Panther Prospects

The 1973 season could be a good one for Coach J. D. Anderson's Panthers, the defending North Central Conference champions. In addition to the title, the 1972 team earned J. D. the District 5 “Coach of the Year” award with its 16-7 mark.

Twelve lettermen return and that includes, according to Anderson, a steady infield and pitching staff. The potential problem area, or at least where positions are up for grabs, is the outfield.

Senior shortstop Tim Hackenmiller and senior third baseman Bruce Dinnебier, both considered professional prospects, are the headliners. Hackenmiller hit .425 in last year's league action and earned all-district honors while Dinnебier shared the league lead in home runs and is always a long ball threat.

The mound corp is experienced and should be anchored by senior southpaw Chuck Burns and right hander Ed Sawvell with junior Tom Jansen as the top reliever. Jim Tanner and John Wessels are also being counted upon by Anderson.

The remainder of the infield will probably see defensive ace Ron Joyce at first, Larry Smith at second and Randy Varner filling in behind both men. Senior Denny Schott will handle the catching.

The outfield shapes up as a battle between Mark Adams, Mike Dutcher, Tom Heyenga and Joe Wolf with Anderson looking for the men who can best combine offense and defense. Hard-hitting Mark Lang may also play here although expected to back-up Schott at catcher.

The schedule will be rugged — and attractive. The Panthers will open in the University of Miami Invitational against Michigan State, Miami and Army. Besides the normal NCC slate, twinbills with Iowa State, Iowa and Wartburg are planned.

Meet the Panthers

MARK ADAMS ... junior from Des Moines Dowling ... good hitter up from JV team ... will contend for outfield position.

CHUCK BURNS ... senior from Wyoming, Ia. ... southpaw who with control could be one of top hurlers in area ... good fastball and curve ... a workhorse in 1972.

BRUCE DINNEBIER ... senior from Waterloo West ... has most physical power on squad ... terrific hitter ... batted .348 with six homers and six doubles in '72 ... led team in RBI's with 19 and slugging percentage with .725 ... pro prospect ... football letterman.

TIM HACKENMILLER ... senior from Stacyville ... another pro prospect ... all-league and all-district choice for two years ... solid in all aspects of play ... hit .425 in league in '72 and .373 overall ... has lettered three times on basketball team.

TOM HEYENGA ... junior from Allison ... included in the outfield plans but can also pitch ... is a good hitter.

TOM JANSEN ... junior from Cedar Falls ... has primarily been a relief pitcher at UNI ... has good control and extreme confidence ... had 1.44 ERA in 1972 ... right handed.

RON JOYCE ... senior from Waterloo East ... outstanding fielder at first base ... small but quick ... switch hitter with good power from left side ... was honorable mention all-conference a year ago.

MARK LANG ... a sophomore from Cedar Falls ... figures to back up Schott at catcher but his big stick could propel him into the outfield plans.

ED SAWVELL ... senior from Wilton ... right hander who throws hard ... has good control of his pitches and posted a 2.16 ERA last year in 25 innings.

DENNY SCHOTT ... senior from Cedar Rapids Kennedy ... the top catcher with a strong arm ... hit .333 last year.

LARRY SMITH ... senior from What Cheer ... service veteran who's 28 years old ... expected to hold down second base ... is a good hitter, had a .272 average in 1972 ... lacks some speed.

JIM TANNER ... senior from Northwood ... had a 4-0 record in '72 ... had a 2.16 ERA and showed good control.

JOE WOLF ... senior from Sheffield ... another in the outfield plans ... potentially a good hitter but tailed off at plate in 1972 ... fair speed and arm.

JOHN WESSELS ... senior from Ossian ... a southpaw expected to pitch considerably this year ... was 3-0 last year and had 3.24 ERA.

1973 Panther Golf

Prospects

Seven returning lettermen and the addition of three bright newcomers indicate that Northern Iowa's golf team should be better than last year when it finished third in the North Central Conference.

Seniors Harry Parsons and Herm Ahlberg are two of the most consistent players on the squad and could find themselves in the number one or two positions. Ahlberg is a second year Ellsworth Junior College transfer from Iowa Falls while Parsons is from Webster City.

Other lettermen counted upon by Coach Ken Green are seniors John Bartels of Waterloo, Tim Lindgren of Cedar Falls and Steve Slivken of Waterloo; junior D. J. Ellis of Rockwell City and sophomore Rod Olson of Waterloo.

Bartels has an outstanding short game, according to Green, while Lindgren will provide a big boost if he can overcome inconsistency problems, as will Slivken. Ellis lacks the playing experience of the others but could surprise while Olson possesses "the greatest potential on the team" according to Green.

