Things to Know About the Rod
Welcome to UNI and Rod Library! Since you are new here, allow us to give you the scoop about all things Rod Library. Did you know we have over 1 million print volumes, access to over 100,000 electronic resources, private study rooms, a quiet floor, collaborative workstations, laptop checkout and so much more?! You can contact us via phone, text, email, and chat to ask questions or to set up a 1-on-1 consultation. We’ll work with you to find the right tools and search techniques for your needs. When you just need a break from course work, don’t forget the Rod has a great selection of leisure reading with the satellite Cedar Falls Public Library Collection near the Book Bistro, games, CDs & DVDs, Virtual Reality and awesome events like our mini comic con (RodCon).

The Learning Center (TLC)
Worried that your paper or assignment isn’t as good as it can be? Does it need a little TLC? Fear not, we’ve got you. Through a collaboration with Undergraduate Studies, “The Learning Center @ Rod Library” will swoop in like a super hero and provide assistance with math and science tutors, peer mentors, feedback for papers, time management support and more. The Learning Center is located in the center of the Learning Commons. More information at https://tlc.uni.edu/.

New Living History Exhibit coming soon!
After being intrigued by the new Jurassic Movie, UNI anthropology professor CoughTyler O’brienCough decided to collaborate with UNI Museum to create a new hands on case study of living history by bringing dinosaurs to campus. The exhibit will be opening on the first floor of Rod Library August 19th. Having trouble navigating the world of inaccurate/ satirical / false news stories? The friendly Rod Library staff are here to help. Call, text, email, or chat us to answer quick questions. Contact us at tinyurl.com/LibrariansAtUNI to set up a 1-on-1 session with a librarian in your field.
