

12-1-1975

Homecoming '75 review, Alumnus, December 1975

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.uni.edu/uninoteworthy\_documents

Let us know how access to this document benefits you

---

Recommended Citation

"Homecoming '75 review, Alumnus, December 1975" (1975). Noteworthy People of UNI Documents. 101.
https://scholarworks.uni.edu/uninoteworthy\_documents/101

This Document is brought to you for free and open access by the Noteworthy People of UNI at UNI ScholarWorks. It has been accepted for inclusion in Noteworthy People of UNI Documents by an authorized administrator of UNI ScholarWorks. For more information, please contact scholarworks@uni.edu.

Homecoming '75 Review

The homecoming parade winds its way to College Hill.

UNI alumni were treated to a variety of programs and personalities as they celebrated "UNification" for Homecoming '75 on Oct. 25.

Starting with the traditional Homecoming Variety Show, the program moved into a busy Saturday. The Homecoming Parade kicked off the celebration. Led by Grand Marshal Herb Hake, UNI's first man of radio, the parade wound its way from Main Street to College Hill. An alumni luncheon in the Royal Oak Room of the J.W. Maucker University Union followed.

Alumni watched the UNI Panthers perform for the last time in the O.R. Latham Stadium against Augustana. Seated with alumni were several members of the first UNI jazz band who returned to celebrate that occasion and were recognized.

Also recognized was Mrs. Robert Lounsberry, (Muriel Dirks, B.A. '42), who was crowned Homecoming Queen in 1940, the same year the stadium was dedicated. Mrs. Lounsberry returned to UNI with her husband, Iowa secretary of agriculture, who attended State Day activities.

A Post-Game Reception was held at the Holiday Inn.

After lunch, alumni walking to the game.

Mrs. Muriel Dirks Lounsberry, first Homecoming Queen in O.R. Latham Stadium, received roses from her son. She is with husband, Robert Lounsberry, state agriculture secretary who was at UNI for State Day.