Never Again: What You Do Matters [program]

University of Northern Iowa. Center for Holocaust and Genocide Education.
Program continued

- PRESENTATION

“Three Iowans: What They Did Mattered”
University of Northern Iowa students Erin Schrunk, Breanna Hendricks and Amy Costliow

- LIGHTING OF CANDLE OF HOPE

To acknowledge victims of genocides since the Holocaust and to commit ourselves to joining hope with action on behalf of tolerance, mutual understanding and social justice

Diane Ihimbazwe and Nadine Ishimwe

- BENEDICTION

Monsignor Lyle Wilgenbusch, Vicar, Waterloo Region, The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Dubuque

This ceremony is sponsored by the Sons of Jacob Synagogue, UNI Holocaust and Genocide Education Program, Cedar Valley Interfaith Council, Catholic Parishes of Waterloo, and UNI College of Humanities and Fine Arts. We gratefully acknowledge the generosity of the Waterloo Center for the Arts in hosting the ceremony.
WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

Stephen J. Gaies and Laura J. Praglin, University of Northern Iowa Holocaust and Genocide Education Committee

ANNOUNCEMENT OF PROCLAMATIONS

INVOCATION

Rev. Denny Coon, Kimball Avenue United Methodist Church, Waterloo

REMARKS

Mayor Jon Crews, City of Cedar Falls

REMARKS

Rabbi Stanley M. Rosenbaum, Sons of Jacob Synagogue, Waterloo

PERFORMANCE

From Jewish Life (1925) Ernest Bloch (1880-1959)

Prayer

Jewish Song

Jonathan Chenoweth, cello

Sean Botkin, piano

LIGHTING OF 11 MEMORIAL CANDLES

In memory of the victims of Nazi persecution and murder

Marianne Bern, Cedar Rapids

Henry Maidan, Sons of Jacob Synagogue (SOJ)

Harold Wohl, President, SOJ

Sieg run Wildner and Reinhold Bubser, UNI

Sena Cooper, Treasurer, SOJ, and Andrea Volz, SOJ

Rev. Denny Coon, Kimball Avenue United Methodist Church

Bobbi Kazenelson, Sisterhood President, SOJ

Kenneth Atkinson, UNI

Sarah & Danny Stokes, SOJ

Rev. Allen D. Ricks, Black Hawk County Extension Service

David Meeks, Executive Director, and Mary Boes, Waterloo Commission for Human Rights

MEMORIAL PRAYER

Rabbi Rosenbaum

POETRY READING

Marianne Bern

LIGHTING OF CANDLE

To honor liberators

Oscar Gingrich, U.S. Army, Ret., and VFW Sullivan Brothers Post 1623, Waterloo

LIGHTING OF CANDLE

To honor rescuers, resisters, and relief workers

Sheri Huber-Otting and Bill Harwood, Unitarian Universalist Society of Black Hawk County; Ralph Burr and Larry Gordon, Quaker Meeting Group of Cedar Falls

REMARKS

Sheri Huber-Otting and Bill Harwood

continued on back