm DeCourcy, a junior letterman at QB, though he has yet to start a game.

Coach Pryor

Jacks Moved Up In '69; Add New Coach In '70

New head coach Dean Pryor has a chance to finish off what new head coach (for 1969) Dave Kragthorpe started.

The Jacks came on strong in the last half of the season and gave the number one college division team its only serious threat, losing to NDSU 20-13.

Can they keep coming? Pryor must fill a bundle of defensive holes but has strength in his backs on offense, headed by Max Sinclair and Fred Richardson. His defensive backs are solid with Chuck Kavanagh and Jim Kempainen.

It's up front where SDSU may be hurting, plus that yearly trouble spot . . . lack of team speed. They've been big 'Rabbits of late, but slow ones.

Pryor wants another shot at the mighty Bison. Who doesn't?

Coyotes Up or Down?

The 1970 Question

South Dakota surprised everyone in 1968 and threatened North Dakota State for the title.

South Dakota surprised everyone in 1969 and threatened no one for anything.

Joe Salem's Coyotes did an about face and it hurt. They figured to be the club to challenge the Bison.

Salem starts again with a more favorable home schedule, 26 lettermen and the memory of some bad injury nightmares.

Needed a quarterback to direct runners Bob Koch and Steve Pelot while linebacker Paul Nelson heads six vets on the defense.

Major losses were fullback Dan Hankins, the NCC's number one rusher, and two-time Little All-America tackle John Kohler. Salem needs no more defense that allows 24 points a game, either.

Drake Seeks Revenge For Lone '69 Loss

Those rugged Bulldogs from Drake may be looking for revenge and if its the 1969 regular season that bothers them . . . then UNI is the target. The Panthers tagged them with their lone defeat, 23-13 at Des Moines, in a game dominated by the defenses.

The 'Dogs, back from a Pecan Bowl appearance, should be healthy again with talent at all stations.

Coach Jack Wallace needs to find a replacement for the brilliant Duane Miller, but he always seems to do just that.

Drake should be a typical Bulldog team, high scoring with the ability to strike from all over the stadium. For the second straight season the UNI-Drake tussle's total of 36 points was the fewest of the year for the Dogs.

QB Mike Grejbowski is the key to the air attack, fullback Burt Perlow the key running threat behind a solid line.

Coach Halford

Junck Fuels Offense; Morningside Tough Again

Quarterback Mike Junck is a threat, by ground, air or punt, and that makes Morningside a threat.

The Chiefs have the offense and Coach Dewey Halford can make it move. But, its the same old problem. Score a bunch, give up a bundle.

Morningside's offensive power is great with Junck directing and back Dave Bigler the running threat, Steve Schroeder and Bill Asprey the catchers.

Can the Chiefs find a defense? They gave up better than 30 points a game in 1969 and they did well to have a 4-5 season.

Halford has some 30 veterans on hand, but the search has to be for defenders.

Mold that unit and Junck and his speedy charges, likely the quickest in the NCC this fall, will do their damage. Think what he could do if he had the ball more.

Mighty Bison Search For Seventh NCC Title

Catching the Bison of North Dakota State is becoming a very bad habit in the North Central Conference.

Looking for a hole in the fortress is becoming a tiresome thing. Is there one to find?

Ron Erhardt should be in deep trouble in 1970 (we hoped that in '69) with all but one offensive starter gone. Imagine. No backfield, no line backer. Yea!

Okay, the Bison defense will be solid, veteran and poised. Okay. Granted. But give us the ball long enough.

The sad part of the story is this . . . don't count the Bison offense out. They may have the best quarterback in history in Mike Bentson. He could lead them with fullback Dennis Prebowski and halfback Jim Twardy a pair of giant running backs.

Gets old, doesn't it?

Oct. 31, 1:30 p.m. CDT — Grand Forks, N.D.

Sioux Still Flush With Passing Arms

Since those glory days of Coley Colehour, the North Dakota Sioux have had a run of talented passers.

1970 is no exception for Coach Jerry Olson. He returns starter Mike Conner and adds sophomore threat Jay Gustafson.

For seemingly the fifth straight year Olson is searching for the other half of a balanced attack, someone to sustain a running game. UND can not live on the pass alone.

Dave Williamson gave a spark to the attack last year, setting a new NCC single game mark for rushing. His blocking line is back nearly intact.

Dan Martinsen proved to be one of the best deep defenders in 1969 and he heads the Sioux this fall.

The answer? Possibly a seasoned Jerry Skogmo will make the difference. The potential is there.

Coach Starenko

Improved Defense Is Viking Hope

Ralph Starenko's Vikings gave up 32 points a game in 1969 and that makes it tough for the offense.

He has a veteran unit back this fall on defense and that point total should fall. Jon Gapa is the big man up front Starenko is counting on for leadership with steady Mike Daly the top deep back.

The need to improve is there for the offense has some giant holes to be patched up. Quarterback Lee Brandt, who had a 229-yard field day against UNI, has departed along with steady Roger Olson at running back.

There is some hope in the line with tackle Paul Colon and tight end Dennis Comstock on hand, but the Vikings are usually hurting for depth anyway and too many holes could be deadly.

UNI should feel a big revenge motive for this one following the 21-10 loss in 1969, the first Viking victory over Sheriff.

Western Toughened Up In Big, Big Hurry

It didn't really take very long. Western Illinois responded to Darrell Mudra in a hurry and got tough.

The Leathernecks, in the doldrums in previous meetings, beat UNI in 1969 to climax an 8-2 season. Mudra got them moving quickly.

What made Western move was a steady offense that was not flashy, but very dangerous.

Quarterback Bob Majka made that offense go and he returns for his junior year with a bright future and a fist full of veterans up front to block. Mike Clarke is the chief running threat back to team with the potent Jim Kreicha. Kreicha dented UNI for 100 yards rushing in 1969 and wasn't the team leader. Tiny Chuck Kero, graduated, had 190.

Majka is still the key. He proved a masterful signal caller against UNI.

The defense is sound, pointing Western for another top season.