The three newcomers all sport impressive credentials and could work their way into the lineup without too much difficulty. The best would appear to be Jack Heinz, a service veteran back in school for his junior year. Heinz is from a golfing family and has a top amateur record.

Tom Kelly has transferred from Iowa State and the Bettendorf junior is considered to be "sound" by Green. The third addition is Eagle Grove freshman Terry Tomke, one of the top prep golfers in the state last year.

The schedule will be one of Green's toughest. It includes a spring trip to Atlanta, Ga., for a week of practice, a quadrangular with Iowa, Iowa State and Drake, the UNI Invitational and the Iowa Veishea and Drake Relays Invitational.

1973 Panther Tennis

Prospects

Coach Pete Mazula thinks the 1973 Panthers will be better than his last year's team which recorded a nifty 22-2 record and won the conference championship.

Balance is the key to the optimism with at least six players expected to make a strong contribution. Clinton senior Larry Jacobsen should be the No. 1 player with Bob Andres, a junior from Waterloo East, the No. 2. From that point it's a toss-up between Derick Iles, Steve McKinstry, Bob McCartney and Randy Krecji for the third through sixth positions.

Jacobsen had a 16-5 overall record last year, Andres was 21-1 and has a 2-year unbeaten string in doubles play and Iles was 20-0 at the No. 5 spot last year. Two-year unbeaten string in doubles play and last year's Anderson was 21-1 and has a 2-year unbeaten string in doubles play. Iles had a 21-1 overall record last year. Jacobsen had a 16-5 overall record last year. Andres was 21-1 and has a 2-year unbeaten string in doubles play.

The schedule is tougher than before and includes a 10-day spring trip to Florida and Mississippi.

Relays
The 50th annual Art Dickinson Relays will be one of the highlights in the history of Northern Iowa track as it has always been one of the feature attractions in Northeast Iowa.

This year's half century anniversary running will occur April 21 with morning preliminaries beginning at 9 o'clock and the afternoon session beginning at 1:00. Because of the significance of 50 years, UNI officials are planning some special events during and after the day's events.

Special guests will be the immediate family of Art Dickinson, the longtime UNI track coach and staff member for whom the relays are named. In the evening, a relays banquet is being planned where the keystars are named. In the eye of the family of Art Dickinson, the Outstanding Athlete of the Decade will be announced. At the banquet, an "Athlete of the Decade" for each of the five decades of the Dickinson Relays will be named and honored. There is no doubt that choosing the top athlete from each 10 years of out standing athletes is a tremendous task.

Another feature of the banquet will be the displays of old trophies, pictures, and memorabilia that have been collected by the dipe of old trophies. Pictures stand as a reminder of the tremendous task of choosing the top athlete of each of the five decades of the Dickinson Relays.

The 1973 Northern Iowa track team should be on a par with the third place conference finishers of 1972 according to Coach Jack Jennett.

Gone from a year ago is shot putter-discus thrower Mike McCready, a two-sport All-America, and his absence means that the Panthers will need to find new ways to score the points he generally earned.

Despite his loss, and that of several top underclassmen due to injury and academic ineligibility, Jennett believes some newcomers will take up the slack.

One such rookie is Mankato State transfer Mark Chardoulais, a sophomore long and triple jumper who looked strong in the indoor season. Another top addition should be West Waterloo freshman Scott Noltensmeier, who will run the hurdles.

The headliners for the upcoming season should be distance All-America Rich Twedt, a junior from Des Moines, and sophomore sprint ace Dennis Roloff of Cedar Rapids, middle distance co-captain Dennis Schultz of Manchester, versatile junior Kent Wessely of Waterloo and weight man Ken Schwartz, a sophomore from Beaver Dam, Wis.

Potential sore spots in Jennett's roster appear at javelin, where no one has yet emerged as the top man, and the pole vault, where inconsistency has been evident as the top men, and has yet to emerge, struggle.

The premier attraction of the season will occur April 21 when the 50th running of the Dickinson Relays will take place at UNESCO in northeast Iowa. This will occur April 21 when the Mankato State transfer Mark Chardoulais, a sophomore long and triple jumper who looked strong in the indoor season.

About UNI
Teacher education remains the chief function of the University of Northern Iowa, but in recent years academic programs have been added to other degree offerings. The College of Education and Human Development, the College of Arts and Sciences, and the College of Business Administration offer a wide range of majors and concentrations.

UNI's sports program has a long history of success, with the Northern Iowa Panthers competing at the NCAA Division II level. The university offers over 20 sports for men and women, including football, basketball, volleyball, and track and field.

This brochure compiled and edited by Rod Williamson, director of the Northern Iowa Sports Information Office.
