Perils of Passion in 1918: The Letters of Helen Schechter [poster]

University of Northern Iowa. Women's and Gender Studies Program

Let us know how access to this document benefits you

Copyright ©2017 Women's and Gender Studies Program, University of Northern Iowa

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.uni.edu/wgs_documents

Part of the Women's Studies Commons

Recommended Citation

This Poster is brought to you for free and open access by the Women's and Gender Studies Program at UNI ScholarWorks. It has been accepted for inclusion in Women's and Gender Studies Program Documents by an authorized administrator of UNI ScholarWorks. For more information, please contact scholarworks@uni.edu.
Joyce Milambiling is a Professor in TESOL/Applied Linguistics in the Department of Languages and Literatures. She has a Ph.D. from City University of New York Graduate Center in Linguistics and an M.A. in Scandinavian Studies at the University of California, Berkeley. Areas of specialization are multilingualism, ESL teacher education, and language policy. Recent research in New York City on a collection of letters written by an immigrant to her ESL teacher has led to a multidisciplinary area of study that promises to keep her busy for a long time.