-Be sure to enroll in Section 02-

Please join us for a special section of Introduction to Women's & Gender Studies, which focuses on lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer identities and perspectives. This course combines an overview of the historical and theoretical development of queer studies as a field of inquiry with topical readings concerning cultural, legal, artistic, literary, philosophical, and religious aspects of queer existence. Special attention will be paid to the construction of one's gender and sexuality through intersecting identities such as race and social class. This course satisfies LAC requirement 5a.
