Learning to sew?

Shop's fun, but not the cleaning up.

The eighth grade's big venture this school year was their camping trip at Camp Ingawanis. The teachers enjoyed it as well as the students.

HIT THAT MAN!

Lettermen's Club

Pictured are two of the six one-act plays presented this year by the Drama Club. At left is a scene from "Dust of the Road," which was presented at the Play Festival held at Iowa State Teachers College. Right, is a scene from "If Girls Asked Boys for Dates," showing what would happen if the situation were reversed.

"Melody Moods" of 1954 was a burlesque of the development of the senior trip. The years pictured were 1902, 1952, and 1982, which included trips to Waterloo, Chicago, and around the world. One of the best produced, this year's variety show boasted an attendance of over one thousand.

GRADUATION--1954

Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises were held in the new Elementary School Auditorium.

Father Robert Chambers gave the prayer and benediction at the Baccalaureate service. "God's Athletes" was the subject of Reverend Clifford Walin's address.

Commencement services featured the high school mixed chorus singing "You'll Never Walk Alone" and "The Lord’s Prayer". State Representative Earl Miller addressed the seniors; his topic, "America’s Future, a Responsibility of Citizenship”. Reverend H. D. Temple gave the invocation and benediction.

Diplomas were awarded by Dr. Dwight Curtis to the forty-eight graduating seniors.
