PATRICIA GODWIN is a non-traditional student with a slight learning disability. She received her bachelor's degree from Luther College with majors in English and history, and is currently preparing to enter graduate school at the University of Northern Iowa. She plans to study philosophy and to continue tutoring writing at the UNI Center for Academic Achievement. She hopes to do research and writing in both areas.

SARA BAUMHOVER is from Carroll, Iowa, and began work as a writing tutor during her freshman year. She will graduate this summer with a degree in General Studies and a minor in educational media and plans to pursue a Master's Degree in English at UNI. She has presented papers on peer tutoring at two national and one regional conference.

CHAR HEITMAN is from Williamsburg, Iowa, and graduated in May with a double major in Spanish and Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL). She plans to teach Spanish in the fall.
