University of Northern Iowa Field Hockey 1980

Lois Hartman
Head Coach

Lois Hartman takes over the head coaching duties of UNI's field hockey squad for the 1980 season only. She is replacing veteran coach Wanda Green, who has taken a one-year leave-of-absence to further her studies. Green will be back at the helm in 1981. Hartman is a 1972 graduate of UNI. She played hockey for the Panthers for three years, and since graduation has played for the Northeast Iowa Field Hockey Club. She is a physical education instructor at Grundy Center High School, where she is the head women's basketball and tennis coach.

1980 Preview

The 1980 UNI field hockey squad returns 15 players from last year's team, which finished 5-12-1. There are six first-year players.

"This is the largest field hockey squad assembled at UNI in the last several years," Hartman says, "so already I think we'll be in better shape. Thirteen of the 15 returning players are only second-year players so that shows just how young and inexperienced we were a year ago. This year will not be so much of a teaching experience as it will be a coaching experience."

Though UNI still will be young and somewhat inexperienced, Hartman feels the team is much further along at this point than it was even at the end of last year. The most experience will come from fourth-year player Carol Breuer and third-year athlete Karin Gustafson. Breuer is a link and Gustafson a forward. Also, both goalies — seniors Carol Knoll and Lori Miller — have one year of experience behind them.

Hartman doesn't believe there will be any one particular weakness in the squad but says the defense should be a real plus because of the added experience.

The Panthers lost their best forward last year with the graduation of Teresa Kennedy, who has taken over as Hartman's graduate assistant. But the team should be more aggressive and have more speed this season. Helping with that facet of the game will be forward Laurie Magee, who has shown great speed in pre-season drills.

The highlight of the Panther season will be Nov. 6-8 when UNI hosts the AIAW Regional Division II Championships. Other home contests pit the Panthers against Southwest Missouri, Luther, the Northeast Iowa Club, Western Illinois, Graceland, Grinnell and Iowa.
