To celebrate the Bicentennial the children chose one of twenty-two interest groups. These multi-aged groups then met to plan, work, and finally perform or display their finished product. It was an excellent way to celebrate the 200th Birthday of our America.

Many thanks to Bob Paulson for the endless hours of picture taking and to the A.V. Department for the developing of the pictures and the final copy.

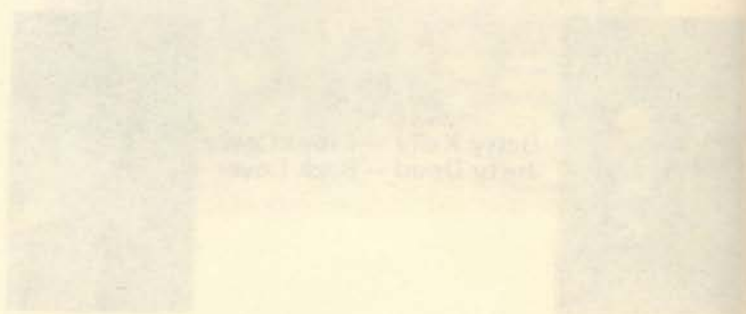

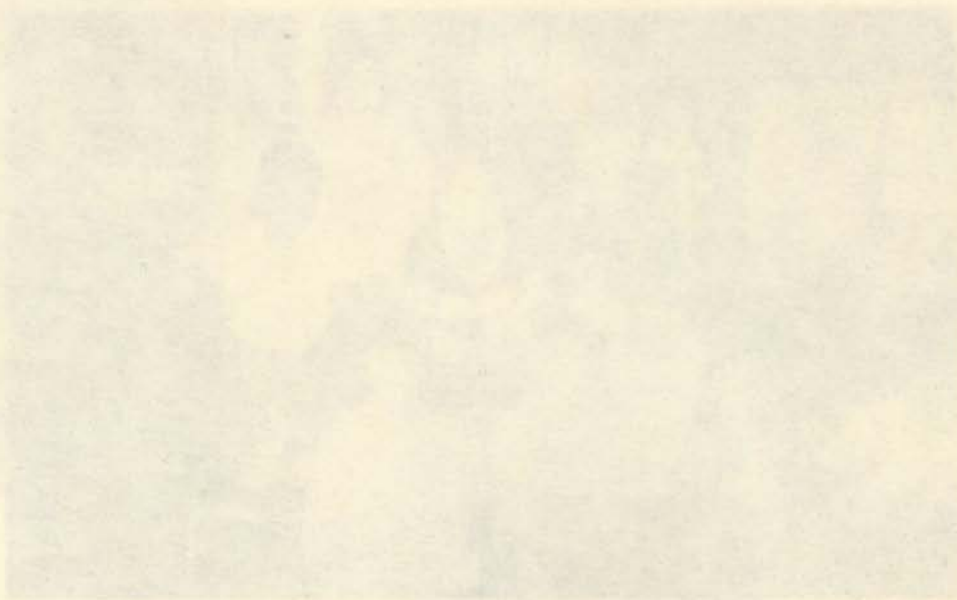

"It has been a pleasure to work with this group to make a pictorial record of some of the many things that make this school great. This Bicentennial Year seemed to be a good time to acknowledge this greatness."
