Digital Diversity Display

The Rod Library Digital Diversity Display highlights resources from our collection that cover a wide range of topics. Check out past displays here:

guides.lib.uni.edu/digitaldiversitydisplay. Interested in curating a digital display? The library welcomes display requests from current University of Northern Iowa students, UNI student organizations, and UNI faculty and staff. Display topics should align with University of Northern Iowa's educational goals and Rod Library's diversity statement.

It's time to CELEBRATE! UNI ScholarWorks reached over 1.5 MILLION downloads. UNI ScholarWorks publishes any research, creative, and scholarly work from UNI, which is then available and accessible around the world. UNI Scholarworks also hosts a variety of image galleries such as Fortepan Iowa, the UNI Old Gold Yearbooks, Malcolm Price Laboratory School photographs and yearbooks. Scholarworks is maintained by the Digital Scholarship Unit. For more information contact Ellen.Neuhaus@uni.edu.

Hours Changes

Final exams, holidays, and the winter interim are approaching. To keep up to date with the library hours see:

The Learning Center
@ Rod Library

It's time to start preparing for this semester's finals. While The Learning Center will be closed during finals week, that doesn't mean we can't help you prepare! We can help you review study strategies and test-taking strategies as well as math, science, writing, and some specialty courses. Go to tlc.uni.edu/schedule, to schedule an in person or online appointment. If you are unavailable during normal tutoring hours, online tutoring is also available through Smarthinking (you will need your CATID and passphrase to gain access). To access the Smarthinking platform go to <https://tlc.uni.edu/online>.
