April 2019

City Council meets to discuss impact of raid

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.uni.edu/postville_documents

Part of the Public Affairs, Public Policy and Public Administration Commons

Let us know how access to this document benefits you

Recommended Citation
"City Council meets to discuss impact of raid" (2019). Postville Project Documents. 287.
https://scholarworks.uni.edu/postville_documents/287

This Document is brought to you for free and open access by the The Postville Project at UNI ScholarWorks. It has been accepted for inclusion in Postville Project Documents by an authorized administrator of UNI ScholarWorks. For more information, please contact scholarworks@uni.edu.
Today's Readership Award: 10 people

Daryl Hammeister

Daryl Hammeister is a native of Allamakee County. He is a U.S. Air Force veteran and has worked for Winneshiek Mutual Insurance for over 37 years. Daryl retired in 2006 after 41 years of service to the company. He has been a member of the Allamakee County Supervisor team for the past 14 years and also served as the County Auditor for 11 years.

Daryl is married to Herbie and has two children, Windy and Rodney. Daryl enjoys teaching, coaching, and various community activities.

Please provide some background information on your role as Allamakee County Auditor.

Daryl Hammeister: As the Allamakee County Auditor, I am responsible for ensuring the financial accountability of the county. This includes preparing the budget, maintaining records, and ensuring that the county's financial transactions are accurate and transparent.

What do you feel you can bring to the position of Allamakee County Supervisor?

Daryl Hammeister: As the Allamakee County Auditor, I have a background in budgeting, financial management, and accounting. I have a strong understanding of the financial needs of the county and an ability to make informed decisions based on the available data. I also have a strong commitment to maintaining the financial integrity of the county.

Please share your thoughts on the importance of public service in today's environment.

Daryl Hammeister: In today's environment, public service is more important than ever. With increasing concerns about the financial health of the county, it is crucial that we ensure that our financial transactions are transparent and that our budget is made with the best interests of the citizens in mind.

What are your goals for the Allamakee County Supervisor team?

Daryl Hammeister: My goal is to ensure that the Allamakee County Supervisor team is working together to provide the best possible service to the citizens of the county. We need to make sure that our budget is well-planned and that we are using our resources in the most efficient and effective way possible.

What can you do to help ensure that the Allamakee County Board of Supervisors is working together?

Daryl Hammeister: One way I can help ensure that the Allamakee County Board of Supervisors is working together is to make sure that the budget is well-planned and that we are using our resources in the most efficient and effective way possible. I can also help ensure that the board is working together by providing them with the information they need to make informed decisions.

What can you do to help ensure that the Allamakee County Supervisor team is working together?

Daryl Hammeister: One way I can help ensure that the Allamakee County Supervisor team is working together is to make sure that the budget is well-planned and that we are using our resources in the most efficient and effective way possible. I can also help ensure that the team is working together by providing them with the information they need to make informed decisions.