Notes For The Stalled

Black History Month

Please join Rod Library as we celebrate Black History Month. "Telling a People's Story" exhibit will be in the Learning Commons from Feb 5-19. This exhibit is devoted to the art found in African-American children's picture books. Telling A People's Story is organized by the Miami University Art Museum through a grant from the Martha Holden Jennings Foundation. This project is sponsored in part by the Cedar Falls Tourism and Visitors Bureau. From Feb 2-22, the UNI Center for Multicultural Education will present the "Humanize My Hoodie" exhibit and events in the Learning Commons. Jason Sole and Andre' Wright, the co founders of the "Humanize My Hoodie" movement, will be on hand for a presentation and opening remarks for the exhibit on Feb 12 from 6-8 p.m. This presentation will be followed by interactive activities regarding the movement and exhibition. Contact Keyah.Levy@uni.edu for more information. In conjunction with the African American Children and Family Conference, on Feb 21 from 9:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. Rod Library will host 900 area first graders for the African American Read-In. The students will participate in activities and experience books by and about African-American authors and illustrators. For more information see: <https://aac.uni.edu/>

Research Guides

It's 2:00 a.m. and you just need to finish your works cited, but you just can't seem to remember how to cite a PowerPoint presentation. We can help! Check out the collection of "Research Guides" from the library homepage. We have tools to help you cite sources, choose a topic, evaluate your sources and more! Check out the "Basic Resources" (<https://guides.lib.uni.edu/subject/basicresources>) to get started.

Career Readiness

Make your first impression count! Have a free professional headshot taken and review your resume with Career Services on Feb 6 from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Whether you're looking for a job or internship or participating in social networking opportunities like LinkedIn, a polished look can set you apart from the competition.
