Faculty Publications

We have a new Faculty Publications Collection! UNI Faculty have always been prolific creators of publications on diverse subjects. We have created a small physical collection of their books in the ScholarSpace (room 301). This browsable collection is available for building use only. For faculty who have retained copyright, we also provide access to their materials via UNI Scholar Works (<https://scholarworks.uni.edu/>). Stop by, or login, and see the great talent and expertise of your UNI Faculty.

Alumni Database Access

Rod Library and the State Library of Iowa have negotiated contracts with several providers of electronic journals, movies and other resources that extended access to UNI alumni. A complete list is available at the library's A-Z databases webpage. For CatID and passphrase assistance, contact the IT service desk at 273-5555.

Bikes!

Did you know the Rod now has a small fleet of bikes for check out? Thanks to the UNI Office of Sustainability, a grant from PepsiCo, and NISG the library now has 8 bikes available for a 3-hour checkout. Interested in a longer term checkout? De Stress @ Rod

Finals week is upon us! Have no fear, the Rod is here not only to help you with that paper or project, but to chase away anxiety and stress! PET-PALS will be here Apr 26-27, 30 and May 1-2 from 11-2:00. Stop in to have them check out your ruff draft. You are sure to get 2 paws up! The Graffiti Wall is up and ready for your words of encouragement.

Gallery Walks

Join us in the Learning Commons and the Museum space for student-curated gallery walks. Students in the Introduction to Museum Studies course have created three exhibits: "Dolls of the Americas," "A Century in Progress: UNI Student Life 100 Years Ago" and "Baubles, Bling and Other Things: Jewelry from Africa." They will give brief talks about their exhibits on May 1 from 1-2:50. The exhibits will be available until August 1, 2018.
