Did you know Rod Library has joined forces with local libraries to offer you more borrowing options? When you are in OneSearch, click on the Advanced Search button to search “Local Libraries.” From there you can search local libraries, and even request that a book be delivered here for you to pick up! You can also walk in to libraries at: The University of Iowa, Iowa State University, Drake, Wartburg, Hawkeye Community College, St. Ambrose University, and Grand View University for no cost check out of materials. If you have any questions, just stop by the Library Services desk and we’d be happy to walk you through it.

The UNIVA Student Services is hosting a 1-week photo exhibit from November 8-15 on the Learning Commons Art Wall honoring service members. Enter for a chance to win a prize for the person who can identify the most military acronyms. Come by and read the service phrases used, and photos of our loved ones.

Flute Choir
Join us November 14 at 2 p.m. in the Learning Commons to hear students in Dr. Hannah Porter-Occena’s studio performing in a Flute Choir.

Hold Me Now
Did you know you can place a hold on many items in the Rod Library collection and on some books in the IRTS collection? “Holding” an item means we will go to the shelf and pick it up for you so you will just have to stop by the Library Services desk to check it out. To place a hold, login to your library account. Find the book you need in One Search and click on the “request” button for the item. If the item is on the shelf, we’ll retrieve it for you and have it ready for check out at the Library Services desk. If the book is checked out, we’ll recall it and you’ll get notified when it is ready to be picked up.
