TWO PARADE MARSHALS NAMED FOR UNI HOMECOMING PARADE

CEDAR FALLS--Dr. Donald V. Adams, vice president of student life at Drake University, and Tom Pettit, NBC television newsman from California, will be parade marshals for the University of Northern Iowa Homecoming Parade Saturday morning Oct. 25,

Adams was director of residence hall programs at Michigan State University until he assumed his position at Drake earlier this year. He formerly served with the Marshalltown Recreation Commission, the Clinton public school system, and as a dormitory director at UNI.

A 1957 bachelor of arts graduate of UNI, Adams also earned the master of arts in guidance and counseling and the doctor of education degrees from Michigan State University.

Pettit produced documentary films for the NBC television show "First Tuesday." He received an "Emmy" award for outstanding television accomplishment for a documentary he produced on chemical and biological warfare.

He worked as a radio announcer in Iowa before becoming an NBC announcer in 1960 and has also been associated with the National Education TV Network.

Pettit received the B.A. in English from UNI in 1953 and the M.A. from the University of Minnesota. He lives in Burbank, Calif.
