After the Parade

by Robert Benson

You were the prettiest girl in class and that's what troubled you in dreams when all the boys were begging you for just one lift of your pink dress.

You wanted to, and yearned for much more, but the difficult thing was choosing between the shy local stars who fumbled with your brassier.

So you tasted many warm lips and offered your smooth flesh to many inexperienced hands before you locked your legs around the man who would be your husband, later, when selection was narrowed to one, and the choice wasn't yours anymore:

all the homecoming floats melting in the rain.
